SAMUEL VENNER.

INTRODUCTION.

THE principal motive, which gave birth to the present work, was a desire of supplying the British merchants, as well as the officers of his majesty's revenue, with a practical book, extensively, and particularly adapted to all circumstances of the duties of Customs; the utility of which will appear on considering whether the assistances that have been provided, antecedently hereto, for the merchants and officers, in regard to the computation of these duties, are sufficient for that purpose. These assistances are an alphabetical catalogue of the goods which are supposed to be imported and exported, with their several rates or valuations, the net duties laid upon these rates, and certain letters or characters annexed to each species of goods, bearing reference to a table that points out the several branches which compose these duties. Under these assistances, a distinct knowledge of the branches of the customs, and of the principles by which they are governed, is evidently necessary towards forming a just calculation of the said duties; which knowledge cannot be obtained, with any degree of certainty, without much study and practice, and therefore falls within the power of few persons. And as the net duties flowing from the several rates and valuations in former works, extend no further than to that particular quantity of goods on which the rate is fixed, which quantity generally falls short of, or exceeds the entry given, a very troublesome computation, in regard to the deficiency or excess, is further necessary; whereas, by the extensive computations exhibited in this work, the total net duties of customs arising to the crown, upon the largest or smallest quantity of goods that can be comprised in any entry, are obtained by only adding two or three sums together.

As to such merchants and officers of the customs who are skilled in computing the duties payable to the crown, and make their computations upon the several branches which compose such duties, even these gentlemen, by being furnished in this work with the total net duties on any given quantity of goods, will obtain an useful cheque for proving the rectitude of their own computations, and sometimes avoid mistakes, which the most intelligent persons are liable to on this subject.

A FURTHER motive for compiling this work, arose from the new duties upon dry goods, wines, coals, and other articles, which have been laid on since the publication of Mr. SAXBY's edition of CROUCH'S work, in 1757: So that members of parliament, and persons concerned in the legislature, as well as gentlemen interested in commerce, and even many officers of the customs, have been at a loss in regard to ascertaining the just amount of the duties as they now stand, upon goods imported and exported; and have had no standard to refer to for obtaining due information on this subject, except the printed acts of parliament.

IN the abstract of the laws relative to the customs, inserted at the end of this work, the utmost care has been taken to comprehend all the regulations relative to this great branch of the public revenue, which have been established by the legislature to the end of the last session of parliament, in the year 1765, inclusive.

ALTERATIONS are made in this work in the arrangement of several species of merchandize, which, it is hoped, will place them in a clearer view, and remove them from being involved, as they have been in several instances, with articles of a different genus. Some articles are also expunged, which either stand prohibited to be imported, or otherwise appeared, in certain places, to incumber the work, without any utility: At the same time, a list of all prohibited goods is inserted immediately after the abstract of the laws.

THE work here offered consists of three Compartments or Divisions, each containing several Chapters, and comprehending the whole extent of the customs, in regard to the various circumstances of importation, exportation, and the coast business: To each of which Compartments are prefixed proper explanations, which describe the form and construction of the several tables therein contained, and serve to remove any difficulties that might occur in making use of these tables.

How far the execution of this work is answerable to the motives which gave birth to it, is submitted to the candid reader: All the merit which the author pretends to, is the perseverance he has shewn in making, with continued labour and attention, the extensive calculations therein, in order to prevent mistakes, and promote the ease of the merchants and of the officers of the revenue.

This work was designed to have been published several months ago, but the difficulty of printing it, and the additional columns which were obliged to be added for describing the drawbacks allowed on goods exported to the British colonies in America, made it impracticable. This extension of columns made it also impossible to print the book on the paper described in the proposals, a larger size being necessary.

C U S T O M S.

This Branch comprehends the following Duties, viz.

Subsidy inwards, or Old Subsidy,
Petty Customs,
Additional Duty,
One per Cent. inwards, Composition on Petty Seizures.

And by 12 Car. II. cap. 4. § 3. 7.			W AS granted (except the One per Cent. and Composition on Petty Seizures) from 24 June 1660		during the King's life.

2 W. and M. ———	4. ———	2.	Granted for four years	——	to ditto ——— 1694.
6 W. and M. ———	1. ———	2.	ditto five years, to commence	on 26 December 1694.
8 and 9 W. III. ———	20. ———	1.	Continued	——	to 1 August ——— 1706.
1 Annæ ———	13. ———	1.	ditto	——	to ditto ——— 1710.
5 ———	27. ———	1.	ditto	——	to ditto ——— 1712.
6 ———	11. ———	1.	one moiety	{ for 96 years —	to ditto ——— 1808.
1 Geo. I. ———	12. ———	2.		{ continued ———	for ever.
6 Annæ ———	19. ———	1.	the other moiety	{ ditto ———	to 1 August ——— 1714.
7 ———	7. ———	28.		{ ditto ———	for ever.

The money arising by this branch, which comes into the hands of the receiver-general of the customs, is (after deducting the drawbacks thereof on exportation, and also the over-entries, damages, and discounts on tobacco-bonds paid off; and after payment of the bounties on corn, spirits, silk manufactures, sugar refined, gunpowder, sail-cloth exported, bounties on indico, Greenland and white-herring fisheries; together with allowances for damaged tobacco cut off, and unmerchable wines, portage bills, &c. and all charges of management, except otherwise particularly directed) paid into the Exchequer in moieties; for the purposes hereafter mentioned.

By 6 Annæ, cap. 11. § 6. one moiety of the customs is appropriated for the payment of annuities for 99 years, which annuities commenced from 24 June 1708.

By 1 Geo. I. cap. 12. § 1. 2. 15. the other moiety, as also the surplus of the first moiety, after payment of the annuities thereon charged, and the whole thereof, after the last day of June 1808, together with these branches following, viz.

- N^o 4. The Two-thirds Subsidy,
- N^o 13. Fifteen per Cent. on Muslin,
- N^o 14. Duty on Spice, &c.
- N^o 15. Additional duty on Spice, &c.
- N^o 16. Second 25 per Cent. on French goods,
- N^o 26. Duty on Hops, are made part of the AGGREGATE FUND by that act established.

But note, that by 9 Geo. II. cap. 23. § 17. the WHOLE of this branch arising on Brandy and Spirits imported, after 29 September 1736, is applied to the Aggregate Fund. See Branch N^o 7.

By act 4 Geo. III. cap. 15. § 1. 26. the whole of the Old Subsidy, is, on the exportation of any foreign goods, of the growth, production, or manufacture of Europe or the East Indies, to the British colonies in America, retained, to constitute a fund for defraying the expence of defending, protecting, and securing the said colonies.

N^o. I. Subsidy inwards, or Old Subsidy.

THIS duty is composed of a TONNAGE and a POUNDAGE, which names arise from the different regulations, whereby it is imposed and levied.

By the act of 12 Car. II. cap 4. it is called a TONNAGE duty on wines imported, being thereon regulated by a sum certain on every ton; and it is called a POUNDAGE duty on other goods and merchandize imported, being thereon regulated by a certain portion of a pound (or twenty shillings) of a rate or valuation.

TONNAGE therefore is payable (in ready money (a) before landing) on all wines imported (b) except prisage wines; and by the 13th and 14th of Car. II. cap. 11. vinegar, perry, rape of grapes, syder and syder-eager, which by 12 Car. II. cap 4. were under the common regulations of poundage, are made subject to tonnage for this subsidy; on all which it is to be respectively levied and collected according to the several regulations following,

	Viz.	Gross subsidy per ton.
RHENISH or (c) HUNGARY WINES imported into any port	By British	6 0 0
	By Strangers, or in ships not belonging to Great Britain or Ireland, or foreign built	7 10 0

PERRY, RAPE of Grapes, SYDER, SYDER-EAGER, and VINEGAR imported into any port (d)	By British	4 10 0
	By Strangers	6 0 0

Out of the above duties on wine, perry, &c. the merchant is to be allowed (e) 12 per cent. for leakage. If imported from a place of growth, &c. and if wines are imported not

(a) 12 Car. II. cap. 4. § 1. 4.
 (b) 12 Car. II. cap. 4. § 16.
 (c) 1 Ann. cap. 12. § 112.

(d) 13 and 14 Car. II. cap. 11. § 25.
 (e) 8th rule of Book of rates.

from a place of growth, the said 12 per cent. for leakage is not allowed except on Madeira wines, (f).

But if he thinks that this allowance is less than the actual leakage, he may (by practice) refuse it, and pay duty for no more wine than is found by gauging to be contained in the casks on their landing.

It was anciently the method to ascertain the quantity of wine in such cases, by filling up the casks out of each other, and hence the terms of wine (imported in casks) entered UNFILLED or FILLED.

By the 6th of Geo. I. cap. 12. the following allowances are also to be made out of the several gross duties on wines imported in casks; being in lieu of former abatements (by virtue of the 10th rule of the book of rates) at the discretion of the officers of the customs for damage on corrupt and unmerchantable wines.

On	Rhenish wines, or wines of the growth of Germany, or which pay duty as such	2 per cent.
	French wines, or wines of the growth of any of the French king's dominions	6 per cent.
	Spanish, Portugal, and all other wines	10 per cent.

So that according to the particular circumstances of entry, the net subsidy to be paid, will be found to be as follows, viz:

(g) Wine may not be brought from any out-port or other place into London, or within twenty miles of the Royal Exchange, before the out-port duties, and also the difference between the out-port and London duties, are paid to the collector of the customs nearest to the place from whence the wine is to be removed.—This difference is what hath been usually called The LONDON DUTY. For particular regulations, see Wine in the Index.

But note, that wines so removed in bottles or casks are supposed full or filled up, therefore it is the practice, in the first case, to allow no discount, and, in the last, all but the 12 per cent. for leakage.

The difference to be paid on this branch, for wine so to be removed from any out-port to London, is as follows :

		Net subsidy.
		The ton.	The gal.
		£. s. d.
Rhenish wine —	no difference.
Levant wine imported into Bristol and Southampton —
French wine in casks —		1 8 2 $\frac{8}{10}$,005595
Spanish, Portugal, Levant, and all other wines —	in casks —	1 7 0	,005357
		in flasks or bottles —	1 10 0 ,005952

The method of computing the aforefaid net subsidy of tonnage on wine, &c. is illustrated in the following examples, viz.

Two casks, containing one ton of Spanish wine unfilled, imported into the port of London, from a Place of Growth, by British, and in a British ship.

The gross duty per ton, as before	4	10	0
12 per cent. for leakage	0	10	9 $\frac{12}{25}$
	3	19	2 $\frac{8}{25}$
10 per cent. of the gross duty	0	9	0
The net subsidy	3	10	2 $\frac{8}{25}$

Two casks, containing one ton of Spanish wine unfilled, imported into the port of London, not from a Place of Growth, &c. by British, and in a British ship.

The gross duty per ton, as before	4	10	0
10 per cent. of the gross duty	0	9	0
The net subsidy	4	1	0

And so for all the other various cases of entry.

By several acts subsequent to those of the 12th of Car. II. cap. 4. and 13th and 14th of Car. II. cap. 11: the subsidy of poundage on a valuation or rate having been taken off from diverse sorts of goods and merchandize, under certain circumstances of entry or importation, and in lieu thereof this duty having been respectively ascertained thereon by fixed and absolute sums; such goods are thereby become under the like regulation as tonnage, and are therefore most properly ranged under the same head; and are as follow.

be ascertained by the oath or affirmation of the importer (q), except goods of the growth, product, or manufacture of India or China, which are not particularly rated in the first column of the said rates; (r) the subsidy whereof is to be collected on the price (s) reduced, except lacquered ware) at which they shall be fairly sold by auction or inch of candle.

On which rates, values, or prices, this subsidy of poundage is to be computed by the following rules.

		Gross duty.
		£. s. d.
EARTHEN-WARE not particularly rated in the 1st col. of rates, viz.	China ware —————	$7\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. of the rate, or reduced value of the price at the candle; being for every 20 s. of such rate or value —————
	All other sorts rated in the second column of rates —————	0 1 6
GLASS MANUFACTURES	Not any where particularly rated in the first column of rates; Or, rated in the 2d column of rates	$7\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. of their value upon oath, or of their rate in the second column of rates; being for every 20 s. of such value or rate
		0 1 6
(t) FISH dried or salted, and cod-fish or herrings (unless prohibited), not caught in British or Irish vessels, and cured by British or Irish —————		10 per cent. of the rate, or double subsidy; being for every 20 s. of such rate —————
		0 2 0
TOYS FOR CHILDREN not any where particularly rated in the first column of rates; or rated in the second column of rates —————		$6\frac{2}{3}$ per cent. of their value upon oath, or of their rates in the second column of rates; being for every 20 s. of such value or rate
		0 1 4
(u) DRUGS rated in the first column of rates imported from places not of their growth, or in foreign built shipping, except drying drugs and pearl-barley —————		5 per cent. on treble the rate ————— being for every 20 s. thereof —————
		0 1 0
ALL OTHER GOODS liable to the subsidy of poundage —————		5 per cent. on the respective rate, value or price

(v) And under this head is comprehended a duty by way of CUSTOM and IMPOST, on the following sorts of salted or dried fish imported in vessels not British built, or not belonging to Great-Britain, and not having been caught in such vessels, viz.

	Net duty.
COD-FISH, { The barrel —————	0 5 0
{ The last, containing 12 barrels —————	3 0 0
{ The hundred, containing 120 —————	0 10 0
COLE-FISH, the hundred, containing 120 —————	0 5 0

WHITE-HERRINGS, the last, containing 12 barrels —————	1 16 0
HADDOCK, the barrel —————	0 2 0
GULL-FISH, the barrel —————	0 2 0

But they are now prohibited to be imported, as per Index.

But out of the afore said gross subsidy there is to be allowed DISCOUNT in the following manner:

CORN and BARLEY hulled, or pearl-barley, when this duty is taken under the regulations of 22 Car. II. cap. 13. —————	no discount.

- (w) TOBACCO of the British plantations ————— 25 per cent.
 (x) ————— not of the British plantations ————— 5 and 8 per cent.
 Which allowance of 8 per cent. is not to be deducted on exportation.
 (y) ALL OTHER GOODS, ————— 5 per cent.

The method of computing the aforesaid subsidy of poundage, is illustrated in the following examples, viz.

Example the first.
 1200 lb of British plantation tobacco.

Upon recourse to the head of tobacco in chap. 1. of the second Compartment, this fort will be found to be rated at 1 s. 8 d. per pound; at which rate the quantity proposed amounts to	100	0	0
The gross subsidy being five per cent. of the rate, amounts to	5	0	0
The discount at twenty-five per cent. to be deducted, amounts to	1	5	0
The remainder, being the net subsidy, to be paid, amounts to	3	15	0

Example the second.
 1500 lb of Spanish tobacco.

The amount of the rate, which, as before directed, will be found to be ten shillings per pound	750	0	0
The gross subsidy at five per cent.	37	10	0
The first discount at five per cent.	1	17	6
	35	12	6
The second discount at eight per cent.	2	17	0
The net subsidy to be paid	32	15	6

Example the third.
 100 lb of Italian wrought silk, imported from Italy, in a British ship.

The amount of the rate, being 1 l. 13 s. 4 d. per pound	166	13	4
The gross subsidy at five per cent.	8	6	8
The discount at five per cent.	0	8	4
The net subsidy to be paid	7	18	4

Or this duty may be wrought after the following manner, being the practice of the port of London.

Suppose the last example.

The amount of the rate, as before	166	13	4
The discount at five per cent.	8	6	8
	158	6	8
The net subsidy to be paid, at five per cent.	7	18	4

And after the method of these examples, may the subsidy of poundage on all other species of goods be computed.

This duty of poundage is also payable (after the rate of five per cent. of the value upon oath) for ships taken as prize, and regularly condemned in the Court of Admiralty: but it is the practice not to charge them with any other duty whatsoever.

The aforesaid subsidy of tonnage and poundage having been duly paid at importation; if the goods shall be afterwards (z) duly exported to foreign parts, within (a) three years, from the master's report of the ship, the exporter is intitled to the DRAWBACK or REPAYMENT, in the following manner:

No. V. Composition on Petty Seizures.

ALL goods seized by the officers of the customs, are to be prosecuted to condemnation, either in the Court of Exchequer, or before the justices of the peace, &c. and the King's moiety or share paid in to the proper officers; before any writ or order of delivery may be granted, except in the case of (a) perishable goods: but when the seizure is so small, that the custom thereof does not exceed forty shillings, the commissioners of the customs have, by their patent, a power to compound for it, and in that case the King's part is to be paid in to the collector of the port of seizure; who is to account for it by the name of Composition on Petty Seizures; which he is to comprehend under the general head of Customs.

APPROPRIATION.

By 1 Geo. III. cap. 1. § 2. 3. 4. this branch is part of the fund for support of his Majesty's household, and the honour and dignity of the Crown.

(a) It is to be raised, levied or collected, by the same rules, orders and methods, and under the same penalties and forfeitures, as the customs.

This Branch, as well as the Old Subsidy, is composed of a tonnage and poundage.

(a) 9 and 10 Will. III. cap. 23. § 7.

TONNAGE

(b) TONNAGE is payable in ready money upon all wines imported, viz.

		Gross new subsidy.
RHENISH or (c) HUNGARY WINES im-	ported into any port	By British	6 0 0
		By Strangers, or in ships not belonging to Great Britain or Ireland, or foreign built	7 10 0
LEVANT and all other WINES imported into	London	By British	4 10 0
		By Strangers, or in ships not belonging to Great-Britain or Ireland, or foreign built	6 0 0
	Other ports	By British	3 0 0
		By Strangers, or in ships not belonging to Great-Britain or Ireland, or foreign built	4 10 0

(d) Out of this gross duty, the like allowances and abatements, in all cases, are to be made, under the same restrictions, and in the same manner and form, as are directed for the Old Subsidy; so that in all cases, except Levant wines imported into Bristol or Southampton, this net new subsidy will be the same as the net old subsidy; and for Levant wines imported into Bristol or Southampton, the net new subsidy will be the same as in every other out-port; regard being had, in all cases, to the particular circumstance of an importation from a place of growth, or not from a place of growth.

The difference called the LONDON DUTY on wines, which having been landed and paid duty in any out-port, are afterwards to be removed to London, or within twenty miles of the Royal Exchange, must be paid under the same regulation, as directed for the Old Subsidy, and is as follows:

		The ton.			The gal.
Rhenish wine	no difference.	1	8	2 ⁸ / ₁₀	,005595
French wine in casks		1	7	0	,005357
Spanish, Portugal, Levant, and all other wines	in casks	1	10	0	,005952
	in flasks or bottles

POUNDAGE (e) is payable in (f) ready money (except for TOBACCO of the British plantations, which may be secured by bond in all circumstances as the additional duty thereon) upon all goods and merchandize imported, except these following:

WINES, being liable to tonnage.

No. 6. SUBSIDY 1759.

BY 32 Geo. II. cap. 10. § 1. was granted from 5th April 1759, without limitation.

APPROPRIATION.

Towards payment of annuities at 3 per cent. per annum on the principal sum of 6,600,000 l. and the additional capital of 990,000 l. added thereto, being 15 l. for every 100 l. advanced, and consisting of 10 l. in a lottery ticket, and 5 l. in annuities; and by the act 33 Geo. II. cap. 12. § 3. the money arising by this Branch, since the 5th January 1760, is to be carried into and made part of the sinking fund.

(a) This branch is over and above all subsidies, additional duties, impositions, &c. a POUNDAGE of twelve pence in the pound, to be paid in ready money on the following goods and merchandize, imported before landing, (except for Tobacco, whereon it may be secured by bond) according to the several particular rates or values thereof, as they are respectively rated and valued in the Books of rates referred to by the 12 Car. II. and 11 Geo. I. or by any other Act of parliament, or which do now pay any duty ad valorem, viz.

(b)	{	TOBACCO	{	5 per cent. on	being for	}	0	1	0

		EAST INDIAN GOODS (except Coffee and Raw Silks)
		FOREIGN BRANDY and SPIRITS (except Rum of the British plantations)
		PAPER		their respective rates, values, or prices	every 20s. thereof—

(c) This duty is to be levied and collected by the same ways and means, and under such penalties, &c. as are directed for the subsidy 1747, granted by 21 Geo. II. cap. 2. § 1.

(d) Goods and merchandizes taken as prize during the late war with France, and brought into any port of Great Britain, chargeable only with the duties payable by the Act 30 Geo. II. But if taken out of warehouses for home consumption, to pay up the above subsidy.

(e) For the payment of this duty on Tobacco, the importer may be allowed 18 months time, to commence at the end of 30 days after the master's report of the ship; or from the entry of the goods within those 30 days which shall first happen, upon his giving sufficient security for the same.

Out of this duty are to be allowed the following discounts.

		Discount.

As this impost includes a variety of circumstances, the exemplification of the method used in computing this branch, will be best understood by the following examples.

Suppose two casks, containing one ton Spanish wine, entered either as filled or unfilled, and imported by a vintner or retailer, in such a case the net impost will be thus.

	Filled or unfilled.
The gross impost per ton	12 0 0
10 per cent.	1 4 0
Net impost by vintners or retailers	10 16 0

If the said wine should be imported for private use, and from a place of growth, the computation of the impost will be after the following manner :

Filled.		Unfilled.
12 0 0	Gross duty	12 0 0
0 0 0	12 per cent. for leakage	1 8 $9\frac{12}{20}$
12 0 0		10 11 $2\frac{8}{20}$
0 12 0	5 per cent. prompt payment	0 10 $6\frac{15}{20}$
11 8 0		10 0 $7\frac{13}{20}$
1 4 0	10 per cent of the gross duty	1 4 0
10 4 0	Imported for private use	8 16 $7\frac{13}{20}$

In case the said wine should be imported not from a place of growth, then this impost will be computed thus.

	Filled or unfilled.
Gross duty	12 0 0
5 per cent. for prompt payment	0 12 0
	11 8 0
10 per cent. of the gross duty	1 4 0
Imported for private use	10 4 0

Suppose the two casks, containing one ton Spanish wine, should be imported for sale from a place of growth, and the duties paid down, the computation of this branch will then be as follows:

Filled.		Unfilled.
12 0 0	Gross duty	12 0 0
0 0 0	12 per cent. for leakage	1 8 $9\frac{12}{20}$
12 0 0		10 11 $2\frac{8}{20}$
0 19 $2\frac{8}{20}$	8 per cent. for waste	0 16 $10\frac{16}{20}$
11 0 $9\frac{12}{20}$		9 14 $3\frac{12}{20}$
0 11 $0\frac{10}{20}$	5 per cent. for prompt payment	0 9 $8\frac{11}{20}$
10 9 $9\frac{2}{20}$		9 4 $7\frac{1}{20}$
1 4 0	10 per cent. of the gross duty	1 4 0
9 5 $9\frac{2}{20}$	{ Net impost for sale paid down, if } imported from a place of growth }	8 0 $7\frac{1}{20}$

On the supposal that this wine should be imported for sale not from a place of growth, in such a case the impost should be computed thus:

	Filled or unfilled.
Gross duty	12 0 0
8 per cent. for waste	0 19 $2\frac{8}{20}$
	11 0 $9\frac{12}{20}$
5 per cent. for prompt payment	0 11 $0\frac{10}{20}$
	10 9 $9\frac{2}{20}$
10 per cent. of the gross duty	1 4 0
Net impost for sale paid down, if not imported from a place of growth	9 5 $9\frac{2}{20}$

As it is optional to the merchant whether he will pay down this duty or secure it, so in case he chuses the latter, the computation of this branch should be thus:

Two casks, containing one ton Spanish wine, imported for sale from a place of growth, and the duty bonded.

Filled.		Unfilled.
12 0 0	Gross duty	12 0 0
0 0 0	12 per cent. for leakage	1 8 $9\frac{12}{20}$
12 0 0		10 11 $2\frac{8}{20}$
0 19 $2\frac{8}{20}$	8 per cent. for waste	0 16 $10\frac{16}{20}$
11 0 $9\frac{12}{20}$		9 14 $3\frac{12}{20}$
1 4 0	10 per cent. of the gross duty	1 4 0
9 16 $9\frac{12}{20}$	{ Net impost bonded, imported for } sale from a place of growth }	8 10 $3\frac{12}{20}$

Should the wine be imported not from a place of growth, then the duty may be calculated as follows :

	Filled or unfilled.
Gross duty	12 0 0
8 per cent. for waste	0 19 2 $\frac{8}{10}$
10 per cent. of the gross duty	11 0 9 $\frac{12}{10}$
Net impost bonded, imported for sale, not from a place of growth	9 16 9 $\frac{12}{10}$

The same variety of circumstances which attend the computation of this branch with regard to wines, being in some measure extended to Vinegar, it is apprehended that the following examples will sufficiently explain the manner of finding out the net impost in respect to this article.

Suppose an importation of three casks, containing one ton of vinegar, by a vintner, and entered either as filled or unfilled ; according to which circumstances, the computation will be thus :

Filled.		Unfilled.
8 0 0	— Gross duty by vintner or retailer	8 0 0
0 0 0	— 12 per cent. for leakage	0 19 2 $\frac{8}{10}$
8 0 0	— Net impost by vintner or retailer	7 0 9 $\frac{12}{10}$

Instead of being imported by a vintner or retailer, it may be entered by any other person for private use, and in this case the calculation should be performed as follows :

Filled.		Unfilled.
8 0 0	— Gross duty	8 0 0
0 0 0	— 12 per cent. for leakage	0 19 2 $\frac{8}{10}$
8 0 0		7 0 9 $\frac{12}{10}$
0 8 0	— 5 per cent. for prompt payment	0 7 0 $\frac{2}{10}$
7 12 0	— Net impost if imported for private use	6 13 9 $\frac{3}{10}$

The above vinegar may likewise be imported for sale, and instead of the net impost being paid down, the merchant may be desirous of giving bond or security for the payment thereof: And, when this happens, the method of computing the impost will be thus :

Filled.		Unfilled.
8 0 0	— Gross duty	8 0 0
0 0 0	— 12 per cent. for leakage	0 19 2 $\frac{8}{10}$
8 0 0		7 0 9 $\frac{12}{10}$
0 12 9 $\frac{12}{10}$	— 8 per cent. for waste	0 11 3 $\frac{3}{10}$
7 7 2 $\frac{8}{10}$	— Net impost for sale, bonded	6 9 6 $\frac{2}{10}$

If the impost is paid down in ready money, then calculate the branch after the following manner.

Filled.		Unfilled.
8 0 0	— Gross duty	8 0 0
0 0 0	— 12 per cent. for leakage	0 19 2 $\frac{8}{10}$
8 0 0		7 0 9 $\frac{12}{10}$
0 12 9 $\frac{12}{10}$	— 8 per cent. for waste	0 11 3 $\frac{3}{10}$
7 7 2 $\frac{8}{10}$		6 9 6 $\frac{2}{10}$
0 7 4 $\frac{7}{10}$	— 5 per cent. for prompt payment	0 6 5 $\frac{14}{10}$
6 19 10 $\frac{1}{10}$	— Net impost for sale, paid down	6 3 0 $\frac{5}{10}$

After the manner of the foregoing examples may the net impost be computed on wines or vinegar in all the various cases of entry that can arise.

For.

For the method of computing this branch take the following examples:

1200 lb of British plantation tobacco, duty paid down.

The gross imposts at 3 d. per pound, is	15	0	0
25 per cent. discount	3	15	0
Net impost paid down	11	5	0

If the duty is only bonded or secured, the computation will be thus:

The gross impost at 3 d. per lb, is	15	0	0
15 per cent. discount	2	5	0
Net impost to be secured or bonded	12	15	0

1500 lb of Spanish Tobacco.

Gross impost, at 6 d. per pound	37	10	0
Discount of 8 per cent.	3	0	0
Net impost to be secured	34	10	0
Discount at 10 per cent. per annum, being 12½ l. per cent. for 15 months	4	6	3
Net impost to be paid down at entry	30	3	9

And so in proportion for any greater or lesser quantities; observing, that (g) where this duty is to be levied according to the rate or value, the meaning is, according to the respective rates of the goods as established by 12 Car. II. cap. 4. and 11 Geo. I. cap. 7. or if not there rated, according to their value and price upon oath, &c. as for the old subsidy of poundage, &c. and that this duty is not to be reckoned into the said value.

Which said impost duty, must be paid and secured in the manner following, viz.

(b) PEPPER { To be paid down at entry ———— $\frac{1}{3}$ part.
 { To be secured by bond, payable at twelve months ———— $\frac{2}{3}$ parts.

But by 8 Ann. cap. 7. § 20. pepper must be warehoused at importation, upon paying down only half the old subsidy.

(i) ALL OTHER GOODS to be paid at (k) four equal and quarterly payments; upon the importer's giving security accordingly.

(d) 7 and 8 Will. III. cap. 39. § 1.

(e) 7 Geo. II. cap. 14. §. 1.

(f) 11 and 12 Will. III. cap. 10. § 10.

{ 2 Will. and Mar. sess. 2. cap. 4. § 53.

(h) 2 Will. and Mar. sess. 2. cap. 4. § 11.

(i) 2 Will. and Mar. sess. 2. cap. 4. § 54.

(k) For the method of payment of this duty on East-Indian goods, see chap. 3d, of the 2d compartment.

But if the importer chuses to pay down the duty at entry, he is to be allowed discount after the rate of 10 per cent. per annum; which being equated to the sum of the duty in respect of pepper, and to the times of payment in respect of all other goods, reduces it as follows :

For PEPPER	Discount.
For ALL OTHER GOODS	$6\frac{2}{3}$ per cent.
	$6\frac{1}{4}$ per cent.

For the method made use of in computing this branch, take the following Examples :

100 lb of Italian wrought silk, imported from Italy in a British ship.

Upon recourse to the head of Silk in chapter the second, of the first compartment, this sort will be found to be rated at 1 l. 13 s. 4 d. per pound, at which rate it amounts to	166 13 4
5 per cent. of this being gross old subsidy	8 6 8
The gross impost, being 10 per cent. or 2 s. for every 20 s. of the old subsidy, amounts to	16 13 4
Discount at $6\frac{1}{4}$ per cent. to be deducted for prompt payment, amounts to	1 0 10
The net impost to be paid down at entry	15 12 6

Three hundred weight of ginger of the British plantations, imported directly, and in British built shipping.

The amount of the rate at 1 s. 4 d. per pound, is	22 8 0
Whereof one third part, according to the rule following the rates on spice, in favour of a direct importation, is	7 9 4
The gross impost on this sum, at 10 per cent. or 2 s. in the pound	0 14 11 $\frac{4}{5}$
Discount at $6\frac{1}{4}$ per cent. for prompt payment	0 0 11 $\frac{4}{5}$
Net impost to be paid	0 14 0

Suppose this ginger to be imported not from a place of growth, nor in British built shipping, then the impost should be calculated thus:

The amount of the rate, as before	22 8 0
The gross impost at 10 per cent. &c.	2 4 9 $\frac{1}{2}$ $\frac{2}{5}$
Discount at $6\frac{1}{4}$ per cent. &c.	0 2 9 $\frac{1}{2}$ $\frac{2}{5}$
Net impost to be paid	2 2 0

2400 lb of pepper imported directly from the place of its growth in British built shipping.

The gross impost, at $\frac{1}{2}$ d. per pound amounts to	5 0 0
Discount at $6\frac{3}{4}$ l. per cent. to be deducted for prompt payment, amounts to	0 6 8
The net impost to be paid, amounts to	4 13 4

These Examples, if carefully observed, will be sufficient for pointing out the method of computing the impost 1690, on any species of goods liable thereto.

70	ALL GOODS not particularly rated in the book of rates (except mum, and such goods as are particularly charged to this duty, or the Impost 1690) for every 20 s. of their respective values upon oath, or of their prices at the candle	0	1	0

But by 11 Geo. I. cap. 7. § 3. such goods as are rated by that act, and are liable to this 70th Article, must pay this duty according to such rates as directed for the Old Subsidy.

(d) Which said additional impost duty may be paid at (e) four equal and quarterly payments, upon the importer's giving security for the same: but if he chuses to pay down the duty at entry, he is to be allowed discount, after the rate of 10 l. per cent. per annum, which being equated to the times of payment, reduces it to 6¼ l. per cent.

(f) And upon the importation of French wines in casks, there is also to be a farther allowance of 6 l. per cent. out of this gross duty.

For the method of computation, take the following example.

Four casks, containing one ton of French wines, filled or unfilled.

The gross impost 1692 per ton	8	0	0
6 per cent. of the gross duty	0	9	7½
The net impost 1692 — to be secured —	7	10	4½
The gross impost 1692 per ton	8	0	0
6¼ per cent. for prompt payment	0	10	0
	7	10	0
6 per cent. of the gross duty	0	9	7½
The net impost 1692 — to be paid —	7	0	4½

		per ton.		per gal.
So that the net impost 1692 on French wines	} paid —	7	0	4½	,027857
in casks, will be if		7	10	4½	,029841

The computation of this branch, so far as respects French wines, will be easily understood by the above example; and in regard to other French goods, the following examples, it is apprehended, will sufficiently point out the manner of calculating this branch on them.

(c) 11 and 12 Will. III. cap. 10. § 10.
(d) 4 and 5 Will. and Mar. cap. 5 § 6.

(e) For the method of payment of this duty on East-Indian goods, see chap. 3d, of the 2d compartment.
(f) 6 Geo. I. cap. 12. § 2.

Suppose

Suppose 150 Cwt. of Frankincense (a drug) should be imported from a place of growth, the computation of this branch will then be thus :

Gross Old Subsidy, or 5 per cent. on the rate	4 10 0
25 per cent. on the above, is	22 10 0
Whereof one third part, agreeable to the rule at the end of drugs, in favour of a direct importation, amounts to	7 10 0
Deduct one fourth	1 17 6
One fourth more, being the discount	0 9 4½
Net Import	7 0 7½

If the Frankincense should be imported not from a place of growth, then calculate this branch as follows :

Gross Old Subsidy, or 5 per cent. on the rate	4 10 0
25 per cent. on the above, is	22 10 0
Deduct one fourth	5 12 6
One fourth more, being the discount	1 8 1½
Net Import	21 1 10½

Earthen Ware, and Glass manufactures, are chargeable with the Import 1692; in the manner following :

800 lb French earthen ware, not rated, valued at	33 6 8
5 per cent. of this is	1 13 4
2½ per cent. is	0 16 8
Gross Old Subsidy at 7½ per cent.	2 10 0
25 per cent. on the first sum of 1 l. 13 s. 4 d. is	8 6 8
Deduct one fourth	2 1 8
One fourth more, being the discount	0 10 5
Net Import	7 16 3

The reason why the 25 per cent. is calculated only on the 1 l. 13 s. 4 d. and not on the total of 2 l. 10 s. arises from the first sum being the produce of the value at five per cent: and this branch is, by 4 and 5 Will. and Mar. cap. 5. directed to be computed only according to the rate or value of any species of goods.

The computation of this branch on Toys may be performed thus :

A parcel of unrated French toys, valued at	600 0 0
5 per cent. is	30 0 0
One fifth	6 0 0
Two thirds	4 0 0
Gross Old Subsidy at 6½ per cent.	40 0 0
25 per cent. on the first sum of 30 l. is	150 0 0
Deduct one fourth	37 10 0
One fourth more, being the discount	9 7 6
Net Import	140 12 6

All

All other French goods, chargeable with the impost 1692 at 25 per cent. will stand thus:

100 Cwt. Cocoa Nuts from a French plantation.

Amount of the rate	250 0 0
Gross Old Subsidy, on which at 5 per cent.	12 10 0
25 per cent. on this sum amounts to	62 10 0
Deduct one fourth	15 12 6
One fourth more, being the discount	3 18 1 $\frac{1}{2}$
Net Impost	58 11 10 $\frac{1}{2}$

Vide note on branch No. 16. in respect to any goods not included (as French) in the tables of net duties.

DRUGS

		The duty.
DRUGS, viz.	(e) Not at all rated and imported from East-India, China, or Persia	For every 20 s. of the true and real value thereof, according to the gross price (reduced) at which they shall be sold at the candle
	(f) Not at all rated and imported from any other places	For every 20 s. of their values upon the oath or affirmation of the importer, as for the old subsidy
	(g) PORCELAIN, commonly called China or Japan-ware, made of earth	For every 20 s. of the true and real value thereof, according to the gross price (reduced) at which they shall be sold at the candle

(b) This duty on Porcelain and Unrated drugs from East-India, &c. is to be secured, ascertained, valued, raised, levied, collected, answered, and paid by such ways and means, and with such allowances, and in such manner and form, &c. as directed for the Old Subsidy on unrated East-India goods.

		The gross duty.
(i) WHITE CALLICOES, which do not pay duties as muslins —	For every 20 s. of the true and real value thereof, according to the gross price, at which they shall be sold at the candle	0 3 0
DIMITIES —		or
ALL OTHER MANUFACTURES MADE OF COTTON —		15 per cent.

(k) This duty on White Callicoes, Dimities, and other manufactures made of Cotton, is to be secured, ascertained, valued, raised, levied, collected, answered, and paid by such ways and means, and subject to such allowances, and in such manner and form, as directed for the fifteen per cent. on Muslins, No. 13.

The method of computing this branch, so far as respects Drugs and Porcelain, being pretty difficult, and not easily acquired without a good deal of practice, it is supposed that the following set of examples will render the computation of this duty extremely easy, and prevent any person of the smallest capacity from committing a mistake in the calculation of it.

Drugs rated by 12 Car. II. cap. 4.

Example the first.

800 lb Rhubarb, imported directly from a place of its growth, and in a British ship.

The amount of the rate at 20 s. per pound	800 0 0
5 per cent. on the rate	40 0 0
One third of this 5 per cent. agreeable to the rule at the end of drugs, is	13 6 8
10 per cent. or 2 s. in the pound on this sum, makes the duty required, being	26 13 4

If the Rhubarb, abovementioned, is imported not from a place of growth, or in a foreign built ship, then this duty will be computed thus:

Amount of the rate as before	800 0 0
5 per cent. on treble the rate, as by 8 and 9 Will. III. cap. 34. is	120 0 0
One third of this sum is	40 0 0
10 per cent. or 2 s. in the pound on this, makes the duty required, being	80 0 0

Drugs rated by 11 Geo. I. cap. 7.

Example the second.

2000 lb Cortex Peruvianus.

Amount of the rate at 2 s. 6 d. per pound, is	250 0 0
5 per cent. on the rate	12 10 0
From this sum deduct one fifth, being	2 10 0
Net new duty at 4 per cent.	10 0 0

Example

Example the third.

Unrated drugs imported from any place, and valued at	1000	0	0
5 per cent. on the rate	50	0	0
From this sum deduct one fifth, being	10	0	0
Net duty at 4 per cent.	40	0	0

Example the fourth.

Net, or reduced value thereon	287	11	10 $\frac{1}{2}$
6 per cent. of this reduced value is	17	5	1 $\frac{1}{4}$
A further 6 per cent. is	17	5	1 $\frac{1}{4}$
Net duty at 12 per cent.	34	10	2 $\frac{1}{2}$

(a) This branch is, over and above all former duties and impositions, to be paid upon the importation of the following goods, and to be raised, levied, collected, and paid in the same manner and form, and by such rules, means, and ways, and under such penalties and forfeitures, as directed for the Customs:

		The duty.

23	10	0	0,093253

Upon exportation ————— NOT DRAWN BACK.

To prevent any mistake as to the above note with respect to drugs in favour of a direct importation, I shall subjoin the following examples.

Suppose an importation of 150 Cwt. Frankincense, from a place of growth, in such a case the duty should be calculated thus :

Gross Old subsidy, or 5 per cent. on the rate	4 10 0
25 per cent. on the above is	22 10 0
Whereof one third part, agreeable to the rule at the end of drugs, in favour of a direct importation, amounts to	7 10 0

which is the real 25 per cent. chargeable on the above quantity of Frankincense.

If the above Frankincense should be imported not from a place of growth, then the amount of this branch will be 22 10 0

If any particular articles, not included (as French) in the tables of general goods, should be imported, then this branch must be added to the other computations of duties chargeable on them, and calculated as the following example :

2000 lb French Radix Eringii.

The rate, at 6 d. per pound, is	50 0 0
Of which the 5 per cent. is	2 10 0
25 per cent. on which sum amounts to	12 10 0

And, besides this branch, there must be added also the Impost 1692, which see at page 34. though it must be noted, that if the goods are the product of any French colony, and not of the French dominions in Europe, they are only liable to the first 25 per cent. being the Impost 1692.

II. cap. 23. § 17. from the 29th of September 1736, this (as well as all other duties then payable on Spirits) is made part of the Aggregate Fund; and by the 27th of Geo. II. cap. 11. § 3: this branch is declared to continue for, and during such term, for which any of the rates, duties, and revenues, composing the said Aggregate Fund, were granted, and payable.

BY 8 Ann. cap. 7. § 14. was granted from 6 February 1709, for 32 years.
 6 Geo. I. cap. 4. § 1. continued for ever.

APPROPRIATION.

By 6 Geo. I. cap. 4. this branch is appropriated to the increased and additional fund of the South-Sea company, for so much of the annuities (granted by 8 Ann. cap. 7.) as was subscribed to the capital of the said company, and the surplus to the Aggregate Fund.

This

(a) This branch is, over and above all former duties, to be paid upon the importation of the following goods; and is to be ascertained, secured, raised, levied, recovered, and answered by such rules, ways, means and methods, and under such penalties and forfeitures, as the other duties upon the same respective goods.

Long pepper (d), { Imported directly from the place of its growth in British-built shipping, the pound	{ o 0 3

(e) But pepper at importation must be warehoused, upon payment of the half subsidy, and, if exported, is liable to no further duty; and this duty is to be paid only for what shall be delivered out of such warehouses, in order to be consumed in Great-Britain.

(f) For the payment (g) of this duty on all the aforesaid goods, except Pepper, the importer is to be allowed 12 months, upon his giving security at the Custom-house; but if he pays down the same in ready money, he is to be allowed 10 l. per cent. prompt payment.

The manner of finding out this duty on Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, and Nutmegs, being a little ambiguous, at least to those who are not very conversant in calculations, it will be proper to observe, that the intention is to charge these Spices with this branch, according to what arises from the Old Subsidy, New Subsidy, One-third and Two-thirds Subsidies, and the New and Additional Duties on Spices, &c. so that whatever the amount of these branches are, the above mentioned gross duty will always be the same, as sufficiently appears from the following example:

1200 lb of Cinnamon imported from Holland.

Amount of the rate at 4 d. per pound	20 0 0
Discount at 5 per cent.	1 0 0
Old Subsidy	19 0 0
New Subsidy, One-third and Two-thirds Subsidies	38 0 0
New and Additional Duties on Spices	40 0 0

are made part of the general Fund by that Act established.

This branch, as at present payable, is composed of a poundage, and must be paid in ready money before shipping off in order for exportation.—It is to be levied and collected according to the particular RATES affixed respectively in the column of rates outwards; or if not there rated, (a) according to the respective real VALUE and PRICES, to be ascertained by the oath or affirmation of the merchant, in the presence of the customer, collector, comptroller, and surveyor, or any two of them; from which rates, values, or prices, this subsidy is to be taken for every twenty shillings thereof, whether exported by British or by strangers (b)

As considerable alterations were made in regard to the duty chargeable on goods exported by sundry Acts of parliament, prior to the 8 Geo. I. cap. 15. and since these alterations rather tend to perplex than afford any proper instruction, it has been thought expedient to omit the insertion of any species of goods except those which do at this present time pay a duty outwards.—By this means it will easily appear, with the greatest precision, what goods are really chargeable with the Subsidy Outwards, and what are not.—An advantage of some consequence to the trading part of Great-Britain.

 from the several commencements }
 3 Geo. I. cap. 7. § 1. continued for ever.

APPROPRIATION.

See No. 20. Subsidy Outwards.

This branch is, over and above all former duties, customs, and subsidies, to be paid by the importer, in ready money, without discount, upon the entry, and before the landing of the following goods imported.

	(a) From the 10th of June 1712.	The duty.
SOPE, the pound weight		0 0 2

By the said Act of 10th of Ann. cap. 19. § 31. 33. after the 24th of June 1712, certain duties were laid on the several species of paper therein recited, being those (after-mentioned) which are not rated by 12 Car. II. cap. 4. and for such paper as was not specified therein, this duty payable thereon was 20 per cent. according to the real and true value thereof to be sold at the port of importation (upon the oath of the importer), without any abatement for this, or any former duty.

But by 11 Geo. I. cap. 7. § 4. instead of such value on the oath of the importer, rates were adjusted for the payment of the said duty. On which rates this duty of 20 per cent.

(a) 10 Ann. cap. 19. § 1.

is here respectively computed, and the sums thereof inserted in the second column, thereby to correspond with those duties specified in the Act of 10 Ann. cap. 19.

And moreover, by the said Act of 11 Geo. I. cap. 7. § 5. it is declared, that if any new fabrick of paper shall be imported, which is not particularly valued or rated in the Book of rates, such paper shall pay the several duties that are chargeable on paper which is nearest above in size and goodness.

N^o. 43. PRISAGE and BUTLERAGE.

THESE are ancient duties payable to the crown of England (by prerogative) upon the importation of wines, but are now, and generally have been, granted from the crown by gift or patent.

(a) PRISAGE is a certain taking or purveyance of wines to the King's use, out of every ship bringing in wines belonging to the natives of England, except the merchants of London, the Cinque Ports, Southampton, and Chester, which are exempted by particular charters: to be taken upon the breaking of bulk, or unloading any part of the ship's cargo, according to the whole quantity on board, though there be not more than one ton landed.

This duty is either SINGLE or DOUBLE.

SINGLE PRISAGE is one ton, and is due in kind, when the quantity imported amounts to, or exceeds ten tons, but is under twenty tons: for if under ten tons, there is not any prisage due.

DOUBLE PRISAGE is two tons, and is due in kind, when the quantity imported amounts to, or exceeds twenty tons, which is the most due out of any one ship: one ton to be taken before, and the other behind the mast, at the pleasure of the King's butler or prisage master; who may taste the whole cargo, and chuse the best wines, and fill up the casks, or chuse those that are the fullest, and take them away, allowing only 20 s. (b) per ton for freight: but it may be compounded for at a certain price, as is the practice in London, &c.

But in regard to wines imported into Scotland; on a cause in the court of Exchequer between her majesty's attorney-general and James Gordon, merchant, it was decreed in the year 1713, that prisage was not payable thereon.

BUTLERAGE is a duty of two shillings on every ton of wine imported by merchants strangers, by Charta mercatoria (c), in lieu of prisage, to be paid within forty days after the wines are landed.

(b) After payment of the orders of a loan made forth in pursuance of the Act of 18 Geo. II. cap. 5. together with interest due thereon, this duty is made part of the SINKING FUND.

(c) For the payment of this duty, the importer may be allowed six months time from the importation, upon his giving sufficient security for the same to the collector upon entry, and before landing; and if he pays it in ready money, he must be allowed a discount after the rate of 10 l. per cent. per annum, which for the said six months is 5 per cent.

(d) Or the salt may, upon landing, be weighed, cellared, and locked up in the presence of an officer, at the importer's charge, and under the custody of the officer and importer; and the importer may in the presence of, and by warrant under the said officer's hand and seal, take away what quantity he pleases (not under a wey or forty bushels at a time), upon giving security for payment of the duty within six months after the delivery, or upon payment of the duty in ready money at the delivery; in consideration whereof he must be allowed the aforefaid discount for prompt payment.

(e) But if the whole quantity, imported in any one ship, does not amount to forty bushels, it may not be cellared, but the whole duty must be paid down or secured.

Nº. 46. INLAND DUTY ON COFFEE, TEA, and CHOCOLATE.

BY 10 Geo. I. cap. 10. § 1. 3. was granted, after 24 June 1724, in lieu of former duties hereby repealed.

(a) COFFEE and TEA having, upon entry at the Customhouse and payment of the Customs at importation, been put into warehouses at the importer's charge, and approved of by the commissioners of the Customs, must, upon delivery thence, with intent to be consumed in Great Britain, pay the following duty, viz.

(b) COFFEE { The duty.

But by the act 5 Geo. III. cap. 45. § 16. this additional duty was, after the 5th July 1765, taken off intirely, and sixpence per pound imposed in lieu thereof, upon all Coffee not of the British plantations, so that the inland duty on Coffee, now payable, stands thus:

COFFEE { Of the British plantations in America, the pound avoirdupoise weight o 1 6
Of other places, the like pound ————— o 2 6

(c) To be paid down in ready money by the proprietor, at the next office for that division; for so much as he intends to take out of the warehouse for home consumption; the warehouse-keeper (upon producing a warrant from the collector, testifying the receipt of the duty) to deliver the goods with a permit signed by himself, and a proper officer attending the warehouse, to prevent seizure.

(d) But if intended for exportation, may be delivered upon sufficient security given to the commissioners of the customs accordingly.

(e) TEA { The pound avoirdupoise weight ————— o 1 0 keeper (upon producing a warrant from the collector, testifying the receipt of the duty) to deliver the goods with a permit signed by himself, and a proper officer attending the warehouse to prevent seizure.

(g) But may be delivered out for exportation to Ireland, or his majesty's plantations in America, without payment of the said duty (provided it be in the same package in which it was imported, and in no less quantity than the entire lot in which it was sold), upon due entry being made for such exportation, and bond given, with sufficient security in double the value, that it shall be so exported, and not reloaded in any part of Great Britain, or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, or Man: on producing a certificate of having so done, the warehouse keeper is to deliver the tea with a permit signed by himself, and a proper officer in the warehouse.

(h) To ascertain the price at which teas are sold at the company's public sales, the commissioners of the inland duties may constitute, under their hands and seals, officers to attend the said sales, and take account of the names of the buyers, and the price; who are to make return thereof in writing, upon oath, to the commissioners; and to prevent mistakes may, upon request to the court of directors, inspect the company's books kept for the same purpose. From which returns this 25 per cent. is to be computed.

(l) To be under the management of such commissioners as his majesty or the treasury shall appoint; who are to have and exercise the like jurisdiction as the commissioners of Excise on liquors; and their judgments to be final.

(m) This duty to be levied by the powers, and under the penalties of the Laws of Excise on liquors; and all penalties to be sued for and recovered by the same ways and means.

(n) One moiety of the duty on coffee and tea, and all the duty on chocolate, to be appropriated to the same uses, as the former duties on coffee, tea, chocolate, cocoa nuts, and cocoa paste, continued and made perpetual by the 7th of Ann. cap. 7.

(o) The other moiety on coffee and tea, to be appropriated to the same uses as the duty on coffee and tea, continued and made perpetual by the 3d of Geo. I. cap. 7.

(p) These new duties on coffee and chocolate are appropriated towards payment of annuities at 3 per cent. per annum on the principal sum of 6,600,000 l. and the additional capital of 990,000 l. added thereto, being 15 l. for every 100 l. advanced, and consisting of 10 l. in a lottery ticket, and 5 l. in annuities; and by the act 33 Geo. II. cap. 12. § 3. the monies arising by these duties since the 5th January 1760, are to be carried into and made part of the sinking fund.

Of the Use of the referring LETTERS and FIGURES at the end of the columns of the following RATES and DUTIES.

Notwithstanding, that in every one of the foregoing Branches, it is fully set forth what species of goods and merchandize are their immediate objects, nevertheless, as the Branches are become very numerous, and as the several species are variously subject to more or less of these Branches, it seems hardly possible by memory (without daily practice) to be expert in an exact application of the proper Branches to the several articles of goods and merchandize under their various circumstances of importation, &c. neither was it possible to have provided columns sufficient to arrange all the respective Branches against each article: Therefore a method * is made use of, whereby the Branches, due on every article throughout the rates, are expressed by letters and figures placed in a column immediately following the rates and duties on each species of goods.

The manner in which this is conducted, by the means of the following Table and List of Branches, is fully explained and illustrated by examples pages 69 and 70.

EXPLANATION of the preceeding TABLE and LIST:

WHatever marginal letter or letters are affixed to any species of goods throughout the book in the column of references, must be sought for in the first column of this Table.

The letter being found in the Table, there will appear opposite to it in the columns following, certain numbers:—These numbers point out their respective branches, as they are inserted in the List which immediately follows.

As for example,

I. Suppose the particular Branches chargeable on Fans for Corn were desired to be known.

Upon recourse to this species of goods in the first compartment, it will be found, that the marginal referring letter affixed thereto, is ————A.

Opposite to which letter, in the foregoing Table, are the numbers ————1, 2, 3, 4, 5:

And by the	N ^o 1	denotes the Old Subsidy	} Being the particular branches to which that commodity is liable.
Lift of the fe-	2	New Subsidy
veral Branches	3	One-third Subsidy
it will be found	4	Two-thirds Subsidy that ————	5	Subsidy 1747

But as the Impost 1690 and 1692 contain each a great variety of merchandize, it might from thence be difficult to discover under what particular head therein specified, many sorts of goods are chargeable; that difficulty is therefore obviated by a figure or figures annexed in the column of references, to the marginal letters of any goods liable to either of those Branches, which figures distinguish the particular articles, in that order in which they stand in the respective Branch.

II. Suppose the several Branches chargeable on Cordage were desired to be known.

Upon recourse to Cordage it will be found, that the marginal letter and figure are ————B 8.

Opposite to the letter B (without regarding the figure 8.) in the foregoing Table, are the numbers ————1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 9.

Which by the Lift of the several branches as before directed for Fans for Corn, will point out the particular branches to which Cordage is liable; and by the addition of the figure 8 to the letter, it will appear, by consulting the Branch N^o 10. pag. 30. that Cordage is chargeable with the 8th article of Impost 1690.

And where there are two numbers annexed to the letter or letters, the first has respect to the Impost 1690, and the latter to the Impost 1692, as in the case of Wrought silks, &c.

EXPLANATION of the TABLES inserted in the first Compartment.

ON examining these Tables; the first thing that demands attention, is the number of columns contained in any particular page, which will always be more or less, in proportion to the variety of branches chargeable on any one species of merchandize; and as these columns exhibit the net duties, drawbacks, &c. in all circumstances that can arise, a competent knowledge of them is extremely necessary.—To facilitate this knowledge, I shall, previous to explaining the method of using the tables, describe the order and connection of the respective columns as they stand in the work.

WITHIN the first column are contained the different species of merchandize, ranged in an alphabetical series, and according to their respective genus's.—The second includes the quantity on which duties are payable to the crown, being so contrived as to correspond to the largest entry of goods that can be supposed.—In the third column are inserted the original rates of 12 Car. II. or 11 Geo. I. &c. as they happen to refer to any species of merchandize; and the two succeeding columns comprehend the total duties arising from the rates, as payable either by British or strangers.—The sixth and seventh columns exhibit the drawbacks on due exportation, shewing at one view, how much of the duties that were paid at importation are allowed to be drawn back, either by British or strangers, and according as the goods are exported, either to the British colonies in America, or to any foreign part.—And the eighth and last column points out particular letters that refer to the table, page 68, which describes all the variety of branches that any species of merchandize can be chargeable with.

As all the tables contained in this compartment exhibit the computation of duties and drawbacks, according to the most common cases of importation, the insertion of this eighth and last column may seem, to a person unexperienced in these matters, to be altogether needless; but will be found, on trial, to be equally advantageous to the merchant and the revenue officer. To the first it affords, in conjunction with the rates, an opportunity of discovering the justness and accuracy of any particular computation of duties, and consequently relieves his mind from any doubt as to the authenticity of the duties payable by him to the crown. To the second it is likewise highly serviceable, as it enables him to know, with the greatest precision, all the branches that any one particular species species of merchandize is chargeable with ; and having a competent knowledge of the peculiar construction of each particular branch, he becomes, in all respects, properly qualified for any computation of duties that can arise. It must be observed, that this arrangement of eight columns can only take place, in regard to such species of merchandize as admit of few variations in relation to the duties chargeable on them, for in other cases a greater extension of columns, or a repetition of the same species of merchandize more than once, are absolutely necessary : But these will require no particular explanation, as a proper attention to what has been already laid down, will be fully sufficient.

HAVING explained the nature and construction of the tables, I shall proceed to describe the method of using them, so as to find out, with the greatest readiness, the net duties and drawbacks on any species of merchandize ; and as things of this nature cannot be made too plain, it will be proper, in pursuance of such a design, to consider all these species under three heads. The first may comprehend all those species of merchandize which are only chargeable with such duties as arise simply and properly from the original rates, without the imposition of any additional duty, on account of manufacture, &c.—The second may contain such species of merchandize as, besides the duties resulting from the original rates, are chargeable over and above with certain additional duties on account of manufacture, and in regard to their nature and value with respect to trade and commerce.—In order to ascertain, with the greatest security, what species of goods belong to this arrangement, it must be observed, that a particular figure is placed at the side of each of these species, which figure not only denotes that such article is chargeable with an additional duty or duties, but even refers to a table exhibiting the additional duty or duties, under all circumstances that can arise.—Under the third and last head may be comprised, those particular species of merchandize which require, either a great extension of columns, or a repetition of the same species of merchandize more than once, for describing the various duties payable to the crown.

As all the species of goods imported into Great-Britain, except * Tobacco, Wines, Vinegar, &c. may, with the greatest propriety, be classed under one or other of the above arrangements, there needs nothing more for pointing out the manner of using the tables, than the insertion of a few examples selected from each arrangement.

SUPPOSE it was required to find out the net duties and drawbacks on any species of goods belonging to the first arrangement, in such a case the following examples may suffice :—1st, A merchant imports 20,500 lb. of Pot or Pearl ashes, which pay duty by the barrel, containing 200 lb.—On inspecting page 81, this species of goods will be found in the first column ; and by the rule just mentioned, the quantity imported makes exactly 102 barrels and an half :—By inspecting the second column, there will be found in the second line 100 barrels ; and opposite thereto in the two columns next to the rate, are the corresponding duties payable either by British or strangers, according to the particular circumstances of importation :—And on recourse in the same manner to the tenth and twelfth lines of the same column, the duties on the two barrels and one half are easily found out, and by adding these sums together, the whole duties chargeable on the 20,500 lb. of Pot ashes above mentioned, appear with equal readiness and accuracy.—Should the whole, or any part of these Ashes, be exported within the time limited by law, the drawback may be found out in the same manner, regard being had to those particular columns.—2^{dly}, Suppose an entry should be made of 320 Cwt. 2 qrs. 7 lb. of Elephants teeth, look for page 188, where this species of goods is inserted ; and in the second line of the second column will be found 300 Cwt. the corresponding duties to which, as payable either by British or strangers, are known by the same method as laid down in the first example.—The duties on 300 Cwt. being thus found out, it only remains to find those on 20 Cwt. 2 qrs. 7 lb. which, on considering the sixth, thirteenth and last lines of the columns of duties, appear at the first view ; and by uniting all these sums into one, the total duties payable at importation, or, on consulting the proper columns, the net drawback repayable on due exportation are found with the greatest readiness :—By the same method, any other entry of the same species of goods, on any quantity that can arise, may be easily found out, and the net duties and drawbacks calculated with accuracy and dispatch.—With a small degree of attention to the method just pointed out, the net duties and drawbacks on any species of goods that pay duty by the hundred weight, may always be found out, so that it is needless to particularize any more goods of this kind, as a description of any species of goods rated after a particular manner, will always correspond to the same rated method, howsoever the goods themselves may be dispersed in point of arrangement.—3^{dly}, It may so happen, that an entry shall arise of some

* The exclusion of these articles from any of the three arrangements, is owing to their being comprehended in a particular compartment by themselves.

some species of goods which pay duty by the pound; as, for instance, Camels hair, whereof there may be an importation of about 3625 lb.—To investigate the duties and drawbacks on this particular quantity, turn to page 221; the first column of which represents the species of goods, and in the second line of the second column will be found 3000 lb. opposite to which in the columns of duties are inserted the total net duties payable on such a quantity, according to the particular circumstances of importation.—In the fifth line of the second column are 300 lb. which being doubled, produces 600 lb. the quantity sought for: And in the ninth and eleventh lines are 20 lb. and 5 lb. the corresponding duties to which quantities are easily found, by the method before mentioned:—By adding these detached numbers of pounds together, they will be exactly 3625 lb. the quantity imported; and by pursuing the same rule with regard to the columns of duties, they appear with equal ease and satisfaction.

HAVING sufficiently explained the method of using the Tables, in regard to such species of goods as come under the first arrangement, I shall now consider how to find out the net duties and drawbacks on those which fall within the second arrangement.—The goods belonging to this class, are those that, besides the duties resulting from the original rates, are chargeable over and above with certain additional duties on account of manufacture, and in regard to their nature and value with respect to trade and commerce; and on this very account; it is more difficult to calculate the duties payable to the crown on such species of merchandize, than on those contained in the first arrangement; for, after having found out the rated duties, there is a necessity, before the computation can be finished, of calculating the additional duties which by law are directed to be added to them; and this, in regard to the niceness of the operation, is sometimes very perplexing:—A good deal of attention is therefore necessary, in finding out the duties and drawbacks on goods contained in this second arrangement.—The following examples will very much contribute to illustrate this point.

SUPPOSE 3310 Awl-blades should be imported:—On recourse to page 82, on the side of this species, stands the figure (1.) denoting, that a certain additional duty is to be added to those arising from the rates.—In the second line of the second column will be found 3000 Awl-blades, and opposite thereto the corresponding duties resulting from the rate, according to the different circumstances of importation.—In the sixth line of the second column are 300, and in the last line of the same are 10 Awl-blades, the rated duties on which quantities are found as just mentioned.—By adding these different numbers together, they exactly tally with the quantity imported; and the several detachments of duties united into one sum, will exhibit the total rated duties payable on the above quantity.—It must, however, be considered, that these rated duties are below the real value of the goods, and consequently, if they paid no more, such importations would very much interfere with, if not entirely destroy, our own manufactures, as foreigners would thereby be enabled to supply us with such articles, at a cheaper rate than we could manufacture them ourselves.—To prevent such inconveniencies, the legislature hath wisely annexed certain additional duties to the rated ones, which added to the expence of freight, &c. makes those species of goods turn out to be very little, if any thing cheaper than what can be purchased at home.—In the case before us, besides the rated duties, the Awl-blades are chargeable with 5 s. for every hundred weight of iron they may weigh, with a discount of $6\frac{1}{4}$ per cent. for prompt payment:—And as it is impossible to ascertain the weight of these blades before they are brought to the scale, as some blades may differ from others, both in length, breadth and thickness, so, in order to provide for the ready calculation of this duty, a Table, marked with figure N^o (1.) is placed at page 387, wherein this net duty is computed from 200 Cwt. down to 1 lb.—On the supposition, therefore, that the 3310 Awl-blades may weigh 6 Cwt. 1 qr. 21 lb. look in the above-mentioned Table, and in the eighth line of the first column will be found 3 Cwt. which being doubled, produces 6 Cwt. and in the thirteenth line is 1 qr. in the fourteenth line is 14 lb. and in the fifteenth line is 7 lb. and by adding these numbers together, the above quantity of 6 Cwt. 1 qr. 21 lb. appears; and opposite to the respective lines is the additional duty wanted:—When this duty is added to the rated duties before mentioned, then all the duties chargeable upon Awl-blades at importation, are found out; and by pursuing the same method in regard to the drawback, it will easily appear what duties are drawn back, whether the Awl-blades should be exported to the British colonies in America, or to any foreign part.—Instead of Awl-blades, a merchant may import from the Levant 123 Cotton carpets of China, which, besides the rated duties, pay 2 s. 10 $\frac{4}{5}$ d. for every 20 s. value of the gross price at the candle.—In finding out, therefore, the total net duties on this and such species of goods, there are two points to be considered: 1st, To find out the rated duties; and 2^{dly}, to find out those arising from the gross price at the candle.—The first of these points may be accomplished by looking for page 101, in the first column of which this species of goods is inserted; and in the second line of the second column are 100 Carpets; opposite to which, in the proper columns, are the

net rated duties, according to the particular circumstances of importation; and in the fifth line of the second column are 20 Carpets, and in the eighth line of the same column are 3 Carpets; the rated duties on which are found in the same manner as for the 100 Carpets.—The second point may be obtained, by having recourse to the Table referred to, marked N^o (7.) and placed at page 388, where this net duty is calculated from 1000 l. to 6 d.—Whatever value these Carpets may produce at the candle, the duty arising therefrom will easily appear on consulting the Table:—By adding this duty to the rated ones, the total net duties payable on the importation of the Carpets will easily appear.—A third example for illustrating the method of finding out the net duties on such species of goods, as belong to the second arrangement, may be brought from Skins:—Suppose an importation of 218 Skins, called Buck or Deer skins, dressed:—These, like the Cotton carpets, pay certain duties arising from the rates; and on account of their being dressed, &c. are moreover chargeable with a duty of 30 per cent. for their value on oath.—To find out the rated duties, look for page 308; in the first column of which these Skins are inserted; and in the third line of the second column are 100 Skins, which being doubled, produces 200 Skins; and in the seventh line of the same column are 10 Skins, in the eighth line are 5, and in the ninth line are 3 Skins, which several numbers added together, make exactly 218 Skins; and opposite to these several respective lines, are the proper corresponding duties, according to the particular circumstances of importation.—The rated duties being thus found, the additional ones of 30 per cent. will appear, on having recourse to a Table marked N^o (13.) and placed at page 389, where this duty of 30 per cent. is calculated from 1000 lb. to 1 lb.—The drawback on a due exportation of the Skins may be found out, by pursuing the same method as was done for the duties, regard being had to the proper columns.—The fourth and last example, with respect to goods coming under the second arrangement, may be furnished from those species of goods called Hides, which exhibit several variations in regard to the duties:—Cow Hides of Barbary and Muscovia will illustrate this point, as having no less than four distinct variations, of which in their order.—By uniting to the rated duties of the second distinction the additional one required by law, the two first variations follow one another in a regular succession, without disturbing the established plan of rated duties, by the addition of any marginal figures in the first column.—An entry may be made of 432 of these Hides, and they may either be in the hair or tawed; if in the hair, which is the first distinction, turn to page 225, in the first column whereof these goods will be found; and in the third line of the second column are 300 Hides, and in the fourth line 100 Hides, which added together, make 400 Hides; in the sixth line of the same column are 30; and in the eleventh line 2 Hides, which several numbers added together make 432 Hides, the number entered.—Having found the number of Hides, consider, before the duties are searched for, whether they may be tawed or not; if they are not tawed, tanned, nor dressed in oil, then, in the columns of the duties opposite to the respective numbers before mentioned, will be found the proper rated duties, according to the particular circumstances of importation.—If these Hides are not in the hair, but tawed, which is the second distinction, then, on consulting the same columns, &c. as was recommended for those in the hair, at page 226, the proper corresponding duties will appear in regard to this particular circumstance of the Hides being tawed, and consisting only of 3 s. 6 d. on each Hide added to the rated duties.—By carefully attending to these distinctions, the proper drawbacks will easily appear, whether the Hides should have been tawed or only in the hair.—The third variation, in respect of the duties chargeable on them, proceeds on the supposition, that the Cow hides of Barbary and Muscovia, before mentioned, may be dressed in oil, on which account they will be liable to an additional duty of 7 d. for every pound weight.—The duties may be calculated thus:—On recourse to page 225, where the columns of duties respecting these Hides, as being in the hair, are inserted, the rated duties will be the same as there described; and on the side of these Hides are the figures (8) or (9), the first of which regards the circumstance of the Hides being dressed in oil, and refers to a Table marked with this figure, and placed at page 388, where this additional duty of 7 d. per pound weight may be found, for any number of pounds they may weigh, the duty being calculated from 1000 lb. weight down to 1 lb.—The fourth and last variation respecting this species of goods, regards the particular circumstance of the Hides being tanned; and as the rated duties, even in this instance, will be the same as before, the only addition for completing the duties chargeable on the Hides, will be the duty of 3½ d. arising from their being tanned, which is pointed out by the figure (9.) on the side of the Hides:—The calculation of which duty is amply provided for, by a Table marked with this figure, and placed at page 388.

THE manner of finding out, and calculating the duties on any species of goods appertaining to the first and second arrangements, having been particularly explained and exemplified, it only remains, to describe those which belong to the third and last arrangement, as requiring either a great extension of columns, or a repetition of the same species more than once, for pointing out the duties which such goods pay to the crown.—As the first and second arrangements were explained by the insertion of proper examples, so this method will be found best adapted for explaining the third and last arrangement; and as the species of goods which fall under this class are not numerous, a few examples will suffice.—Suppose an importation of 150 barrels of spruce beer from Dantzick:—In searching for the duties on this species of goods, it must be observed, that, besides those which arise from the customs, an excise at the rate of 15 s. for every barrel, containing 32 gallons, is also chargeable.—The easiest method of finding out the several duties will be, to fix those which belong to the customs first; and for this purpose, turn to page 86, where this species of goods is inserted, and in the first line of the second column you will find 100 barrels; in the fifth and sixth columns will be found the corresponding duties arising to the Customs, as payable either by British or strangers, according to the particular circumstances of importation; in the second line of the second column are 50 barrels, the customable duties on which may be found in the same manner as for the 100 barrels; and these different sums united together, will shew the whole customable duties chargeable on the 150 barrels.—The duties appertaining to the Customs being found, the Excise will also appear, on looking into the seventh or eighth columns; the first line of which, being opposite to the 100 barrels contained in the second column, will exhibit the duty chargeable on them, and the second line, in the columns just mentioned, will point out the Excise belonging to the 50 barrels; these sums added together, shew the whole Excise payable on the Beer; and by uniting it to the customable duties above mentioned, the entire sum payable to the crown on the importation of the Spruce beer is easily seen:—Should the Beer be exported, consult the ninth or tenth columns, in the same manner as was done for the fifth and sixth columns on importation, and the drawback will appear with the greatest readiness, whether the Beer may be exported to the British colonies in America, or to any foreign parts.—Instead of Spruce beer, a merchant may import 318 Cwt. 2 qrs. 7 lb. of Coffee of the British plantations in America, or perhaps of the French plantations:—To investigate the duties on this commodity in a proper manner, as they chance to arise, the respective columns must be attentively considered; and when the reader begins to have a notion of their arrangement, let him search for the duties thus:—On recourse to page 107, where this article stands, the first column represents the species, and the second exhibits a quantity, from 200 Cwt. down to 1 lb.—The four succeeding columns describe the duties as payable either by British or strangers, and according as the Coffee should be imported, either from a French plantation, or from the British colonies in America, &c.—The seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth columns, represent the inland or exciseable duty chargeable on the Coffee when consumed in Great-Britain:—The eleventh, twelfth, thirteenth and fourteenth columns contain the drawback, according to the particular circumstances of importation, and also as the Coffee may be exported, either to any British colony in America, or to any foreign part:—The fifteenth and last column points out, by means of the referring letters, the particular branches with which Coffee is chargeable.—This short description will assist the reader in attaining to a proper notion of the variety of columns requisite for describing the duties, &c. not only on this article, but also on all others that require such an extension of columns. The duties on the above 318 Cwt. 2 qrs. 7 lb. of Coffee may be found as follows:—On recourse to the second column, there appears in the first line 200 Cwt. the corresponding duties on which arising to the Customs, will be found in the proper columns, according to the particular circumstances of importation:—The second line of the second column contains 100 Cwt. the duties on which may be got as before:—On consulting the sixth line of the second column, there appears 10 Cwt. in the seventh line 5 Cwt. and in the eighth line 3 Cwt. the corresponding customable duties on which may be found in the same manner as was done for the 200 Cwt.—Having thus found the duties on 318 Cwt. it only remains to find those on 2 qrs. and 7 lb. which, on consulting the twelfth and fifteenth lines of the proper columns, will appear with equal ease and satisfaction:—By uniting the several quantities before described, they will make exactly 318 Cwt. 2 qrs. 7 lb. the quantity imported; and by adding the several detachments of duties together, they will shew the aggregate sum payable for the customs on the Coffee.—If the Coffee should be intended for home-consumption, it is also liable to the excise or inland duty, which may be found as follows:—Pursue the same method as was first made use of in finding out the several quantities of the Coffee; and opposite to them, in the seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth columns, will be found the proper excise duty, according to the particular circumstances of importation:—Instead of being consumed in Great-Britain, the Coffee may be exported to foreign parts; and when this happens, drawback or repayment of so much of the customable duties as the law allows, must be paid to the merchant:—By inspecting the second column, the quantities of Coffee may be found, in the manner laid down for finding out the duties payable on importation; and opposite to these respective quantities, in the eleventh, twelfth, thirteenth and fourteenth columns, will be found the net drawback, according to the particular circumstances of importation, and as the Coffee may be exported, either to the British colonies in America, or to any foreign part.—The last example, in regard to goods that require either a great extension of columns, or a repetition of the same species more than once, for describing the duties payable to the crown, may be furnished from Linens:—Of this species of goods, a merchant may import 527 ells, called Flanders Holland cloth:—As several species of Linens are chargeable with different duties, with respect to their different breadths, by the addition of a certain sum, according to their rate or value; it must be carefully observed, that these certain sums, as contained under Branch N^o 10, after deducting the proper discounts, are added to, and included in the simple rated duties, in order to compose the whole duties arising to the crown:—Supposing, then, the above mentioned quantity of Linen to be under $1\frac{1}{8}$ ell English in breadth, in such a case no more than the simple rated duties are chargeable, which may be found out thus:—On recourse to page 247, the Linen will appear in the first column, and in the second line of the second column will be found 500 ells; in the seventh line of the same column are 20 ells; in the ninth line 5 ells, and in the eleventh line 2 ells:—By uniting the different quantities together, they make precisely 527 ells, the quantity imported; and by pursuing the same method with the columns of duties, the total sum payable to the crown on the linen easily appears.—If this linen should be exported, the proper drawback may be found, by searching for the quantities as above laid down; and opposite to them, in the sixth and seventh columns, will appear the drawback, according as the linen may be exported, either to the British colonies in America, or to any foreign part.—If the above 527 ells of Holland cloth should be above $1\frac{1}{8}$ ell English in breadth, and under two ells, it then becomes liable to a certain sum of 9 d. for every 20 s. of the rate or value imposed on such Linen, as described in Branch N^o 10.—This duty being added to, and included in the simple rated duties, the reader will be able, on turning to page 248, to find out the whole duties arising to the crown, by using the same method as was before mentioned, which may also serve as a rule for searching out the drawback due on exportation.—Suppose the 527 ells of Holland cloth should be of the breadth of two ells and upwards, and under three ells, this circumstance occasions its being liable to 1 s. 6 d. for every 20 s. of the rate or value, as expressed in Branch N^o 10. over and above the simple rated duties.—The directions given for finding out the duties, on the supposition that the Flanders Holland cloth did not exceed $1\frac{1}{8}$ ell English in breadth, are equally serviceable in this case; so that by their assistance, and turning to page 248, the aggregate duties accruing to the crown will easily appear, as the duty of 1 s. 6 d. after deducting the proper discounts, is added to, and included in the columns representing the duties payable on Flanders Holland cloth of the above breadth:—It may, however, happen, and sometimes does, that this species of cloth shall be of the breadth of three ells or upwards, and in this case the linen becomes liable to the highest duty, as mentioned in Branch N^o 10. being 4 s. 6 d. for every 20 s. of the rate or value:—In an occurrence of this kind; look for page 248, where Flanders Holland cloth of this breadth is inserted, from 1000 ells to 1 ell:—This duty of 4 s. 6 d. being, like the others before mentioned, added to, and included in, the duties arising simply from the rate, the reader need only observe the method laid down for finding out the duties, when the cloth was supposed to be not above $1\frac{1}{8}$ ell English in breadth, because a proper attention to this method will, in the present case, point out the whole duties arising to the crown, when the Linen cloth is of the greatest breadth.—The proper drawback due on exportation, whether to the British colonies in America, or to any foreign part, will easily appear, regard being had to these columns.

BEFORE we dismiss this subject, it will be highly proper to give some description of the construction of the columns, with respect to the several species of Wood, and to those goods which pay duty ad valorem, because the arrangements respecting either the one or the other, differ from those made use of by former authors.

THE columns made choice of for the Wood, are designed to represent the duties arising therefrom, according to all the distinctions and differences which can possibly arise, whether imported from any part of Europe, Asia, Africa or America, and are constructed after the following manner.—The first column represents the several species of Wood, ranged in an alphabetical progression; the second contains such a quantity as is supposed to amount to what is most commonly comprised in any one single entry; the third column exhibits the rates, either of 12 Car. II. or 11 Geo. I. as they happen to refer; and the four succeeding columns contain the duties payable at importation, according to the particular circumstances thereof, and with respect to the Wood being either of the produce of any part of Europe, except Ireland or France, or of the produce of Ireland, and all other places, except France, or any French colony or plantation; the two next columns shew the proper drawback to be repaid on a due exportation, according as the Wood may be of the particular produce of any one place in preference to another; the last column regards, as usual, the table of references.—There being no other difference in the manner of finding out the duties on Wood, and those articles mentioned at the beginning of this explanation, than what necessarily arises from the difference of columns, representing the duties payable by them! Two examples may suffice to illustrate this point:—Suppose a merchant should import 428 loads of Beech planks, above two inches thick, of the produce of any part of Europe, except Ireland and France.—On inspecting page 353, this denomination of Wood appears; and in the second line of the second column are 300 loads, in the third line of the same column are 100 loads; in the sixth line are 20 loads, and in the eighth and ninth lines of the same column are 5 and 3 loads; these several quantities united together make 428 loads, the quantity imported; and by pursuing the same method with regard to the columns of duties, respect being had to the proper lines, they appear with accuracy and dispatch.—This method of finding out the duties, will be equally applicable to the Wood, being of the produce of Ireland, &c. provided sufficient regard is had to those columns:—Instead of any species of Wood which pays duty by the load, there may be an importation of 1680 C. 3 qrs. 18 single Norway Deals, the duties on which are payable by the long hundred:—On recourse to page 361, the reader will find this species of Wood inserted in the first column; and in the first line of the second column are 1000 C. in the third line are 300 C. which being doubled produces 600 C. in the fifth line are 50 C. and in the sixth line are 30 C.—In the thirteenth line are 3 qrs. in the sixteenth line are 15 single Deals, and in the nineteenth line are 3 single Deals; all these several quantities added together produce 1680 C. 3 qrs. 18 single Deals, being exactly the number imported; and opposite to these respective lines, in the columns of duties, will appear the proper rated duties; according as the Wood may be of the produce of any particular country.—By the same method the drawback on due exportation will easily appear, regard being had to those columns.—The reader will please to observe particularly, that in the column of references on Wood, there are two letters annexed to each species:—When they are A. and B. the first refers to Wood being the produce of Ireland, and the other its being the produce of any part of Europe, except Ireland and France; the same remark is equally applicable where the letters C. and B. occur.—It must likewise be observed, that, to facilitate the publication of the book, all the large fractional parts, except the radical one, are cut off from the beginning of the letter W. to the end of the first compartment; but the real twentieth parts are preserved entire, by which means nothing of any real value is lost:—In several places of this compartment, the column of drawbacks to the British colonies are left blank; and when this happens, it generally arises from a supposition, that those species of goods are not wanted at an American market.

THE construction of the columns, with respect to goods that pay duty ad valorem, is the last thing that requires attention in this compartment; and, in order to maintain uniformity as much as possible throughout the book, these columns have no essential difference from those made use of at the beginning of the book, except that the third column, instead of containing, as usual, the respective rates of 12 Car. II. or 11 Geo. I. as they happen to refer, does contain the respective values as they are given upon oath, from 1000 l. down to 6 d.—This uniformity in the columns, obviates any explication of the manner of finding out the net duties and drawbacks arising from the value given upon oath, as being, in all respects, similar with the descriptions already laid down in the former part of this explanation.

Books

Books bound, by 9 Geo. I. cap. 19. § 6, 7, 8. in lieu of all former duties payable ad valorem, thereby repealed, are to pay for every hundred weight 14 s. whether imported by British or by Strangers.

And the duties arising thereon are to be appropriated, as near as may be, to the same uses and purposes, to which the former duties on books were applicable.—Agreeably to this intention, feigned or imaginary rates or values have been contriv'd, which being charged with the several branches, agreeable to the various circumstances of importation and entry, will produce the proper net duties.—To which is to be added the subsidy 1747; which is computed (practically) at 5 per cent. on the highest respective feigned rates.—The feigned rates are below.

As it was impossible to distinguish, in every instance, what Drugs were chiefly of the growth of Europe, and what were the growth of Asia or America, it was thought highly proper to insert, for most of the Drugs, columns for the Drawbacks to the British Colonies: But to prevent any inconveniences, resulting from this arrangement, either to the revenue or the merchant, a strict attention must be paid, at all times, to the circumstances of an importation; because, if the Drugs are of the growth of Europe or the East Indies, they then draw back, if exported to the Colonies, no more than are contained in those columns; but if of the growth of Asia or Africa, they must draw back the sums contained in the column To all legal places, whether exported to the Colonies or not. Vide Act 4. Geo. III. cap. 15.

By 8 and 9 Will. III. cap. 34. § 2 and 3. the Old Subsidy to be received for all Drugs (rated in the first column) imported directly from the place of their growth, and in British built shipping, shall be according to the full value in the Book of rates; and for all Drugs, otherwise imported, treble such value; but not to extend to Drugs used in dyeing.

The foregoing duties on rated drugs are computed as in cases of usual and general importations; but as they may sometimes happen to be imported under other particular circumstances, it is to be observed,

That if any such rated Drugs are of the growth of France, in such case, instead of the Impost 1690 at ten per cent. or the Impost 1692 at five per cent. of the rate, there must be charged the Impost 1692 at twenty-five per cent. on the rate, and also the second twenty-five per cent. on the rate laid on by 7 and 8 Will. cap. 20.

And if any such rated Drugs are of the growth of any other French dominions, in such case, instead of the Impost 1690 at ten per cent. on the rate, or the Impost 1692 at five per cent. on the rate, there must be charged the Impost 1692 at twenty-five per cent. on the rate.

And if any such rated Drugs are of the manufacture of India or China, in such case, instead of the Impost 1690 at ten per cent. on the rate, or the Impost 1692 at five per cent. on the rate, there must be charged the Impost 1690 at twenty per cent. on the rate.

Note, that all Drugs of the growth and product of America, imported from any of the British plantations in America in ships legally navigated, are to pay duty as if imported directly from the place of their growth. 7 Ann. cap. 8. § 12.

Note also, that the difference in the duties of Drugs, imported from places of their growth, and imported from places not of their growth, relates principally to Drugs of the growth of one part of Europe imported from some part of Europe, and doth not imply, that Drugs of the growth of Africa, Asia, or America, can be brought from any part of Europe, on payment of the high duties, as imported from places not of their growth; for such importations would be contrary to the Act of Navigation of 12 Car. II. cap. 18. § 4. except in the cases No. 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, under the title of Goods inwards, in the Abstract of the Laws.

N. B. That all sorts of Fish, British taken, or brought in British ships or bottoms, ought not to pay any custom. 5 Eliz. cap. 5. § 2. 12 Car. II. cap. 4. § 2.—9 and 10 Will. III. cap. 23. § 4.—For the several regulations relating to the importation of Fish, vide Fiſh and Salt in the Abstract of the laws.

By the following Acts, 15 Car. II. cap. 7. § 16.—18 Car. II. cap. 2. § 2.—10 and 11 Will. III. cap. 24. § 13, 14.—1 Geo. I. cap. 18. § 1, 3, 10—9 Geo. II. cap. 33. § 1. several sorts of Fish are prohibited to be imported in any foreign ship into, or sold in England, having been taken by, bought of, or received from foreigners, or out of a foreigner's ship, unless they are Protestant strangers inhabiting this kingdom: By the foregoing Acts an exception is however made in favour of Anchovies, Botargo, Cavear, Eels, Lobsters, Stock-fish, Sturgeon, and Turbets, which may be imported in any ship, and by any person, whether of British or foreign catching.

Groceries.

Sugars and Pannelles, of the growth of the British colonies, exported within one year after the Importation, draw back all the Old Subsidy, 6 Geo. II. cap. 13. § 9. 19 Geo. II. cap. 19.

Note, That all Figs, Prunes, Raisins, and Sugar, imported in ships not belonging to Great Britain or Ireland, or foreign built, pay the same duties as if imported by Aliens. 12 Car. II. cap. 18. § 9.

But Figs, Prunes, Raisins, and Sugar, can be imported only in ships belonging to Great Britain or Ireland, and Currants in ships British built; except in such ships as are of the built of the country of which they are of the growth respectively, or of the place where they can only, or usually are first shipped. 12 Car. II. cap. 18. § 8.

No Spicery or Grocery can be imported from the Netherlands or Germany, except Nutmegs, Cloves, Mace, and Cinnamon, by licence, and in certain packages. See Deal boards, Goods inwards 5, and Spicery in the Abstract of the laws.

Hemp of the British plantations in America, by 8 Geo. I. cap. 12. § 1. is free of all duties.

Hemp of the product of Ireland, and any manufacture made thereof in Ireland, may be imported directly from thence by British or Irish, upon certificate and oath, free. See Ireland in the Abstract of the laws.

Note, That all Hemp, imported in ships not belonging to Great Britain or Ireland, or foreign built, pay the same duties as if imported by aliens. 12 Car. II. cap. 18. § 9.

But Hemp may not be imported in any other than British or Irish ships, or ships of the built of the country of which it is the growth; or of the port where it can only, or is most usually first shipped. See Goods inwards 5. in the Abstract of the laws.

Note, Unwrought Hemp, re-exported to the British dominions in America, is to have no drawback of the duty allowed, by 4 Geo. II. cap. 27. § 7.

The alterations and amendments that have been made by the several acts of parliament, in regard to the importation of Provisions from Ireland, and to the duties chargeable on them, ought to be well known, and therefore a detail of these circumstances will come in here with sufficient propriety.

By the act 31 Geo. II. cap. 23. was allowed for six months, on supposal of the advantages resulting thereby to Great Britain, the importation of Salt Beef, Pork, and Butter, without being subject to any penalties or forfeitures, or other duties, than 1 s. 3 d. per Cwt. of Beef or Pork, and 4 d. per Cwt. of Butter.—These duties were payable into the Exchequer, as part of the duties laid on Salt, by the act 5 Geo. II. —If these goods were landed before payment of the duties, they were forfeited, together with 20 s. for every barrel, one moiety to the king, the other to the informer, &c. —And if these provisions were exported again, no bounty was allowed thereon. —By the act 32 Geo. II. cap. 1. the liberty to import the above provisions was extended to 24th December 1759. —All the powers and regulations mentioned in the above act were continued by this; and as doubts had arisen, whether all kinds of Salted Pork, or other Hog meat, might be imported in virtue of the first act, the second section of this act declared they might. —The duties laid on by the first act having been found inadequate to the duty of the Salt necessarily used and consumed in curing and salting the Provisions, they were, by the third section of this act, extended as follows, viz. Beef or Pork if in pickle, to pay 3 s. 4 d. per barrel. —If dried 1 s. 3 d. per Cwt.

By the act 33 Geo. II. cap. 5. no alterations were made in regard to former regulations; but the importation of provisions from Ireland, on payment of the proper duties, was extended to the 24th Dec. 1760. —And by the act 1 Geo. III. cap. 4. was further extended to the 24th Dec. 1761.

By the 2 Geo. III. cap. 6. the importation of Provisions from Ireland, which, by former acts, was open to every trader, was, by this act, confined to the supply of his Majesty's ships, transports, and other ships and vessels in his Majesty's immediate service and pay. —These provisions were to be imported, duty free, provided they were deposited in the King's store houses, applied properly, and that accounts of their application were kept. —If any of the Provisions were deemed unserviceable, the commissioners of his Majesty's navy might authorize a person to dispose of the same, such person granting a certificate or certificates to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, expressing the nature and quantity of the Provisions sold, the marks of the casks or other packages, with the time of selling it. —Such certificate or certificates to indemnify the purchaser or purchasers from all penalties, forfeitures, and punishments, on account of such Provisions so purchased by them. —By the last section, the above act was extended to the 24th Dec. 1762.

The act 4 Geo. III. cap. 28. after taking notice of the extraordinary price of Provisions, and the inconveniences thereby resulting, not only to the poor people, but even to the trade and manufactures of the kingdom, authorizes his Majesty, with the advice of his Privy Council, during the next recess of parliament, from time to time, to permit the free importation of Provisions from Ireland, when needful and convenient, and as the necessity of the times may require. —All the regulations required by the act 32 Geo. II. cap. 1. with respect to the duties, &c. of the Provisions, were renewed by this act. —That no order shall extend to authorize the importation of the Provisions, but under the following restrictions, viz.

Beef, not unless the best Ox Beef, in Smithfield market, shall exceed 3 d. per pound for the four quarters. —Beef, not unless the price of the best pieces of such Beef shall exceed 4 d. per pound at Leadenhall market. —Pork and Bacon, not unless the price of best Pork shall exceed 4 d. per pound, and the best Bacon 7 d. per pound. —Butter, not unless the best Butter shall exceed 9 d. per pound at Leadenhall market.

By the act 5 Geo. III. cap. 1. the importation of Provisions from Ireland was again allowed to all persons who might incline to deal in such articles, subject to the same duties, regulations, and forfeitures as mentioned in the act 32 Geo. II. c. 1. —No drawback to be allowed on the exportation of the Provisions. —This act to continue in force for twelve months from the passing thereof. —Penalties and forfeitures, incurred by this act, to be divided one moiety to the King, his heirs and successors, and the other moiety to the person or persons who shall sue for the same, to be recovered by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, in any of his Majesty's courts of record at Westminster, or in the court of Exchequer in Scotland, &c. —Persons against whom any action is commenced for any thing done in pursuance of this act, the defendant or defendants may plead the general issue, and give this act, and the special matter in evidence, at any trial to be had thereupon; and upon judgment being given for the defendant or defendants, he or they may recover treble costs, and have the like remedy for the same as any defendant or defendants hath or have in other cases by law. —The duties payable on the Provisions are on the following page.

Al Linnen shall pay one full moiety, over and above what is before rated (except Irish Linen by certificate, and Calicoes printed, painted, &c.) for which Additional Duty the importer, giving security at the Custom-house, shall have twelve months time for payment of the same, from the time of importation; or, in case such importer shall pay ready money, he shall have ten per cent. of the said duty abated to him; and if any of the said Linens, for which this said duty is paid or secured at the importation, be exported within twelve months after their importation, then the aforesaid duty shall be wholly * repaid, or the security vacated, as to what shall be so exported.

* By 7 Geo. I. cap. 21. § 20, the time for Repayment was extended to three years after importation.

Note. This is the Additional Duty mentioned in page 12th, and is included in the aforesaid total duties to be paid and repaid.

Oil.

Oil.

The respective rates affixed to Train Oil of the produce of Greenland or Newfoundland, as a foundation for raising the duties payable to the crown, were, under certain circumstances of entry and importation, altered by the 25 Car. II. cap. 7. § 1. so far as regards the Old Subsidy: On which branch the regulation stands thus:

	£.	s.	d.	20ths
Train Oil or Blubber of Greenland, taken and imported in shipping belonging to any of his Majesty's colonies or plantations, the ton	0	6	0
Train Oil or Blubber of Greenland, taken in shipping belonging to any of his Majesty's colonies or plantations, and imported in shipping belonging to Great Britain, the ton	0	3	0
Train Oil or Blubber of Newfoundland, or any other of the British colonies, taken and imported in shipping belonging thereto, the ton	0	6	0
Train Oil or Blubber of Newfoundland, &c. taken in shipping belonging thereto, and imported in shipping belonging to Great Britain, the ton	0	3	0
Train Oil or Blubber of foreign fishing, the ton	9	0	0

In attempting therefore to calculate the duties on Train Oil or Blubber of Greenland or Newfoundland, when imported under the circumstances before mentioned, it must be carefully observed, that the Old Subsidy is to be computed according to the above Sums, but the Subsidy 1747 according to the rate established by 12 Car. II. cap. 4.

Train Oil or Blubber of Greenland or Newfoundland, or any other of his Majesty's colonies or plantations, made of fish or any other creature living in the seas, caught and imported in ships belonging to Great Britain	DUTY FREE.
--	------------

By the following Acts, 10 Geo. I. cap. 16.—12 Geo. I. cap. 26.—and revised by 5 Geo. II. cap. 28.—and continued by 13 Geo. II. cap. 28.—22 Geo. II. cap. 45.—28 Geo. II. cap. 20.—4 Geo. III. cap. 22.

Train Oil or Blubber, made of Whales or any other fish or creature, and Seal Oil, taken in the Greenland seas, Davis's streights, or any other parts of the seas adjoining, or adjacent, in British ships legally navigated, may be imported in such ships until the 25th of December 1767, and from thence to the end of the then next session of parliament,	DUTY FREE.

Pictures

Pictures, by 8 Geo. I. cap. 20. §. 49, 50, 51. and 11 Geo. I. cap. 7. §. 12. in lieu of all former duties payable ad valorem, thereby repealed, are chargeable with a duty certain, in one entire sum, according to their several respective dimensions, which are particularly described on the succeeding page.

And, by the 11 Geo. I. the duties arising from Pictures are to be appropriated, as near as may be, to the same uses and purposes to which the former duties on Pictures were applicable: Agreeable to this intention, feigned or imaginary rates or values have been contrived; which, being charged with the several branches, agreeable to the various circumstances of importation and entry, will produce the proper net duties.

To which is to be added the Subsidy 1747, which is computed (practically) at five per cent. on the highest respective feigned rates.—The feigned rates are below.

A T A B L E,

Expressing the Branches payable on Pictures in all Circumstances of Importation.

Gros Old Sub.

The rate or Old Subsidy, settled and established by 12 Car. II. cap. 4. upon Whale Fins of the produce of Newfoundland, or any other of his Majesty's colonies or plantations, was, so far as regards that Branch, changed, by the 25 Car. II. cap. 7. §. 1. into a certain sum payable in its stead, being regulated as follows:

Whale Fins of Newfoundland, or any other of his Majesty's colonies or plantations, taken by and imported in shipping of those places, the ton —

Whale Fins of Newfoundland, &c. taken in shipping belonging to those places, and imported in shipping belonging to Great Britain, the ton —

Whale Fins of foreign fishing, the ton —

Whale Fins of Newfoundland, &c. taken and imported by ships of Great Britain, are free of all duty.

The Subsidy 1747, when due, must however be calculated according to the original rate of 12 Car. II. cap. 4. being,

For Whale Fins of British fishing, imported by British in British shipping, the ton, 50 l.

By the Act 4 Geo. III. cap. 29. §. 1. Whale Fins caught in the gulph or river of St. Lawrence, &c. are, upon importation into Great Britain, chargeable with no other duty than the certain sum directed to be taken by the 25 Car. II. in place of the Old Subsidy.

By the following Acts, 10 Geo. I. cap. 16.—12 Geo. I. cap. 26.—and revived by 5 Geo. II. cap. 28.—and continued by 13 Geo. II. cap. 28.—22 Geo. II. cap. 45.—28 Geo. II. cap. 20.—4 Geo. III. cap. 22. Whale Fins taken in the Greenland seas, Davis's freights, or any other parts of the seas adjoining, or adjacent, in British built ships legally navigated, may be imported in such ships until the 25th of December 1767, and from thence to the end of the then next session of parliament, free of all duties.

See Greenland and Davis's Streights in the Abstract of the laws.

For the bounty on ships from Greenland, &c. vide Compartment 3. chap. 3.

By Act 4 Geo. III. cap 11. § 3. all the rated species of Woods before mentioned, and those which may happen to be unrated, if imported directly from the British plantations in America into Great-Britain, are free of all duties; the importers observing the same rules and regulations as are made use of on the importation of goods which pay duty.

The several and respective rated species of Woods, with the duties and drawbacks thereon, having been particularly explained and described, except Wood directly imported from France, or from any French colony or plantation, it must be carefully observed, that the proper duties chargeable on these two distinctions of Wood, will be found, on consulting Chapter the third of this first Compartment; in which chapter will also appear the proper duties and drawbacks of any unrated species of Wood, imported either from any part of Europe, except Ireland and France, or from Ireland and all other places, except France, or any French colony or plantation.

By 3 and 4 Ann. cap. 4. the species of Woods enumerated below, are by 8 Geo. I. cap. 15. if for dyers use, and regularly imported, entered and landed, free of all duty.

AS it would have been needless, in compiling this work, to multiply columns without an apparent necessity, and as the duty of one per cent. inwards, described at page 15, is only chargeable on such goods and merchandizes (liable to Customs) as are imported from any port or place of the Mediterranean sea beyond the port of Malaga, it was apprehended, that the following Table, which exhibits the duty of one per cent. inwards, from 100 l. sterling to one penny, would be equally serviceable, being so contrived as to represent, either the net Old subsidy by itself, or the net additional duty along with it.

Though the use of this Table will be obvious enough to any officer of his Majesty's Revenue, who is tolerably acquainted with computations, yet to merchants, and others, who are not so well versed in the methods of finding out the net Subsidies, the Table may have some appearance of obscurity: I shall, therefore, by way of illustration, set down a few examples of the manner of finding out, either the net Old Subsidy by itself, or the net Additional Duty along with it, so far as regards the importation of goods from any port or place of the Mediterranean sea, beyond the port of Malaga.

Example the first.

16 Cwt. of hard Soap—Amount of the rate on	£.	s.	d.	20 ^s .
which, at 3 l. the Cwt. makes	48	0	0	0
Gross Old Subsidy, at five per cent. is	2	8	0	0
Discount at five per cent. is	0	2	4	16
Net Old Subsidy	2	5	7	4
One fifth part of which sum makes the	0	9	1	8 ⁴ / ₅ duty of one per cent. inwards, being
Total duty arising from these Branches	2	14	8	12 ⁴ / ₅

This duty of one per cent. inwards, arising from the net Old Subsidy, will appear, on having recourse to the first column of the Table; on inspecting which will be found 2 l. and opposite thereto, in the second column, is 8 s. opposite to 5 s. in the first column, will be found 1 s. in the second; and by pursuing this method in regard to pence and twentieth parts, there will appear 1 d. 8 20ths and $\frac{4}{5}$; which detached sums being added together, they produce 9 s. 1 d. 8 20ths and $\frac{4}{5}$, being the real duty of one per cent. inwards, arising from the net Old Subsidy before mentioned.

Example the second.

50 ton of Brimstone—Amount of the Rate at 6 s. 8 d. per Cwt. is	£.	s.	d.
	333	6	8
Gross Old Subsidy at five per cent. is	16	13	4
Discount of five per cent.	0	16	8
Net Old Subsidy	15	16	8
One fifth part of which sum makes the duty of one	3	3	4 per cent, inwards, being
Total duty arising from these Branches	19	0	0

This duty of one per cent. arising on the net Old Subsidy, as above, may be found out, on inspecting the Table, as was recommended in the first Example, regard being had to the difference of the figures.

Example the third.

300 Cwt. of Italian wrought Silk—Amount of the Rate on which, at 1 l. } 13 s. 4 d. per lb. amounts to	£.	s.	d.
	500	0	0
Gross Old Subsidy at five per cent. is	25	0	0
Discount at five per cent. is	1	5	0
Net Old Subsidy	23	15	0
A moiety of which sum makes the gross additional	11	17	6 duty, being
Deduct for prompt payment ten per cent. being	1	3	9
Net Additional Duty	10	13	9
Net Old Subsidy, as above	23	15	0
Total of these Branches	34	8	9
On which sum, the one per cent. inwards being $\frac{1}{5}$ part thereof, makes	6	17	9
The total Duty arising to the Revenue from these Branches	41	6	6

The

The method of finding out the Duty of one per cent. described under the first Example, being confined to a small sum, it will be proper to explain the manner of finding out, from the Table, the sum contained in this last Example: On recourse to the first column of the Table will be found 30 l. opposite to which in the second column is 6 l. and opposite to 2 l. in the first column is 8 s. in the second column, which 8 s. being doubled, makes 16 s. which answers to 4 l. Having thus found the one per cent. of 34 l. proceed to the shillings; and opposite to 5 d. and 3 d. in the first column, will be found 1 s. 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ d.—The one per cent. on 9 d. will be found, on searching for 6 d. and 3 d. in the first column, thus: Opposite to 6 d. will be found 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. and to 3 d. $\frac{1}{2}$ d. parts of one penny.—By uniting these several sums into a total, they make exactly 6 l. 17 s. 9 d. being the duty of one per cent. inwards, before mentioned.

As a proof that the one per cent. inwards, included in the annexed Examples, is properly charged, multiply either of them by five; and the product will be the net duty on which this branch arises; by which it is clearly evident, that no more has been charged on the duty of one per cent. inwards, in any of the forefaid examples, than what that branch really amounts to.

By carefully attending to the nature and construction of the Examples, the duty of one per cent. inwards may be easily found out, by means of the foregoing Table, upon any sum that can arise.

A Description of the Principles of POUNDAGE.

AS the computation of the duties is not only the most essential, but also the most difficult part of the business of the Customs, a competent knowledge of the manner of levying them, is a qualification that no person should want who has the smallest concern in these matters. This is the more necessary, because, among the great variety of branches which compose the total duties payable on foreign merchandize, there are many in whose construction the principles of poundage have been either not understood, or in a great measure neglected: And without proper attention to this circumstance, the computation of poundage duties, though calculated with the utmost propriety on some branches, may yet be extremely deficient on others, which must greatly affect the total duties arising to the revenue.

Hence appears the necessity of being well acquainted with the nature of poundage duties, by which are to be understood the customs, and other duties which are paid on goods imported, excepting those duties which fall strictly under the distinction of tonnage, and the arbitrary sums payable for the old subsidy, instead of the poundage rate, on the several species of corn, when imported under the regulations of the Act of tillage, French or Pearl barley, Train oil, Whale fins, Rape of Grapes, Syder, &c.

By the principles of poundage are meant, not only the peculiar construction of any branch of the revenue, but also the way and manner by which the duty thereby imposed, is directed to be raised and levied. This, in most cases, is done, by taking so much in the pound, or per cent. according to the respective rates or values of the goods; such rates or values being supposed to be equal to the prime cost at the foreign market.

These principles, though simple and uniform in themselves, are in most of the branches greatly obscured, by the number of discounts and allowances, which are only so many impediments to an easy and regular calculation of duties. The nature of these allowances and discounts, and the manner of taking them, must therefore be considered, and studied with the same attention and assiduity, as the principles of poundage; and when both are perfectly understood, the computation of poundage duties will neither be difficult nor laborious.

From this short definition of the principles of poundage, it is extremely obvious how necessary it is to be well acquainted with the method of calculating, almost at the first view, the one twentieth part, or five per cent. of any sum whatsoever; and to this end the following Table may be serviceable.

As

As a proof of the utility of the Table, and in order to describe the method of calculating five per cent. on large sums; suppose the rate or value on any given quantity of goods should amount to 5689 l. 17 s. 11 d. the five per cent. on this sum may be discovered two different ways; as thus:

First way.

Suppose the pounds to be shillings, take half of them, exclusive of the last figure, and it makes 284 l. The last figure must stand for shillings; then, on inspecting the table, the five per cent. on 17 s. 11 d. produces 10 $\frac{3}{4}$ d. So that, by adding these sums together, they make 284 l 9 s. 10 $\frac{3}{4}$ d. which is the real five per cent. of the above mentioned sum.

Second way.

The $\frac{1}{20}$ part, or half the pounds, exclusive of the last figure, is	284	0	0
The 9 l. remaining, accounted as so many shillings,		0	9
The 17 s. 11 d. valued by the table,		0	10 $\frac{3}{4}$
The five per cent. makes	284	9	10 $\frac{3}{4}$

To discover whether the five per cent. is properly taken, multiply either of the ways by 20, and they will produce the above sum of 5689 l. 17 s. 11 d.

There being in the management of his majesty's revenue two cases, wherein may be required an operation previous to the computation of the duties; they are severally explained, as follows:

CASE I.

Goods brought into his majesty's warehouses for security of the duties, and after having remained there unentered for the space of six months, sold to the highest bidder, in pursuance of the acts of the 12 Ann. cap. 8. § 11. and 12 Geo. I. cap. 28. § 19.

If sold for more than the duties,

As suppose,

	£.	s.	d.
582 ells plain Hollands linen under 1 $\frac{1}{8}$ ell, sold for	116	8	0
And suppose the charges to be		2	7
Net produce of the sale	114	0	6
The amount of the rate on the above linen, is	145	10	0
5 per cent. of this rate, is	7	5	6
Discount at 5 per cent. is		0	7 $\frac{3}{4}$
N ^o 1	6	18	2 $\frac{3}{4}$
2	6	18	2 $\frac{3}{4}$
3	2	6	0 $\frac{3}{4}$
III	3	2	2 $\frac{1}{2}$
5	7	5	6
6	7	5	6
The total duty	33	15	8 $\frac{3}{4}$
The surplus to be charged to the branch of customs	80	4	9 $\frac{1}{4}$

That this operation is rightly performed, to the surplus of	80	4	9 $\frac{1}{4}$
Add the full duties, being	33	15	8 $\frac{3}{4}$
And the charges attending the sale of the linen, being	2	7	6
Total, being equal to the real amount of the sale, as above	116	8	0

If sold for less than the duties;

As suppose,

	£.	s.	d.
348 lb. of Succus liquoritæ, sold for	14	10	0
And suppose the charges to be		0	12
The net produce to be charged to the proper branches	13	17	6
The amount of the rate on the above Succus liquoritæ, is	17	8	0
5 per cent. of this rate is	0	17	4 $\frac{3}{4}$
Discount at 5 per cent. is		0	0
N ^o 1	0	16	6 $\frac{1}{4}$
2	0	5	6
3	0	1	10
4	0	3	8
5	0	17	4 $\frac{3}{4}$
10	16	6	3
15	0	11	7
The full duty, being more than the net produce	19	2	9

And

And therefore the quantity must be reduced after the manner of the next example, and will be found to be $252\frac{1}{3}$ lb. the duties whereof are equal to the net produce of the sale, as appears by the following operation:

The amount of the rate on the $252\frac{1}{3}$ lb. of Succus liquoritiæ, is		£.	s.	d.
		12	12	4
5 per cent. of this rate, is		0	12	$7\frac{1}{4}$
Discount at 5 per cent. is		0	0	$7\frac{1}{2}$
The proportion,		N ^o	1.
As 19 2 9 is to 348 lb.			2.
So is 13 17 6 to $252\frac{1}{3}$ lb.			3.
			10.
			15.
				0 11 $11\frac{3}{4}$
				0 3 $11\frac{3}{4}$
				0 1 $3\frac{3}{4}$
				0 2 $7\frac{1}{2}$
				0 12 $7\frac{1}{4}$
				11 16 $6\frac{3}{4}$
				0 8 $5\frac{1}{4}$
Total duty, being equal to the net produce of the sale		13	17	6

The two foregoing examples proceed on the supposition, that the first fold for more, and the second for less, than the duties: But as it sometimes happens, that various species of goods, belonging to one proprietor, are sold for the duties, in such a case, the deficiency of the duties on any one or more species of merchandize, should be made good, by the surplus of the other, previous to bringing to account the net surplus on the branch of Customs, for the behoof of the proprietor, viz.

Example the first,

743 gallons of Geneva, sold for		£.	s.	d.
		235	5	8
Suppose the charges to be		2	5	4
Net produce of the sale		233	0	4

Which net produce is less than the duties of the quantity of 743 gallons of Geneva, sold as above, and answers only to the Customs and Excise of 718 gallons, and nearly $\frac{4}{12}$ of a gallon, as follows, viz.

	£.	s.	d.	20ths.
Customs	11	11	1	$2\frac{3}{5}$
Excise	221	9	2	$17\frac{2}{5}$
Being equal to the net produce	233	0	4
Full duties of Customs and Excise on the 743 gallons of Geneva	241	0	$11\frac{1}{2}$
Net produce of the sale	233	0	4
Deficiency with respect to the duties	8	0	$7\frac{1}{2}$

Example the second.

60 lb. Succus liquoritiæ not from the place of its growth, at $9\frac{1}{2}$ per lb. amounts to		£.	s.	d.
		2	7	6
Suppose the charges to be		0	1	0
Net produce of the sale		2	6	6

Which net produce is less than 4 l. 5 s. 6 d. the full duty of the 60 lb. above mentioned, and answers only to the duty of 32 lb. and about $\frac{1}{12}$.

	£.	s.	d.
Full duties on the above 60 lb. Succus liquoritiæ	4	5	6
Net produce of the sale	2	6	6
Deficiency with respect to the duties	1	19	0

Example the third.

691 gallons single Spanish Brandy, sold for		£.	s.	d.
		247	12	2
Suppose the charges to be		2	3	2
Net produce of the sale		245	9	0

Amount of the rate at 15 l. per ton, makes	£.	s.	d.
	41	2	$7\frac{1}{4}$

5 per cent of this amount is	2	1	$1\frac{1}{2}$
Discount at 5 per cent. is	0	2	$0\frac{3}{4}$

making together

Real surplus arising to the proprietor of the goods	9	13	$11\frac{1}{4}$
---	---	----	-----------------

By the proprietor of the goods is not meant the person who purchases them at the sale, but the person whose property the goods were previous to their being taken to the king's warehouse, for security of the duties arising to the crown: Whenever, therefore, this proprietor, or any agent acting by commission from him, appears to claim such surplus, it must be repaid him by a special over-entry out of the Branch of Customs, narrating the particular circumstances of the case.

C A S E II.

Money paid by way of composition for the duties on goods clandestinely imported, in pursuance of 12 Geo. I. cap. 21. § 32.

Suppose a person to have been guilty of running of Coffee, for which offence the Treasury have agreed on a composition of 500 l.

The said sum must be applied to the several branches in proportion, as in the following example.

E X A M P L E.
1 Cwt. of Coffee ———	Amount of the rate ———	7	0 0
5 per cent of this amount		6	7 0
Discount of 5 per cent. —		0	0 4 $\frac{4}{5}$
N ^o 1. ———		0	6 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ $\frac{6}{5}$
2. ———		0	6 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ $\frac{6}{5}$
3. and 4. ———		0	6 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ $\frac{6}{5}$
5. ———		0	7 0

46. ———		14	0 0
The total duty per hundred weight		15	13 6 $\frac{3}{5}$

Then say, As £. 15 13 6 $\frac{3}{5}$ is to 1 Cwt. so is £. 500 to 31 Cwt. 3 qrs. 16 $\frac{7}{8}$ lb.

So that if the several respective duties are charged upon that quantity, they will shew the proportion in which the above composition money is to be applied, viz.

31 Cwt. 3 qrs. 16 $\frac{7}{8}$ lb. of Coffee — 5 per cent. of the rate is	11	3	2 $\frac{1}{2}$

Having given a short description of the principles of poundage, and laid down two methods for discovering the 5 per cent. on the amount of the rates or values on any given quantity of goods, and having also given examples of two cases, wherein may be required an operation previous to the computation of the duties, I shall conclude this subject, with describing the manner of finding out the several branches to which any species of poundage goods may be liable, and the net amount of each branch, by the following examples.

E X A M P L E I.

300 Fans for Corn, imported by British.

Upon recourse to this species of goods at letter F, in the Tables of this compartment, it will be found, that they are rated at 6 s. 8 d. the piece, at which rate they amount to 100 l. sterling.

In the column of references will be found the letter A, which letter being sought for in the Table, pages 67, 68, 69, it will be found that Fans for corn are chargeable with the Branches N^o 1, 2, 3, 4, 5.

In order to discover the net sums to be charged for these branches, each of them must be consulted in the following manner.

Amount

		Amount of the rate	£.	s.	d.
N ^o 1. or Old subsidy.—	On recourse to this branch, under the distinction of Poundage, it will appear,
	That the fans must be computed at 5 per cent. of the above amount of the rate, which is		5	0	0
	That the discount allowed thereon, being 5 per cent. is		0	5	0
		Whereby the net Old subsidy is	4	15	0
N ^o 2. or New subsidy.—	On recourse to this branch, under the distinction of Poundage, it will appear,
	That in this example the net New subsidy will be the same as the Old subsidy, which is		4	15	0
N ^o 3. or $\frac{1}{3}$ d Subsidy—	On recourse to this branch, it will appear to be one-third part of the net New subsidy, which is		1	10	8
N ^o 4. or $\frac{2}{3}$ d Subsidy—	On recourse to this branch, it will appear to be two-third parts of the net New subsidy, which is		3	4	4
N ^o 5. or Sub. 1747	On recourse to this branch, it will appear, that it is to be levied at 12 d. in the pound, or 5 per cent. of the rate or value, whereby in the present case it will be		5	0	0
		Total duties to be paid	19	5	0

The same Example done another way.

Amount of the rate on the fans of Corn is	100	0	0
5 per cent. of the rate	5	0	0
Discount at five per cent.	0	5	0

N ^o 5. (or Subsidy 1747.)	5	0	0
Total duties to be paid	19	5	0

EXAMPLE II.

Suppose 200 Cwt. of Elephants teeth, imported by strangers.

By pursuing the method laid down in the first example, it will be found, that this species of goods is rated at 4 l. each hundred weight, the gross amount of which will be 800 l. sterling.

Opposite to Elephants teeth, in the column of references, will be found C. 31. and on inspecting the table of references for the letter C. at page 67, &c. it will be found, that Elephants teeth are chargeable with the branches 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 11: the net duties on which may be found out thus:

All these branches are computed in the same manner as those in the first example; but as the impost 1692 and petty customs is calculated in a different manner from other branches, they are particularly described.

N ^o 4. (or $\frac{2}{3}$ d Subsidy.)		25	10	8
N ^o 5. (or Subsidy 1747, being 5 per cent. of the rate without discount)		40	0	0
N ^o 11. or Im- post 1692.—	On recourse to this branch it will appear, that Elephants teeth, the 31 st article of this duty, as pointed out by the figure 31. annexed to C. the referring letter, is chargeable with 2 s. for every 20 s. of the rate, which amounts to	£.	s.	d.
		80	0	0
	That if this duty is paid down, there must be allowed a discount of $6\frac{1}{4}$ per cent. which is	5	0	0
Whereby the net Impost is		75	0	0
N ^o II. or Petty custom.—	On recourse to this branch, it will be found, that in the present example it is to be levied at $1\frac{1}{4}$ per cent. of the rate, being $\frac{1}{4}$ part thereof, which is	10	0	0

EXAMPLE III.

500 quarters of Oats imported by British, not exceeding 16 s. per quarter.

Upon recourse to Corn in the Tables of this compartment, oats will be found to be rated at 4 s. per quarter; and opposite thereto, in the column of references, is the letter A. which at the Table, page 67, &c. will be found to denote, that oats is chargeable with the branches 1, 2, 3, 4, 5.

EXAMPLE IV.

500 quarters of Oats imported by British, and exceeding the price of 16 s. per quarter.

Corn being liable to the same branches, whether exceeding or not exceeding a certain price at the market; it must therefore be observed, that these Oats, tho' exceeding the price of 16 s. per quarter, are nevertheless chargeable with the same branches as not exceeding; on which account it is needless to throw this example two different ways.

Amount of the rate on 500 quarters, at 4 s. per quarter, makes ———

EXAM

EXAMPLE V.

600 lb. of Rhubarb (a Drug) imported directly from the place of growth, and in British ships.

On recourse to Rhubarb under the general head of Drugs, it will be found, that it is rated at 1 l. sterling the pound weight; and that on consulting the column of references, the referring letter opposite to Rhubarb is K. 10. which by the table of references at page 68, &c. denotes, that this species of goods is chargeable with the branches 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 10, 15.

To discover the net sum chargeable on each branch, they must be consulted as follows.

On recourse to this branch, under the distinction of Poundage, it will appear,		£.	s.	d.
N ^o 1. or Old subsidy.—	That in this example it is to be levied according to the rates of the goods, which on Rhubarb amount to—	600	0	0
	That being imported directly, and in a British ship, it is to be computed only at 5 per cent. of the rate, which is	30	0	0
	That there must be allowed thereon a discount of 5 per cent. which is—	1	10	0
	Whereby the net Old subsidy is	28	10	0
On recourse to this branch, under the distinction of Poundage, it will appear,
N ^o 2. or New subsidy.—	That in the present example, it is to be levied at 5 per cent. on $\frac{1}{3}$ of the rate, which is—	10	0	0
	That on this $\frac{1}{3}$ there is to be allowed a discount of 5 per cent. which is—	0	10	0
	Whereby the net New subsidy is	9	10	0
N ^o 3. (or $\frac{1}{3}$ d Subsidy) —		3	3	4
4. (or $\frac{2}{3}$ d Subsidy) —		6	6	8
N ^o 5. or Sub. 1747	On recourse to this branch, it will appear to be 12 d. in the pound, or 5 per cent. on the respective rate or value; and as the Rhubarb is imported from the place of growth, this branch will be equal to the old subsidy, without discount, which is —	30	0	0
	On recourse to this branch it will appear, that the Rhubarb, the 10th article of this duty, is chargeable with 2 s. for every 20 s. of the above rate, which is	60	0	0
N ^o 10. or Im- post 1690.—	That this species of goods being imported directly from the place of growth, the gross impost must only be $\frac{1}{3}$ part of this sum, which is —	20	0	0
	That if this duty is paid down, there must be allowed a discount of $6\frac{1}{4}$ per cent. which is —	1	5	0
	Whereby the net Impost is	18	15	0
N ^o 15. or New duty on Drugs.	On recourse had to this branch, it will appear, that the amount of it will be equal to the gross impost 1690, before the discount is taken off, so that it will be —	20	0	0
	Total duty —	116	5	0

This Example done another way.

Amount of the rate at 20 s. per lb. makes — 600 0 0

N ^o 10.	5 per cent. on the rate —	30	0	0
60 0 0 — { Being double the 5 per cent. on the rate, or 2 s. for every 20 s.	Discount at 5 per cent. —	1	10	0
20 0 0 — { Being $\frac{1}{3}$ part, because imported from the place of growth.	N ^o 1. (or Old subsidy) —	28	10	0
1 5 0 — Discount at $6\frac{1}{4}$ per cent.	2. (or New subsidy) —	9	10	0
18 15 0 — Net Impost 1690.	3. (or $\frac{1}{3}$ Subsidy) —	3	3	4
	4. (or $\frac{2}{3}$ Subsidy) —	6	6	8
	5. (or Subsidy 1747) —	30	0	0
	10. (or Impost 1690) —	18	15	0
	15. (or New duty on Drugs, being equal to Impost 1690, without the discount) —	20	0	0
	Total duty —	116	5	0

When Rhubarb is imported, either from a place not of its growth, or in a foreign-built ship, every one of the foregoing branches must be computed at three times as much as in the above example, whereby the total duties on Rhubarb under such circumstances, will be 348 l. 15 s. sterling.

E X A M P L E VI.

Certain quantities of Earthen ware not particularly rated, containing 1200 lb. weight.

By 11 Geo. I. cap. 7. this sort will be found to be rated at 10 d. the pound, at which rate the above quantity amounts to £. s. d.

And the branches chargeable upon this Earthen ware, are 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 10.

On consulting the Old subsidy, &c. as recommended in former examples, it will be found, that this branch must be chargeable at $7\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. of the rate or value, whereby the net Old subsidy, or N^o 1. after deducting a discount of 5 per cent. will be £. s. d.

CONTAINING

T A B L E S

WHICH EXHIBIT

The net DUTIES and DRAWBACKS on all the unrated species of merchandize, excepting the East-Indian articles, from 1000 l. to 6 d.

IN the foregoing sheets, the duties and drawbacks on all the rated species of merchandize, excepting the East-Indian articles, &c. are particularly described and explained, from page 79 to page 386.—But as it frequently happens, that many species of goods are imported, which not being rated, either by the Acts of 12 Car. II. cap. 4. or the 11 Geo. I. cap. 7. or any other particular Act of parliament, are chargeable with duty ad valorem, agreeable to the 4th Rule annexed to the Additional Book of Rates, passed by 11 Geo. I. cap. 7. as inserted at the end of Compartment the second, Chapter the third:—The following sets of Tables are therefore designed, to represent the total net duties payable on these goods ad valorem, according to the particular circumstances of entry and importation, and the net drawbacks to be repaid on due exportation.—It must, however, be observed, that the several values and prices of unrated goods, are to be ascertained by the oath or affirmation of the merchant-importer, in the presence of the customer, collector, comptroller and surveyor, or any two of them, and that the duties chargeable on these goods are not to be reckoned into the value given on oath.—If the goods are undervalued, they may be taken by the officers, and sold for the use of the crown.

Vide 11 Geo. I. cap. 7. § 7.—4th Rule of Additional Book of Rates above mentioned, and Branch N^o 42. at page 62.

Vide also Act 5 Geo. III. cap. 43. § 2. where the application of the produce arising from the sale is particularly described.

COMPARTMENT THE SECOND;

COMPREHENDING

The Net DUTIES and DRAWBACKS on TOBACCO of the British plantations, and of other places, with TABLES OF INTEREST at 6 and 7 per cent.

A L S O

The Subsidy of TONNAGE, and other Duties payable on any quantity of WINES, VINEGAR, &c. imported into the port of London, and all other ports of Great-Britain, with the net drawbacks to be repaid on due exportation ;

A N D

The net Duties and Drawbacks on all East-Indian articles, whether rated or unrated :

TOGETHER WITH

The Rules, Orders, Directions, and Allowances for the advancement of trade, &c. as settled and established by the 12 Car. II. cap. 4. and 11 Geo. I. cap. 7.

EXPLANATION of the TABLES contained in the second Compartment.

THE goods which respect this compartment are Tobacco, whether of British or foreign produce, the several species of Wine, &c. and the East-Indian articles, both rated and unrated; of all which in their order.—As the manner of finding out the duties on Tobacco does not greatly differ from former explanations, laid down in the first compartment, it will be needless to repeat the same again.

THE duties on British plantation Tobacco may be either paid down at the time of importation, or only the old subsidy paid, and security given for payment of the other branches at the expiration of eighteen months, to commence from the day of entry.—If all, or any part of these bondable duties are paid down before the eighteen months expire, the merchant-importer is entitled to a discount of seven per cent. per annum on the sum paid, for so many of the eighteen months as remain unexpired.—Instead of all or any part of the bondable duties being paid, as just mentioned, it may happen that the eighteen months shall expire before the Tobacco be exported; and in this case, the crown is entitled to receive interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum, till such time as the bond is discharged, either by regular exportations of the Tobacco, or by paying down the duties formerly secured.—Vide Acts 9 Geo. I. cap. 21. 24 Geo. II. cap. 41. and 4 Ann. cap. 6.—To answer these cases as they happen to arise, tables of interest at six and seven per cent. per annum, calculated to a farthing, and from 500 l. to 1 s. &c. are inserted immediately after the tables, describing the duties and drawbacks on British plantation Tobacco.

THE several species of Wine are the goods that occur next in this compartment:—The columns representing these goods, with the duties and drawbacks, are constructed (excepting as to French Wine) as follows.—The two first columns represent the particular species of Wine, and the quantity on which duties are chargeable; the four succeeding columns describe the duties, according to the particular circumstances of importation and entry, whether imported for sale or for private use; and the eight remaining columns contain the net drawbacks due on exportation, whether the Wine should be exported to any foreign part, or to the British plantations in America.—As the duties payable on Wines required a great extension of columns for describing them, a particular distinction having been made by the Act 4 Geo. III. cap. 15. between the drawbacks to any foreign part, and to the British American colonies, it was not possible, under these circumstances, to include in the extension the duties and drawbacks on Wines when imported by vintners or retailers, each page being sufficiently full without such an insertion; and in regard such a circumstance of importation seldom or never occurs in Scotland, and perhaps not frequently in England, it is apprehended the want of such an extension cannot be considered as a mistake, especially as the total net duties and drawbacks on a ton and on a gallon of the several species of Wines, except French, which may be entered by vintners or retailers, are distinctly put down at the foot of each page:—The above Act having made no alteration in regard to the drawbacks on French Wines, wheresoever exported, the several circumstances of importation for sale, private use, vintners or retailers, are all exhibited on one page, which contains the respective duties and drawbacks.—For the sake of distinction, the several species of Wine imported into the port of London are described first, and those for the out-ports immediately after.

HAVING described the construction of the several columns representing the duties and drawbacks on the different species of Wines, I shall proceed to point out the manner of finding the net duties and drawbacks on any quantity and sort of Wine, according to the particular circumstances of importation and entry, by the following examples.—1st, Suppose it were required to find out the net duties and drawbacks on 37 tons, 3 qrs. 42 gall. of French Wine unfilled for sale, by British, from a place of growth, imported into the port of London; turn to page 434, where this species of Wine is inserted; and in the third line of the second column will be found 30 tons, in the sixth and eighth lines of the same column are 5 tons and 2 tons; in the tenth line are 189 gallons, being 3 qrs. and in the thirteenth line are 42 gallons; which several quantities united together, make 37 tons, 3 qrs. 42 gall. the quantity imported; and opposite to these respective lines will be found, in the third column, the several duties arising thereon.—If the Wine should be exported, consult the ninth column in the same manner as was done for finding out the duties, and the drawback due on a regular exportation will easily appear.—Instead of being imported for sale, the Wine may be imported for private use, or for vintners or retailers; if for private use, then consult the fifth column, where the several duties are inserted; and if the proprietor should export it, the drawbacks will appear, on having recourse to the eleventh column.—The seventh column represents the several duties arising on the above quantity, if imported by vintners or retailers; and in the thirteenth column will be found the proper drawbacks due on a regular exportation.—The second example may be an importation of 67 tons, 1 qr. 27 gall. of Red Portugal Wine unfilled for sale, by British, and imported into the port of London from a place of growth:—This species of Wine, and circumstance of importation, will be found at page 438; the quantity may be found thus:—In the third line of the second column are 30 tons, which being doubled makes 60 tons; and in the sixth and eighth lines of the same column are 5 tons and 2 tons, which added together make 67 tons; in the twelfth line are 63 gallons, or 1 qr. and in the seventeenth line are 20 gallons; in the nineteenth

nineteenth are 5 gallons, and in the twenty-first line 2 gallons; which several quantities united together, make exactly the quantity imported, being 67 tons, 1 qr. 27 gall. and opposite to these quantities, in the third column, will appear the proper corresponding duties arising to the crown.—The proper drawbacks due on exportation, whether exported to the British American colonies or to foreign parts, are easily found, on having recourse to the seventh and eleventh columns, which describe the respective drawbacks.—Should this Wine be imported for private use, the proper duties and drawbacks may be readily found, regard being had to these particular columns.—The circumstance of an importation by vintners or retailers is provided for at the foot of the page, where the total duties and drawbacks on a ton and a gallon are described.—The third and last example may be furnished from Hungary or German Wines, &c.—Suppose an importation of 25 tons, 2 qrs. 31½ gall. of Rhenish Wine by strangers, or in a foreign ship, brought into any port from a place of growth, and entered as unfilled for sale, look for page 436, where this species of Wine, and circumstances of importation are inserted, and in the second column the several quantities will appear almost at the first inspection; and opposite to these quantities, in the fourth column, will be found the proper corresponding duties as payable to the crown.—Should the Wine be exported, the net drawbacks, on consulting the proper columns, appear with equal accuracy and dispatch.—By the Acts 3 Geo. III. cap. 12. and 4 Geo. III. cap. 13. all sorts of Wine, except Madeira Wines, from the British plantations in America, or from the East-Indies, supposing them to be entered as unfilled, yet, if not imported from places of their growth, are liable to pay the same duties as Wines filled up; which regulations must be attentively considered:—The following Liquors, viz. Perry, Rape of grapes, Syder, Sydereager and Vinegar, are included in this compartment, because the old subsidy chargeable on them is strictly a tonnage, and the other duties arising from Vinegar are reciprocally composed of tonnage and poundage principles.—The construction of the columns representing the duties on these articles, are adapted to the particular circumstances of importation and entry, and the variations respecting each article being but small, the manner of finding out the net duties on Perry and Vinegar, will be a sufficient guide in regard to the rest.—Suppose an entry of 3 tons, 1 qr. 25 gall. of Perry, not French, imported into any port by British, and filled up; on recourse to page 467, this species of goods appears, and in the second line of the second column are 3 tons, in the seventh line are 63 gallons or 1 qr. and in the tenth and twelfth lines of the same column are 20 gallons and 5 gallons; which quantities added together, make exactly the quantity imported; and opposite to these several lines will be found, in the fourth column, the corresponding tonnage duties arising to the crown.—Besides the tonnage duties, Perry is also chargeable with an excise duty after the rate of 14 l. per ton, and with certain poundage duties according to the value given on oath.—On recourse to the eighth column, the Excise duty will appear, by following the respective lines above mentioned: And it must be observed, that in the first column on the side of Perry stands the figure (37), which refers to a table marked with that figure, and placed at page 393, where the net poundage duties will appear upon any value given on oath; when all these several duties are united together, the total duties payable on the above quantity of Perry are found out, and the several drawbacks due on a regular exportation will also appear, regard being had to the proper columns.—Suppose an entry of 6 tons, 2 qrs. 15 gall. of Vinegar not French, imported by British, and unfilled for sale, turn to page 470, and in the first line of the second column are 3 tons, which being doubled produces 6 tons; in the fourth line are 126 gall. or 2 qrs. and in the ninth and tenth lines are 10 gall. and 5 gall. all which united together, make the quantity imported; and opposite to these respective lines, in the sixth column, will appear the proper corresponding duties as payable to the crown.—If imported for private use, or by vintners or retailers, these circumstances of importation are provided for at the foot of the page, where the total net duties on a ton and on a gallon are put down.—The last species of goods in this compartment, are the East-Indian articles, whether rated or unrated:—With respect to the rated articles, the several columns representing the duties, &c. and the manner of finding them out, being entirely similar with the descriptions already given in the first compartment of this book, I beg leave to refer the reader thither.—The unrated articles are inserted from page 479 to page 485; and in describing the several duties arising from them to the crown, Mr. Saxby's plan, being the best, is adopted, so far as was consistent with inserting the full duties on any given quantity.—The manner of finding out the net or reduced value from the price at the sale, and the net duties flowing from that value, are particularly explained at page 478, in regard to all the East-Indian goods, excepting Muslins, Cotton manufactures, and Wax-candles, which articles have their net or reduced values arising from the sales, less than what generally arises, because not only the charges and the company's allowance to buyers is deducted from the gross value at the candle, but also the additional duty to which each species is liable to by law; and as by this method the reduced value is less than usual, so are also the net duties arising therefrom.

As a guide to those who may incline to try the authenticity of any of these calculations, proper canons of proportion are arranged against each scheme of duties, whereby not only the reduced value, but even the net duties arising from that value may be easily raised; and in order to demonstrate the truth of these methods, a certain proof is introduced at the foot of each page, whose total must always quadrate with the gross price at the candle.—An attentive reader will perhaps observe, that in the proof the net duties are not equal to the real duties accruing to the crown; which inequality, in calculating the net duties on the reduced value, arises from the exclusion of the subsidies 1747 and 1759, and those additional duties on the goods liable thereto; for if these additional duties, when due, and the subsidies 1747 and 1759, being ten per cent. of the gross value at the candle, are added to the net duties in the proof, there will be a perfect agreement between these duties, and the real ones payable to the crown.

All Tobacco of the British plantations shall pay, over & above the other duties, one penny per pound at 18 months after importation, & give security for the same. If such Tobacco be exported within three years, the duty to be repaid, 9 Geo. I. c. 23. §. 3. 7 Geo. I. c. 21. §. 10. If the Importer chules to pay ready money, he is to be abated at the rate of 25 per cent. per annum, 9 Geo. I. c. 20. §. 3. This duty is the additional duty mentioned at page 12. & included in the above columns of duties & drawbacks.—For other regulations vide Tobacco in the Abstract of the laws.

TOBACCO, not of the British plantations, is chargeable, for the Branch N^o 9, with 6 d. for every pound weight, out of which gross sum, is to be allowed a discount of 8 per cent. and a discount of 10 per cent. :—This discount of 10 per cent. per annum makes $12\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. for the first fifteen months, if the money arising by this branch should be paid within thirty days from the master of the ship's report ; but for each of the said fifteen months elapsed before entry, the importer loses one fifteenth part of the $12\frac{1}{2}$ per cent.

THE following example will point out the manner of discovering any sum the merchant-importer may lose on any of the fifteen months elapsed before entry.

E X A M P L E.

SUPPOSE an entry for 1000 lb. weight of Spanish or any foreign Tobacco should not be made till two of the fifteen months are expired, the operation must be thus.

Whereas, if the money arising from the Impost had been paid down at the time of entry, or at any time before the expiration of 30 days from the ship's report, the Impost would only have been 20 l. 2 s. 6 d.

THE duties on Tobacco not of the produce of the British plantations, whether paid or secured, being included in the foregoing tables, according to the most common and general cases of importation, it only remains to subjoin a short table, comprehending the difference of the duty with regard to the impost on Tobacco, if not paid till a considerable time after the ship's report.

CHAPTER the SECOND,

INCLUDING

The SUBSIDY OF TONNAGE, and other Duties payable on any quantity of WINES, VINEGAR, &c. imported into the port of London, and all other ports of Great-Britain;

WITH THE

NET DRAWBACKS to be repaid on due exportation.

The SUBSIDY OF TONNAGE on all WINES, by British.

	l.	s.	d.
G Ascoign and French Wines, brought into the port of London, the ton to pay —	4	10	0
Brought into all other ports, to pay —	3	0	0
Rhenish Wines brought into any port, the awm —	1	0	0
Muscadales, Malmfies, and other Wines of the Levant, brought into the ports of } London, Bristol, or Southampton, the butt or pipe to pay —	2	5	0
Brought into all other ports, to pay —	1	10	0
Sacks, Canaries, Malagaes, Maderaes, Romneys, Hollocks, Bastards, Tents, and } Allicants, brought into the port of London, the butt or pipe to pay —	2	5	0
Brought into all other ports, to pay —	1	10	0

All merchant-strangers bringing in any sorts of the said Wines, are to pay thirty shillings in the ton, over and above the aforesaid rates which the native pays; including twenty shillings the ton formerly paid to his majesty, by the name of Southampton duties for Muscadales, Malmfies, and all other Wines of the growth of the Levant.

For which sort of Wines, the stranger is also to pay to the use of the town of Southampton, for every butt or pipe, the sum of ten shillings.

Moreover, the stranger is to pay the ancient duty of Butlerage, which is two shillings upon every ton.

Note, that such Wines as shall be landed in any of the Out-ports, and custom paid, and afterwards brought to the port of London by certificate, shall pay so much more custom, as they paid short of the duty due in the port of London. See pages 6, 466, 506.

For the other duties on Wine, see the respective branches.

Goods inwards, not rated, to pay Five per Cent.

And if there shall happen to be brought in, or carried out of this realm, any Goods liable to the payment of Custom and Subsidy, which either are omitted in this Book, or are not now used to be brought in, or carried out; or, by reason of the great diversity of the value of some Goods, could not be rated; that in such case every Customer or Collector for the time being, shall levy the said Custom and Subsidy of Poundage, according to the value and price of such Goods, to be affirmed upon the oath of the Merchant in the presence of the Customer, Collector, Comptroller, and Surveyor, or any two of them.

If any of the foregoing species of goods should be exported to any part or place of the Mediterranean-Sea, beyond the port of Malaga, in any ship or vessel that hath not two decks, and doth carry less than sixteen pieces of ordnance mounted, together with two men for each gun, and other ammunition proportionable, such Goods will be liable to the duty of one per cent. outwards, described at page 48.—The amount of this duty upon any sum from 100 l. to 1 s. will easily appear, on consulting the following table.

(a) When the above sorts of Corn, either ground or unground, do not, at the port of exportation, exceed the respective prices in the first column, and shall be shipped on board any British ship, whereof the master, and at least two-thirds of the mariners are British subjects, in order to be exported to parts beyond the seas, the exporter is to be allowed the respective bounties in the second column; provided a certificate in writing, under the hand of the exporter, containing the quantity and quality of the Corn, be first brought to the collector of the port, and the truth thereof confirmed by the oath of one or more credible person or persons; and bond be given by the exporter, in the penalty of 10 l. for every ton of Oatmeal, or forty bushels of Beer, alias Bigg, and 200 l. at least for every 100 tons of all the other sorts (i. e. eight shillings per quarter) that the same shall be exported into parts beyond the seas, and not be relanded in Great-Britain, or the islands of Guernsey or Jersey.

(b) in order to adjust the quantity for which the bounty is to be paid, the Corn is to be ad-measured by the proper officers of the Customs, who, for the greater expedition, may make use of a tub or measure containing four Winchester bushels; or if the said Corn be intended to be exported in sacks, they are to choose two out of any number not exceeding twenty sacks, and so in proportion, and thereby compute the whole quantity; but if exported from London, may be measured by the sworn meters, from whose certificate the searchers may certify the quantity shipped for exportation.

(c) But with respect to Malt, the bounty is to be allowed after the rate of thirty quarters, and no more, for every twenty quarters of Barley, or other Corn or Grain entered and made into Malt for exportation; as shall appear by a certificate from the proper officer, with whom the Corn or Grain, intended to be made into Malt for exportation, was entered.

(d) And with respect to Wheat meal, or other ground Corn or Grain, the same bounty, and no more, is to be allowed for 224 pounds weight thereof, as is allowed for four bushels of the same kind of Corn or Grain unground, and so in proportion. And if it is brought to be shipped off in sacks, the proper officer may choose and weigh two sacks out of any number not exceeding twenty sacks; and so in proportion for any greater quantity, and thereby compute the weight of the whole. And the bounty money is to be paid to the exporter accordingly, upon producing a certificate from the proper officer of the Customs, attesting the quantity, quality, and weight thereof.

(e) The aforesaid bounty to be paid by the collector of the port, upon demand made by the exporter, unless he has not sufficient money in his hands; and then (except for Bigg and Oatmeal) he is to certify the same to the commissioners of the Customs, who are to cause the money to be paid by the receiver-general within three months.

(f) When the certificate abovementioned, annexed to the debenture for Corn exported, is produced to the commissioners of the Customs at London, they are immediately to cause an indorsement to be made on the back of the debenture, of the day when it was produced, and as soon as conveniently may be, sign their order to the receiver-general for payment.

(g) If any such debenture remains unsatisfied more than six months after the day it has been produced to the commissioners of the Customs at London, interest at the rate of three per cent. per annum is to be allowed thereon, from the end of the said six months to the time of payment, or to the time of proper notice given thereof.

By 6 Geo. II. cap. 33. § 1. was granted, during the continuance of the Act 5 Geo. II. cap. 28. for every British ship of 200 tons and upwards, manned and navigated according to law, which shall proceed from Great-Britain on the Whale-fishery to the Greenland seas, Davis's streights, or the adjacent seas, a bounty, according to the admeasurement of the ship, for every ton thereof

By 13 Geo. II. cap. 28. § 3. continued to 25 December 1750.

22 ————— 45.—2. continued to 25 December 1757.

And by this last recited Act, a further bounty for every ton ————— 1 0 0

Total bounty 2 0 0

And the whole extended to Ships built in any of his majesty's dominions in America.

By 28 Geo. II. cap. 20. the whole continued to 25 December 1764.

4 Geo. III. cap. 22. § 2. continued to 25 December 1767; and from thence to the end of the then next session of parliament, and extended to ships under 200 tons.

(a) To be paid to the master or owners, or their assigns, on the return of the ship to Great-Britain, by the receiver-general of the Customs of that part of Great-Britain from whence she departed, out of the Old subsidy; but if he has not sufficient money on that branch, then out of any money arising from any duties under the management of the commissioners of the Customs respectively, if the following regulations are complied with.

(b) Every ship, of the burthen of 200 tons or under, must have on board 40 fishing-lines, 120 fathoms each, 40 harpoon-irons, four boats, with seven men to each boat (including a harpooner, a steersman, and a line-manager to each boat) making in the whole 28 men, besides the master and surgeon, with six months provision at least; and every ship of larger burthen, an increase of six men, one boat, 10 such lines, and 10 harpoon-irons, for every 50 tons.

(c) After 25 December 1757, every ship employed in this Fishery is to have on board an apprentice, indentured for three years at least, for every 50 tons burthen, otherwise the owners are to lose the bounty; but such apprentice is to be accounted as one of the number of men, which by law ought to be on board such ship.

(d) After 25 December 1757, no ship above the burthen of 400 tons shall be intitled to a larger bounty than a ship of 400 tons; nor the owners obliged to fit out, equip, or man any such ship, otherwise than is required for a ship of 400 tons.

(e) The ship, before she proceeds on her voyage, must be visited by the proper officer of the Customs at the port from whence she proceeds, who is to examine the above qualifications, and take an account of her tonnage, &c. and certify the same to the commissioners of the Customs. And if it appears, by the oath of one of the owners and the master of the ship, made before the collector and comptroller of the port, at the foot of the certificate, that it is really and truly their firm purpose, and determined resolution, that such ship shall forthwith proceed, so manned, furnished, and accoutred, in a voyage to the Greenland seas, or Davis's streights, or the seas adjacent, and there to use their utmost endeavours to take whales, and other creatures living in the sea, and on no other design, and to import the whale-fins, oil and blubber, into Great-Britain (naming the port to which it is their intention to return). And if the master also becomes bound with two sufficient securities, in treble the value of the bounty (which bond is to be taken by the collector, with approbation of the comptroller, and is to be in force for the term of three years against them, for the faithful dealing of the master and ship's company, in regard to the ship and voyage) then any three of the commissioners of the Customs for England Scotland respectively, upon receiving such certificate and oath, with a certificate that sufficient security has been given, are to grant to the master and owners full licence to proceed on such voyage.

(f) On the return of such ship to the port mentioned in the oath of the master, the proper officers of the Customs are to go on board and view her condition and lading, and take a schedule of the names of the master, mate, and other persons on board, distinguishing the harpooners, and persons more immediately employed in the Fishery, and certify the same, with their observations thereon, and also the real tonnage of the ship; and the master and mate must make oath before the collector and comptroller, on the back of, or annexed to the licence (which is then to be delivered up) that they did in pursuance thereof (mentioning the day of their departure) proceed in a voyage directly to the places aforesaid, and have not since been on any other voyage, or pursued any other design or view of profit; and that they had there (mentioning the time of their stay) used their utmost endeavours to take whales, and other creatures living in those seas; and that all the whale-fins, oil and blubber, imported (if any) in such ship, was truly, and bona fide, taken in the said seas by the crew of such ship only. This schedule, certificate, licence, and oath, are to be transmitted to the respective commissioners for that part of Great Britain from whence the ship departed with her licence, who being fully satisfied of their faithful dealings, are, on demand, to cause payment to be made of the bounty, as above.

(g) Ships fitted out from any of his majesty's dominions in America, to be under the same regulations as those fitted out from Great-Britain, except that they are not to be more than two years old from the first building, which is to be inserted in the oath; and that the certificate is to be returned to the governor or naval-officer, who are to administer the oath, take the bond, and grant the licence.

(h) On the arrival of such ship in Great-Britain, the proper officers of the Customs are to proceed as directed for British ships; and the respective commissioners of the Customs, for that part of Great-Britain where she shall arrive, being satisfied of the faithful dealings of the master and others, with respect to the voyage, shall cause payment to be made of the bounty.

VIII. Bounty for encouragement of the British WHITE-HERRING FISHERY.

By 23 Geo. II. cap. 24. § 6. was granted to the Society of the Free British Fishery, for fourteen years, from the 11th of October 1750, the date of their charter.

And by { 28 Geo. II. cap. 14. § 4. was further continued for three years.
30 ———— 30.—1. further continued to 22 October 1767.
5 Geo. III. cap. 22.—1. further continued to 22 October 1771.

And is,

For every hundred pounds actually employed in the said Fishery ———— 3 l. per annum.

(a) To be paid to the proprietors of the stock out of the Customs, by the receiver-general of the Customs, by equal half yearly payments, provided the society shall employ 100,000 l. at least in the said Fishery, within eighteen months after the date of their subscription.

(b) In order to ascertain the sums from time to time actually expended and employed by the society in the said Fishery, the account thereof must be delivered to the commissioners of the Customs, signed by three at least of the council of the society, as an attestation that they have examined it, and believe it to be just, and attested by the oath of the accountant of the society at the foot of the account; upon which the commissioners are to order payment accordingly.

(c) The society are also to lay their accounts annually before parliament, and if loss should arise by one year's adventure, and there should be gain by succeeding years, the gain must be applied to make good the original stock of 100,000 l. before any dividend is made.

By 28 Geo. II. cap. 14. § 1, 2. this bounty is allowed to the society on the sum of 104,509 l. for two years, to 22 October 1752, and all future interest on that sum is to be computed from that day; and all future computations of interest on any additional sum paid in by the society, in order to be employed in the said Fishery, are to be made from the day on which each sum respectively is paid into the Bank of England.

(d) Any number of persons subscribing 10000 l. or upwards, into the stock of the said society, and carrying on the said Fishery under their own management, and on their own account, from the port named by them; conformably, nevertheless, to this Act and the charter (except as to being obliged to use the marks of the said society) and subscribing under the name of the Fishing Chamber of such city, port, or town; are entitled to the same bounty. But their account of expences, attested by three of their committee, signed by their accountant, and verified by his oath, and also the vouchers if required; is to be transmitted to the society in London, whose accountant is to enter it in their account, delivered to the commissioners of the Customs, as a sum expended in the said Fishery by the said society. The bounty is to be paid to the society in London, and by them paid over to the Fishing Chamber, after deducting the necessary charges of receiving it.

By 30 Geo. II. cap. 30 § 1. continued to 22 October 1767.

5 Geo. III. cap. 22. § 1. continued to 22 October 1771.

To be paid annually to the owners thereof out of the produce of the Customs, subject to the following regulations:

(a) Every such vessel must have on board twelve Winchester bushels of salt for every last of fish she is capable of holding, barrelled up in new barrels, and as many more new barrels as she can carry, and two fleets of tanned nets; viz. for a vessel of 70 tons, one fleet of 50 nets on board, each 30 yards upon the rope, and seven fathoms deep; and another fleet of 50 nets in a tender, or proper place on shore, each 30 yards upon the rope, and not under five fathoms deep, and so in proportion. And must have on board at the rendezvous six men for a vessel of 20 tons, and one man more for every five tons above 20; and must return into port with the same number, unless reduced by death, sickness, or desertion, without fraud or collusion.

(b) Before the proceeds on such voyage, she must be visited by the proper officer of the Customs, who is to examine if she is qualified as above, and take account of her tonnage by admeasurement, and certify the same to the commissioners of the Customs, and whether she is a proper vessel to be employed in the Fishery. And farther, upon one of the owners, or their agent, or a proper officer or agent of the society, and the master of the vessel, making oath at the foot of the certificate, before the collector and comptroller of the port, that it is their firm purpose, and determined resolution, that the vessel shall proceed, so manned, furnished, and accounted, either to Brasse's sound in Shetland, and be at the rendezvous on or before the 22d of June, and not shoot or wet their nets before the 24th of June, and shall continue fishing among the shoals of herrings as they move southward, unless prevented by loss of masts, or other unavoidable accidents, to the 12th of October; or shall proceed to Campbell-town in Argyleshire, or Kirkwall in the Orkney islands, and be at the rendezvous on, or before the 12th of September, and continue fishing among the shoals of herrings as they move, to the 11th day of January, unless they shall sooner have completed their loading [1], and fish in an orderly manner, without obstructing others; and shall keep a journal of their proceedings, and an account of the quantities of fish dispatched to foreign markets before they come into port, and

X. Bounty on BRITISH and IRISH LINENS exported.

By 29 Geo. II. cap. 15. § 1. was granted from 24 June 1756 for fifteen years, and from thence to the end of the then next session of parliament.

(a) For every yard of BRITISH and IRISH LINEN made of hemp or flax, of the } ^{Bounty.} 0 0 0½ breadth of 25 inches or more, and under the value of 5 d. per yard ————— }
Of the value of 5 d. and under the value of 6 d. per yard ————— 0 0 1
Of the value of 6 d. and not exceeding the value of 1 s. 6 d. per yard ————— 0 0 1½ which shall be exported out of Great-Britain to Africa, America, Spain, Portugal, Gibraltar, the island of Minorca, or the East-Indies.

(a) To be paid to the exporter, or seller for exportation, by the collector of the port from whence the same shall be exported, out of any monies in his hands arising from any duties, revenues, and customs received at such port.

(b) But not to extend to any Linens that are striped or checkquered, or printed or painted, or made into Buckrams or Tilletings; nor to any Irish linen, unless of the property of persons residing in Great-Britain, or in his majesty's plantations in America; nor to such Irish linen, whereof the piece or bolt contains 38 yards in length, and 24 inches in breadth, and cloths of different lengths and breadths in proportion, from N^o 1. to N^o 10. inclusive, weighing from 15 to 44 pounds, as described in the Act of 9 Geo. II. cap. 37.

(c) Collectors in the out-ports of South-Britain, and in any port of North-Britain, not having money sufficient in their hands to pay such bounties, are to certify the same to the commissioners of the Customs at London and Edinburgh respectively; who shall cause payment thereof to be made by the respective receiver-general; and if the receiver-general of Edinburgh hath not money sufficient in his hands, the commissioners at Edinburgh, or any three of them, shall certify the same to the commissioners in London, who are to cause payment thereof to be made by the receiver-general there.

(d) The exporter, or seller for exportation, shall express in his entry, and indorse on the cocket, the quantity and value of such Linen, and produce a certificate from the searcher, verifying the shipping thereof, and likewise give security in double the value of the goods, and 100 l. not to reland them in Great-Britain, Ireland, or Isle of Man; and shall also make oath of the value of such Linens, and that the same were made in Great-Britain or Ireland, and (if in Ireland) that at the time of exportation they were the property of a person or persons residing in Great-Britain, or in some of his majesty's plantations in America.

(e) After entry of any Linens, as being intitled to this bounty, the searcher, or other proper officer, may open and examine any package, to see if the goods are rightly entered and indorsed; and if they are so, he must repack them at his own charge, which shall be allowed to the officer by the commissioners of the Customs, if they think it reasonable.

(f) If any Linen, so to be exported for the bounty, shall be of greater value than 18 d. per yard, the exporter, or seller thereof for exportation (on demand in writing made by the collector or collector and comptroller of the port of exportation) shall cause it to be delivered into the King's warehouse; and the collector shall pay to the exporter, &c. (out of any money in his hands) the value of 1 s. 7 d. per yard, taking his receipt for the same; and such Linen to be publickly sold, and out of the produce thereof the money to be replaced to such funds from which it was borrowed, and one moiety of the overplus, if any, to be paid into the Exchequer to the Sinking Fund, the other to the officer who searched and examined the Linen.

(g) If the exporter of such Linen, so demanded, refuses to cause the same to be delivered up; and if any such Linen, entered for exportation, of the value of 6 d. per yard, and not exceeding 18 d. per yard, shall be found to be under the value of 6 d. per yard; or entered for exportation at the value of 5 d. per yard, and not amounting to the value of 6 d. per yard, be found to be under the value of 5 d. per yard; or of such Linen as shall be less in quantity than is indorsed on the cocket, or shall be found to be under the breadth of 25 inches, or entered and indorsed under a wrong denomination, whereby the bounty may be fraudulently received; all such Linen, and also all the goods in every package, indorsed on such cocket, shall be forfeited, and the exporter to lose the benefit of the bounty.

(h) Any such Linen, for which the bounty has been given or claimed, relanded in Great-Britain, Ireland, or the Isle of Man, is forfeited, and every person concerned in bringing back, or relanding it, forfeits one shilling per yard.

(i) Bonds taken, or debentures made, pursuant to this Act, are not chargeable with the Stamp duties.

(k) Any person, legally convicted of falsely making any oath required by this Act, is to forfeit 200 l. and be imprisoned for twelve months.

(l) In case of any question, whether the Linens are of the manufacture of Great-Britain or Ireland, the onus probandi is to lie upon the exporter or seller for exportation.

XI. Premium or Bounty on British plantation-made INDICO imported.

By 21 Geo. II. cap. 30. § 1, 6, 8. was granted for seven years, from 25 March 1749.

28 ——— 25. — 1. further continued to 25 March 1763.

3 Geo. III. cap. 25. — 1, 2. further continued to 25 March 1770.

And from thence to the end of the then next session of parliament.

And is

For every pound weight of good and merchantable INDICO, free from any false mixture, and fit for dyers use, imported directly from any of the British colonies or plantations in America, in a ship which may lawfully trade thither, manned as by law required, and being of the growth or product of the plantation from whence imported, and being worth 3 s. per pound weight, when the best French, or other Indico equal with the best French, is 4 s. per pound weight, and so in proportion—

To be paid upon demand to the importer by the collector of the port of importation, out of the Customs; but if he has not money sufficient in his hands, he must certify the same to the commissioners of the Customs, who are to cause it to be paid by the receiver-general of the Customs in England or Scotland respectively; according to the place of importation.

(a) But to intitle the importer to this premium, the person who ships the Indico in America must, before the ship is cleared out, produce to the governor, lieutenant-governor, collector and comptroller of the Customs, and naval-officer of the colony, or any two of them, a certificate signed and sworn before a justice of the peace by the planter, or his known agent, and attested by the justice, "that a quantity of Indico, expressing the weight thereof, had been sent from his Indico work to be shipped off, or was sold to the person therein named, and was of the growth of his plantation situate in the district, division, or parish of———, within the island or colony of———;" and also sign a certificate himself before the said officers, "that the Indico shipped by him is the same mentioned in the planter's certificate;" upon which they are to deliver to him a certificate, under their hands and seal of office, of "having received such certificate, and that at the same time the planter's certificate was produced and left with them." This last certificate must be produced to the chief officer of the Customs at the port of importation, together with a certificate from the commander of the vessel importing the Indico, "that the same was shipped on board his vessel, within such British colony in America, as mentioned in the said certificate;" and also a certificate signed by the surveyor, landwaiters or searchers of the Customs of the port where landed, or any two of them, specifying "the weight, and that it is good and merchantable, free from false mixture, and of such quality as to be intitled to the premium;" which certificate they must grant within ten days after landing, unless they can assign sufficient cause for refusal. Upon producing the several certificates to the proper officer, the premium is to be paid.

(b) The officers of the Customs before making out the certificates are to examine the Indico, by opening the package, and shifting it so as to see the whole contents, and if it is good and merchantable, and free from false mixture, and of the value required.

(c) In case of any dispute about the quality of the Indico, if in the port of London, the commissioners of the Customs may call two or more dyers, dry-falters, or brokers, or others well skilled in it, who are to declare upon oath, if required, their opinion as to the quality, and whether it is intitled to the premium; if in the out-ports, samples are to be sent up to the commissioners of the Customs in London or Edinburgh respectively, to be inspected and adjudged there.

(d) No fee, gratuity, or reward, to be taken by any officer of the Customs for examining, viewing, or delivering such Indico, or for signing any certificate, or paying the premium, on forfeiture of 100 l. loss of office, and being incapable of serving his majesty.

(e) Certificates and debentures made out in pursuance of this Act, are not chargeable with the Stamp duties.

(f) No person may enter, or cause to be entered, any foreign-made Indico, under the name of British plantation-made Indico, on forfeiture thereof; or mix, or cause to be mixed, any foreign Indico, or other false mixture, with that made in the British plantations, in order to obtain the premium, on forfeiture of the whole, and double the value thereof.

(g) Any governor, lieutenant governor, collector and comptroller of the Customs, naval-officer, merchant, trader, or factor, or master, or commander of a ship, or any other person,

XIV. Allowance on damaged, corrupt, or unmerchantable WINES imported.

(a) If any merchant, finding his Wine on importation to be damaged, corrupt, or unmerchantable, shall refuse to pay or secure the duties for the same; the commissioners of the Customs may cause such Wines to be received into the custody of the proper officers, and to be publicly sold, in order to be distilled into Brandy, or made into Vinegar, taking sufficient security that they be not made use of for any other purpose whatsoever; and shall cause the produce of such sale to be paid to the merchant, as a compensation for the freight, and other charges, not exceeding the allowances following:

For every { of the growth of Germany, or which pay duty as such ————— 4 0 0 ton of { of the growth of France ————— 4 0 0
WINE { of the growth of Spain, Portugal, or elsewhere ————— 8 0 0

The security to be discharged, on a proper certificate that the Wines have been so made use of within three months after delivery out of the warehouse.

The overplus, if any, to be replaced to the duties, out of which the warehouse rent, and other charges attending the sale, have been advanced.

(b) But no allowance to be made for any Wines, unless imported in casks, on board a merchant ship, directly from the place of the growth, or the usual place of first shipping.

(c) Except as to ships stranded; in which case, the Wines salvaged may be put on board port,

port, verified by the searcher, as to the quantity actually shipped, and that the same is good and merchantable; and the oath of the exporter, or agent, being first taken before the principal officers of the port, before the debenture is allowed (if exported from England, Wales, or the town of Berwick upon Tweed) "that the Beef or Pork mentioned in the debenture, was salted with salt for which the duties have been paid; and not drawn back, and that the same is really exported to parts beyond the seas for sale, and that any part thereof was not spent; or intended to be spent for the ship's use, nor relanded; or intended to be relanded;" if exported from Scotland, "that the Flesh mentioned in the debenture, is really exported to parts beyond the seas for sale; and not intended to be relanded in Great-Britain, and was duly cured only with foreign salt, without any mixture of British or Irish salt, and that the duties for such imported salt have been duly paid or secured."

(c) Relanded, is forfeited, and 40 s. for every barrel, to be recovered of the importer or proprietor.

FISH, exported from any part of Great-Britain to foreign parts, are intitled to the following allowances, viz.

PILCHARDS, or SCADS, the cask, containing 50 gallons	o	7	o
CODFISH, { If 14 inches or upwards in length, from the bone in the fin to the third joint in the tail, the hundred	o	5	o
LING, or HAKE— { Wet, the barrel, containing 32 gallons	o	2	o
{ Dried, called HABERDINES, the hundred weight	o	3	o
SALMON, the barrel, containing 42 gallons	o	4	6
WHITE HERRINGS, the barrel, containing 32 gallons	o	2	8
FULL RED HERRINGS, the barrel, containing 32 gallons	o	1	9
CLEAN SHOTTEN RED HERRINGS, the barrel, containing 32 gallons	o	1	o
DRIED RED SPRATS, the last	o	1	o

By 29 Geo. II. cap. 23. § 5. these bounties were extended to Fish cured in Scotland with British or foreign salt, which by the Act of Union were limited to Fish cured (in Scotland) with foreign salt only.

(d) To be paid by the collector of the duties upon Salt, in the port of exportation; within thirty days after demand, on a debenture to be prepared by the collector of the Customs in the port of exportation, and verified by the searcher, as to the quantity actually shipped; and the oath of the exporter, or agent, being first taken before the principal officers of the port, before the debenture is allowed, "that the Fish mentioned in the debenture were British, taken and really exported to, or for parts beyond the seas, and not relanded, or intended to be relanded in Great-Britain."

(e) If the said collector (in England) has not sufficient money in his hands to pay the said debentures on Flesh or Fish exported, he is to give without delay a certificate thereof to the commissioners for the Excise upon Salt in England, who shall be chargeable with the payment, to be paid in course out of the first money arising out of the duties upon salt; and if in Scotland, to the commissioners of the Customs or Excise in Scotland, at the option of the merchant, who are to cause it to be paid in course out of the duties upon salt in Scotland, or out of the revenues of Customs or Excise there.

(f) The herring barrel is to contain 32 gallons, and the salmon barrel 42 gallons; and Herrings or Salmon exported in barrels of any other size (except half barrels) are not entitled to the bounty.

(g) No allowance to be paid on Flesh or Fish not well cured or unmerchantable.

(h) Such Fish fraudulently relanded in Great-Britain, or reimported, is forfeited, and double the value, to be recovered of the importer or proprietor.

(i) No fee to be taken for a debenture or certificate, or for payment of the money.

(j) Any officer refusing or neglecting to pay the money, or give a certificate as above, forfeits double the sum to the party grieved.

(k) Herring, Salmon, Cod, Ling, Tusk, or other white fish, brought coastwise from Scotland into England for re-exportation after the 25th of June 1756, are upon exportation intitled to the bounties abovementioned, subject to the same regulations, in order to prevent the relanding, or reimporting thereof, and the owners are subject to the same penalties for relanding, or other fraudulent proceedings, in order to obtain the bounty, as in case of Fish cured in, and exported from England.—This allowance is not to be paid in England, but the chief officer of the Customs, or his deputy, at the port of exportation, upon request of the exporter, and oath made before the principal officers of the port, "of the shipping of the Fish, and its not being relanded, or intended to be relanded in Great-Britain," is to give a debenture under his hand, without fee, for payment of the allowance, which being produced to the commissioners of the Customs or Excise in Scotland (at the option of the exporter or his assigns) they are to pay the bounties out of any money in their hands, arising by any branch of the Customs or Excise, regard being had to the priority of the dates of the debentures.

XVII. Premium on NAVAL STORES imported.

I. From the British plantations in America.

By 2 Geo. II. cap. 35. § 3, 18. was granted from 29 September 1729, to 29 September 1742.

13 ——— 28.—1. continued to 25 December 1750.

24 ——— 52.—1. continued to 25 December 1751.

25 ——— 35.—2. continued to 25 March 1758.

32 ——— 23.—3. continued to 24 June 1766.

And from thence to the end of the then next session of parliament.

(a) Imported directly from any of the British plantations in America, in ships legally navigated, and that by law may trade thither—

MASTS, YARDS, and BOWSPRITS, the ton, allowing 40 feet to each ton, girt measure, according to the customary way of measuring round bodies ——— } 1 0 0

Clean, good, merchantable, well-conditioned, clear of dross or water, and fit in every respect for making of cordage, the ton, containing eight barrels, and each barrel to gauge $3\frac{1}{2}$ gallons, to be well hooped and filled up ——— } 2 4 0

TAR Clean, good, merchantable, well-conditioned, clear of dross or water, and fit in every respect for making of cordage, made from trees prepared according to the directions hereafter mentioned, the ton, containing eight barrels, and each barrel to gauge $3\frac{1}{2}$ gallons, to be well hooped and filled up on the importation thereof ——— } 4 0 0

(b) But no premium is to be paid on any Tar, unless each barrel contains $3\frac{1}{2}$ gallons, and the officers not to survey the Tar till the water is all drawn off, and every barrel filled up with Tar.

PITCH, clean, good, merchantable, and well-conditioned, not mixed with dirt or dross the ton, containing 20 gross hundreds, neat Pitch, to be brought in eight barrels of equal size ——— } 1 0 0

TURPENTINE, clean, good, and merchantable, clear of dross and water, the ton, containing 20 gross hundreds, neat Turpentine, to be brought in eight barrels of equal size ——— } 1 10 0

(c) Which premiums are to be paid by the commissioners of the Navy, by bills to be made out for the same, and delivered to the importers within twenty days after the discharge or unlading of the ship, in order to be paid in course, upon certificate of the respective chief officers of the Customs where imported; to whom a certificate has been produced, under the hands and seals of the governor, lieutenant-governor, or collector of his majesty's Customs, and naval-officer, or any two of them, residing within any of his majesty's said plantations, testifying, that before the departure of the ship, the person lading the same had made oath before them, that the said Stores were truly, and bona fide, of the growth and produce of his majesty's said plantations: and with respect to the high bounty on Tar, expressing, that it has appeared to them, the persons so certifying, by the oath of the owner or maker of the Tar for which such certificate was granted, that the Tar herein mentioned was made from green trees, prepared for that purpose after the following manner; that is to say, that when such trees were fit to bark, the bark thereof was stripped eight feet, or thereabouts, up from the root of each tree, a slip of the bark of about four inches in breadth having been left on one side of each tree; and that each tree, after having been so barked, had stood during one year at the least, and was not before cut down for the making of Tar; and that the said Tar was made without mixture of any other Tar therewith; as likewise upon oath to be made by the master of the ship, at any port in Great-Britain, that the same were shipped within some of his majesty's plantations in America, and that he knows, or believes, that the said Stores were the produce of the said plantations.

(d) But the afore said certificates of the chief officers of the Customs are not to be made out for the premium on Pitch, until the same be freed from dirt or dross, nor for any Tar that is not fitting to be used for making of cordage, and shall not be freed from dross and water, and unless such Pitch and Tar be clean, good, merchantable, and well-conditioned.

(e) And the said officers of the Customs, before they make out such certificates, are to examine the Pitch, by opening the heads of the barrels, sawing of the staves in the middle, and breaking the barrels, or by such other means as they shall think proper, to discover whether the said Pitch is good and merchantable, not mixt with dirt or dross; and also to examine and search the said Tar, to discover whether the same is clean, good, merchantable, well-conditioned, and clear of dross or water, and fit for making of cordage.

II. From North-Britain, commonly called Scotland.

By 2 Geo. II. cap. 35. § 13. was granted from 29 September 1729, to 29 September 1742.

Imported

Imported from North-Britain to any part of South-Britain. { TREES of twelve inches diameter and upwards, fit for MASTS, YARDS, or BOWSPRITS, regularly converted, and hewed at least into eight squares, sound, fresh, and in good and merchantable condition, the ton, allowing forty feet to each ton, girt measure, according to the customary way of measuring round bodies } I O O

(f) Which premiums are to be paid by the commissioners of the Navy, by bills to be made out for the same, and delivered to the importers within twenty days after the discharge or unlading of the ship, in order to be paid in course; upon certificates of the respective chief officers of the Customs where imported, to whom a certificate has been produced, under the hands and seals of the comptroller and collector of the Customs, and the naval-officer, or any two of them, residing at the port or ports of exportation in North-Britain, testifying, that before the departure of the ship, the persons concerned, or employed (or any two of them) in cutting down the aforesaid Trees, had made affidavit in writing, before such comptroller and collector, and naval-officer, or any two of them, that such Trees were truly and bona fide of the growth and produce of North-Britain; and specifying in the said affidavit, the particular number, quantity, and qualities of the Trees, together with the time when they were cut down, the names of the proprietors, and the places where the same did grow; as likewise upon oath to be made by the master of the ship, at the port of importation in South-Britain, that the same were truly laden within North-Britain, and that he knows, or believes that the said Trees were of the growth of North-Britain.

(g) Persons counterfeiting, or making false affidavits, or certificates, of the growth of the Trees, in order to obtain the premium, are to suffer as for wilful and corrupt perjury, and to forfeit 100 l.

(h) Collector, comptroller, or naval-officer, making false certificates, shall incur such penalties as are directed for like offences by the Act (13 and 14 Car. II. cap. 11.) for preventing frauds, and regulating abuses in his majesty's Customs.

(i) Masters or owners of ships knowingly importing foreign Trees fit for masts, &c. as of the product of North-Britain, in order to obtain the bounty, are to forfeit 100 l. together with the ship and furniture.

From the British plantations and Scotland.

(k) Upon the landing of the aforesaid Stores and Trees, the pre-emption or refusal must be offered and tendered to the commissioners of the Navy; and if within twenty days after such tender, they shall not contract for the same, the importers may otherwise dispose of them.

(l) No fee, gratuity, or reward, may be demanded or taken by the officers of the Customs, for the examining, viewing, or delivering any of the aforesaid Naval stores, or for making or signing certificates, in order to receive the premium, upon forfeiture of office and 100 l. and to be rendered incapable of serving his majesty.

(m) And if any of the aforesaid Naval stores, or Trees, shall be again exported, the exporter must, before entry thereof, produce to the collector, &c. of the Customs, at the port of exportation, XVIII. Premium on HEMP, and ROUGH and UNDRESSED FLAX imported.

By 4 Geo. III. cap. 26. § 1, 2, 3, 4, 16. was granted from and after the 24 June 1764, for 21 years.

(a) Imported directly from any of the English plantations in America, in ships legally navigated, and that by law may trade thither —	For every ton of Hemp water-rotted, bright and clean, or rough, or undressed Flax, imported from the 24 June 1764 to the 24 June 1771	l. s. d.
	For every ton of such Hemp or Flax, so imported from 24 June 1771 to 24 June 1778	6 0 0
	For every ton of such Hemp or Flax, so imported from 24 June 1778 to 24 June 1785	4 0 0

(a) To be paid on demand to the importer, by the collector at the port of importation, out of the Customs, on a certificate being produced to him, under the hands and seals of the governor, lieutenant-governor, or collector of his majesty's Customs, and naval-officer, or any two of them, residing within any of his majesty's said colonies or plantations, testifying, that before the departure of the ship, the person lading the same had made oath before them, that the said Hemp or Flax so shipped on board (expressing in the said certificate the number, marks and packages of such Hemp or Flax) were truly, and bona fide of the growth and produce of his majesty's said plantations, and the master of the ship making oath, that the said Hemp and Flax were truly shipped within some of his majesty's plantations in America, and that he knows, or believes the said Hemp and Flax were the produce of the said plantations.—If the collector has not money in his hands to pay the premium, he is to certify the same to the commissioners of the Customs, who are to cause the same to be paid by the receiver-general of the Customs in England or Scotland respectively, where the Hemp or Flax was imported.

(b) Officers of the Customs, before making out the certificate for obtaining the premium, are to examine the Hemp or Flax, by opening each package, and shifting the same in such a manner as to see the whole contents, or by any other means they think proper, to discover whether the said Hemp is water-rotted, bright and clean, and the said Flax good and merchantable, and free from any false mixture.

(c) Upon the landing of the aforesaid Hemp or Flax, the pre-emption or refusal must be offered and tendered to the commissioners of the Navy; and if within twenty days after such tender they shall not contract for the same, the importers may otherwise dispose of them.

(d) If any doubts should arise as to the quality of the Hemp or Flax, the commissioners of the Customs, if imported into London, may call two or more merchants, or others well skilled in the commodity, who are to declare upon oath, if required, their opinion as to the quality, and whether or not intitled to the premium: if in the out-ports, samples are to be sent up to the commissioners of the Customs in London or Edinburgh respectively, to be inspected and adjudged there.

(e) No fee, gratuity or reward may be demanded or taken by the officers of the Customs, for the examining, viewing, or delivering the Hemp or Flax, or for making or signing certificates in order to receive the premium, upon forfeiture of office and 100 l. and to be rendered incapable of serving his majesty.

(f) Masters or owners of ships knowingly importing foreign Hemp, Flax, &c. as of the product of the plantations, in order to obtain the premium, are to forfeit 100 l. together with the ship and furniture.

(g) And if any of the aforesaid Hemp or Flax shall be again exported, the exporter must, before entry thereof, repay to the collector of the Customs at the port where exported, the full Premium on DEALS, PLANKS, BOARDS and TIMBER imported.

By 5 Geo. III. cap. 45. § 1, 2, 3, 4, 5. was granted for the respective periods therein mentioned, the following bounties, viz.

Imported directly from any of the British plantations in North-America, in ships legally navigated, and that by law may trade thither.	For every hundred of good, sound, and merchantable Deals, Planks, and Boards, at sixscore to the hundred, not less than ten feet long, ten inches broad, and fourteen inches thick, and so proportionally for any greater length and thickness not exceeding four inches, imported into Great-Britain, from 1 January 1766 to 1 January 1769	Bounty.
	For every hundred of such Deals, Planks, and Boards, &c. imported from 1 January 1769 to 1 January 1772	1 0 0
	For every hundred of such Deals, Planks, and Boards, &c. imported from 1 January 1772 to 1 January 1775	0 15 0
	For every hundred of such Deals, Planks, and Boards, &c. imported from 1 January 1775	0 10 0
	For every load of good, sound, merchantable, squared Timber, containing fifty cubic feet, imported into Great-Britain, from 1 January 1766 to 1 January 1769	0 12 0
	For every load of such squared Timber imported from 1 January 1769 to 1 January 1772	0 8 0
	For every load of such squared Timber, imported from 1 January 1772 to 1 January 1775	0 5 0

(a) To be paid upon demand to the importer, by the collector at the port of importation out of the Customs, or out of any duties payable upon Wood imported, on a certificate being produced to him, under the hand and seal of the governor, lieutenant-governor, collector, and naval-officer, or any two of them residing within any of his majesty's dominions in North-America, testifying, that before the departure of the ship, the person lading the same had made oath before them, that the said goods so shipped on board (expressing in the certificate the number, quantity, and species of each sort) were truly and bona fide of the growth and produce of his majesty's said dominions; also oath to be made by the master of the ship, on his arrival in Great-Britain, that the goods were truly laden on board within some of his majesty's dominions in North-America, and that he knows, or believes they were the produce of the said dominions.—If the collector has not sufficient money in his hands to pay the premium, he is to certify the same to the commissioners of the Customs, who are to cause it to be paid by the receiver-general of the Customs in England or Scotland respectively, according as the goods shall be imported.

(b) Officers of the Customs, before making out the certificate for obtaining the premium, may examine the goods by shifting the same, or by such other means as they shall think proper, to discover whether they are good, sound and merchantable.

(c) If any doubts should arise as to the quality and condition of the aforesaid goods; if imported into London, the commissioners of the Customs may call two or more merchants, or others well skilled in the commodity, who shall declare upon oath, if required, their opinion as to the quality and condition, and determine whether they are entitled to the bounty; if imported into the out-ports of England or Scotland respectively, proper and true descriptions of the quality and condition of the goods, attested upon oath before one or more justices of peace, by two merchants, or others well skilled in the commodity at the port of importation, shall be sent to the commissioners of the Customs in London or Edinburgh respectively, according as they shall direct, in order to determine whether the same are entitled to the premiums.

(d) Any master of a ship who shall clandestinely import into Great-Britain any Deals, Boards, Planks, or Timber, as of foreign growth and product, and shall demand or receive for such foreign Deals, Boards, &c. the premium, shall forfeit the sum of 100 l. together with the ship and furniture.

(e) No officer may demand any fee or gratuity for examining, viewing, or delivering such goods, or with respect to making out the certificates for receiving the premium, without forfeiting his office, and being incapable of serving his majesty.

(f) If any of the aforesaid Deals, Boards, Planks, or Timber shall be again exported, the exporter, before entry thereof, shall pay unto the collector at the port of exportation, the full sum formerly obtained as a premium, which the collector is to charge himself with.

(g) Persons exporting any of the aforesaid goods, without repaying to the collector the premium first obtained, shall forfeit and lose the goods, and double the value.

(h) If any doubt should arise, whether any of the goods, or part thereof, so exported, are of the growth or product of his majesty's dominions in North-America, or foreign, the onus probandi to lie on the owner or claimer.

(i) Penalties and forfeitures by this Act incurred, may be prosecuted in any of his majesty's courts of record at Westminster, or in the court of Exchequer in Scotland, and to be divided, one moiety to his majesty, his heirs and successors, and the other to the officer who shall sue for the same.

Total duty		0 3 4

(c) Which duties have been since revived and continued for ever.

(d) The above duties to be paid by the maker thereof, for Rock-salt, within twelve months, and for all other Salt, within nine months, after true entries made of the respective times of making such Salt, or taking it out of the pits, on sufficient security given; but if he chuses to pay ready money, he shall have a discount thereon, after the rate of ten per cent. per annum (e); and if paid within 28 days after security given, to be allowed a discount, after the rate of ten per cent. per annum, for the remaining time.

(f) On exportation, the officer of the place, where such Salt was made or taken out of the pits, shall deliver to the exporter a certificate, under his hand and seal, that the duties have been paid or secured; on producing this certificate to the officer of the Customs where the said Salt is to be shipped off, he is to grant a debenture, the exporter making oath of the shipping of the Salt, and of its not being reloaded in England or Wales; which debenture being produced to the officer of the place where the duties have been paid or secured, Then these duties are to be wholly repaid, or the security vacated.

(g) Shipped for Ireland, no debenture to be granted till there is produced a certificate of the quantity landed, under the hand of the collector of the Customs of such port in Ireland where the said Salt is landed.

CONTAINING
A PLAN for securing the Usefulness of the preceeding Parts of the Book :

A L S O,

Such ALTERATIONS, made by the Acts of 5 Geo. III. in regard to the Duties of Customs, as could not be inserted in their proper Places.

PRevious to describing any rules, or laying down any methods for accomplishing so necessary a point, it must be observed, that no rules or methods can well extend to any scheme of duties, except those which are entirely constructed upon the principles of Tonnage and Poundage, all others being of a mixed or uncertain nature, and consequently to attempt the making any provision for them would be a fruitless undertaking.

S C H E M E.

The principles of Tonnage and Poundage, if the alterations introduced into the Old Subsidy by several acts of parliament on Corn when imported under the regulations of the Tillage act, Whale Fins, &c. are excluded, bear reference to the duties which are payable on the greatest number of goods inserted in the Book of Rates, and therefore the intended plan will be confined to these principles.

TONNAGE.

Whatever New Duty may hereafter be granted under this head must be supposed to be equal in all respects with the New Duties of 1745 and 1763, and the same indulgence granted in favour of the colonies with respect to the drawback of the duty of 1763, must also be supposed to extend to this.—
On this supposition the scheme subjoined may answer the feveral purposes.

The manner of using the scheme, and the usefulness thereof, will appear by the following examples.

EXAMPLE

E X A M P L E I.

Suppose 20 Tons, 3 qrs. 27 gall. of Red French Wine unfilled for sale, imported into an out port and from a place of growth.—On recourse to page 446, the duties at present payable on this species of wine, and circumstance of importation, are easily found; and on searching for this quantity in the foregoing scheme, the supposed New Duty to be added to the present ones will appear, regard being had to the proper columns.

E X A M P L E II.

Suppose 15 Tons, 1 qr. 30 gall. of Levant Wines in flasks or bottles, imported into the port of London, in a ship unqualified, and filled up for sale.—The duties at present payable on this species of wine, and circumstance of importation, will appear at page 441, and by having recourse to the above scheme, the supposed New Duty on the above quantity of Levant wines is easily found.

E X A M P L E III.

Suppose an importation of 3 Tons, 32 gall. of Vinegar not French, unfilled for sale, and imported into any port.—On consulting page 470, the present duties arising to the crown in this case will easily appear; and by looking into the foregoing scheme the amount of the supposed New Duty on this quantity of Vinegar is clearly seen.

TABLE of 5 per Cent.

It being apprehended, that the foregoing examples are sufficient for pointing out the manner of finding the supposed Tonnage Duties, the scheme for Poundage Duties occurs next.

POUNDAGE.

Any New Duty that may hereafter be granted under this head, must also be supposed to be constructed after the same manner as the Subsidies of 1747 and 1759.—Agreeably to this supposition the Table of 5 per Cent. is calculated for answering all the various purposes that can arise.

Though the Subsidy of 1747 is extended to all goods liable to the duties of Poundage, and the Subsidy of 1759 only to some particular species of merchandize, yet the table subjoined will be equally serviceable on the grant of any New Poundage Duty, whether the extension should be partial or universal.—The following examples will explain the manner of using the Table.

E X A M P L E I.

Suppose 520 Cwt. 3 qrs. of Brown and Muscovado Sugar, imported from the British plantations.—This species of goods is rated at 1 l. 10 s. per Cwt. which makes the gross Old Subsidy to amount to 781 l. 2 s. 6 d.—Look for this sum in the column of Rates, where where you will find 500 l. 100 l. which must be doubled, 50 l. 20 l. 1 l. and 2 s. 6 d.—Opposite to these several sums, in the 5 per cent. column, are the sums wanted, making 39 l. 1 s. 1½ d. which sum being added to the present duties payable on Muscovado Sugar, described at page 220, shows what would arise to the crown supposing a New Poundage Duty.

E X A M P L E. II.

Suppose an importation of 15 Tons of Spanish Brandy, by British and in British ships.—This species of Goods is rated at 15 l. per Ton, so that the gross Old Subsidy due thereon, will be 225 l.—To make up this sum from the table, double the 100 l. and add thereto 20 l. and 5 l. and opposite to those respective sums is the 5 per cent. wanted, making 11 l. 5 s. which is the supposed New Poundage Duty.

E X A M P L E. III.

Suppose 500 pieces of Barbers Aprons or Checks, each piece not above 10 yards, imported by British and in a British ship.—This species of goods is rated at 13 s. 4 d. the piece, which makes the gross Old Subsidy to be 333 l. 6 s. 8 d.—This sum may be taken from the table almost by inspection, and the 5 per cent. will be 16 l. 13 s. 4 d. which, supposing the grant of a New Poundage Duty, is to be added to the other duties described at page 84.

NEW ADDITIONAL DUTY on COALS exported.

GOLOCHES, or CORKS, vide Woollen caps.

GOODS inwards—Brought from beyond the seas, may not be taken 1 up, or laid on land, out of any vessel, lighter, or boat, being not in leak or wreck (except Fish taken by British, Bestials, and Salt) but at lawful hours, and only upon such open places, keys, or wharfs, as shall be appointed by his majesty's commission out of the court of Exchequer, without special sufferance and leave from the officers of the Customs, upon forfeiture thereof, or the value, and 100 l. by the master: offenders not revealing their offence within one month, are to forfeit 100 l.

2—Imported into the port of London, may be unladen or landed at any of the lawful keys between the Tower of London and London- bridge, and between sun-rising and sun-setting, from the 10th day of September to the 10th day of March, and between the hours of six of the clock in the morning and six in the evening, from the 10th day of March to the 10th day of September, giving notice to the proper officers: officers refusing to be present, to forfeit for every default 5 l. Rule 13. in compart. 2. chap. 3.

3—Imported into other ports, may not be taken up, discharged, and laid on land, out of any ship, lighter, &c. being not in a leak or wreck, except Fish taken by British, and Salt, but only in the day-light, that is, from the 1st of March to the 30th of September, betwixt sun-rising and sun-setting, and from the 30th of September to the 1st of March, between the hours of seven in the morning and four in the afternoon

4—Wharfingers, or their servants, landing, or knowingly suffering to be landed, any goods or merchandizes, prohibited or uncustomed, without the presence of a proper officer, or at unlawful hours (except in the port of Hull) are to forfeit 100 l.

5—Of the growth, production, or manufacture of Muscovy or Rus- sia, or of any of the dominions of the emperor thereof, all Masts, Timber, Boards, Salt, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Hemp, Flax, Raisins, Figs, Prunes, Olive oil, Corn or Grain, Sugar, Pot-ashes, Wine, Vinegar, Aqua vitæ or Brandy, must be imported only in ships belonging to Great-Britain or Ireland; and Currants, and all goods of the growth, product, or manufacture of Turkey in ships British-built; except such ships as are of the built of the country whereof the said goods are the growth, production, or manufacture, or of such port where the said goods can only, or most usually are first shipped for transportation; on forfeiture of ship and goods

—But during the present war with France, this is not to extend to prevent any person importing the said goods in shipping built in Great-Britain, Ireland, Guernsey, Jersey, or any of the lands, islands, dominions, or territories belonging to his majesty in Asia, Africa, or America, provided the master and three-fourths of the mariners are British, or of the country of which the said goods are the growth, production, or manufacture: but if such ships are the property of foreigners, altho' British built, the goods are to pay aliens, and all other duties, in the same manner as if they were foreign built

6—Of the growth, production, or manufacture of Asia, Africa, or America, may be imported only in British ships legally manned, or in ships belonging to his majesty's plantations there, on forfeiture of ship and goods

7—Of foreign growth, production, or manufacture (that is, of A- sia, Africa, and America only, and not of Europe) may be shipped, and brought from no other country, but that of their growth, production, or manufacture, or from such ports where those goods can only, or have most usually been first shipped for transportation; and in British ships, or plantation shipping legally navigated; on forfeiture of ship and goods

8—But not to extend to goods of the Streights and Levant Seas, and East-India goods, which may be brought from the usual places of lading, in British ships duly manned, though without benefit of clergy in England , or convicted of a capital crime in Scotland , and execution may be awarded accordingly

76	GOODS inwards—If any person, ordered to surrender as above, should be taken and secured before the time appointed for his surrender, no further proceedings are to be had upon the order made in council, but he is to be brought to trial by the ordinary course of law	19 Geo. II. 26 Geo. II.	34 32	4 1
77	Persons knowingly harbouring, receiving, concealing, aiding, abetting, or succouring any offender as above, after the time appointed for his surrender (and prosecuted within one year after the offence) are to be transported as felons for seven years; and returning into Great-Britain or Ireland before the expiration thereof, to suffer as persons attainted of felony, without benefit of clergy	19 Geo. II. 26 Geo. II.	34 32	3 1
78	But his majesty's court of King's Bench; or any of the judges thereof, or the court of Justiciary in Scotland , or any of the judges thereof, may bail any person committed for felony upon this Act, and not convicted or attainted thereof, in such manner as they may by law in other cases of felony	19 Geo. II. 26 Geo. II.	34 32	12 1
79	Offences made felony by any Act relating to the revenue of Customs or Excise, may be tried in any county of England , as if the fact had been committed therein; provided that no attainder for felony upon this Act shall work corruption of blood, loss of dower, or forfeiture of lands or tenements	19 Geo. II. 26 Geo. II.	34 32	5 1
80	Whoever apprehends, or discovers any offender in England , advertised as above, who has not surrendered himself within forty days, and causes him to be brought before a justice of the King's Bench, or a justice of the peace for London or Middlesex , is to be paid five hundred pounds for every offender (within one month after execution is awarded) by the commissioners of the Customs or Excise respectively, who are to divide the reward among the persons concerned, in such proportions as they think reasonable; and if the discoverer is any such offender (against whom no such order of council has been made) he is, besides his share of the reward, to be discharged from his offence, and all former like offences, for which no prosecution has been commenced	19 Geo. II. 26 Geo. II.	34 32	10 1
81	Persons losing a limb or an eye, or otherwise grievously maimed or wounded, in apprehending, or endeavouring to apprehend, or making pursuit after such offenders, to be paid 50 l. besides any other reward they are entitled to, as apprehenders by this Act: and if such persons are killed, their executors or administrators (laying proof thereof before the commissioners of the Customs or Excise) are to be paid 100 l.
82	Any offender in England , before such order in council is made, discovering his accomplices, and causing them to be apprehended, so as two at least be convicted, is to be paid 50 l. for each, besides being discharged of his own offence, and all former offences of the like nature, for which no prosecution has been commenced	19 Geo. II. 26 Geo. II.	34 32	11 1
83	All which rewards are to be paid by the receiver-general of the Customs, or cashier of Excise respectively, upon an order from the commissioners, and to be allowed of in their accounts as money paid to his majesty	19 Geo. II. 26 Geo. II.	34 32	10, 11 1
84	If any officer of the revenue, or other person employed in seizing, conveying, or securing any Wool, or other goods forfeited; or in endeavouring to apprehend any offender against this Act, shall be beat, wounded, maimed, or killed by any offender against this Act; or the goods rescued by persons so armed as aforesaid (unless the offender is apprehended and convicted within six calendar months after the fact) the rape or lath, or hundred where the fact was committed in England , is to make satisfaction not exceeding 40 l. for the damages by beating, wounding, or maiming, and not exceeding 200 l. for damages by loss of the goods, and to pay to the executors or administrators for each person killed 100 l. to be levied upon the inhabitants by a proportionable tax; and actions to be prosecuted in the same	19 Geo. 61—Sugars or other goods put on board any vessel licensed by this Act, being the property of any other person than some of his majesty's subjects, and such as shall be laden on their proper risque and account, to be carried to foreign parts, are forfeited —	12 Geo. II. 24 Geo. II.	30 57	4 7
62—Before any Sugars are taken on board, the master is to deliver to the collector of the port where the vessel is to take in her lading, the licence, with a certificate of bond having been given in Great-Britain, and to declare in writing whether he intends to load Sugars pursuant to the licence, otherwise the licence is invalid —	12 Geo. II. 24 Geo. II.	30 57	5 7
63—The exporter of the Sugars or other goods not enumerated, before they are put on board, is to make an entry of them in writing with the collector, comptroller, and naval-officer, expressing the name of the ship and master, and where she lies, and the place where they are to be laden or first water-born, must be such only where an officer is appointed to attend, or such as is mentioned in the warrant to be taken out for that purpose from the collector and comptroller, whereon is to be indorsed by the exporter the marks, numbers, contents, sorts, and proper denominations of the Sugars —
64—The warrant so indorsed is to be delivered to the officer appointed to examine and ship the same; and the Sugars are to be shipped in the presence of the officer, or at the place mentioned in the warrant, that the officer may attend —
65—The officer is to examine the same before shipped, and if the number of casks is greater than is indorsed on the warrant, or if there be found any other Sugar than what is indorsed, or any goods before enumerated; or if any enumerated goods, except Sugar, have been put on board, or brought, or put into any lighter or other vessel, in order to be put on board, before entry, &c. contrary to the directions of this Act, the said Sugars or other goods are forfeited, together with the lighter or vessel employed in shipping or attempting to ship the said enumerated goods, and the ship or vessel on which they are laden; and the owner to forfeit double the value, to be recovered in the court of Vice-admiralty, or any court of record in the plantations, at the election of the informer or prosecutor; $\frac{1}{3}$ to his majesty, $\frac{1}{3}$ to the governor of the colony, and $\frac{1}{3}$ to the informer or prosecutor —
66—The master of the vessel, before he departs, is to receive the said licence from the collector, comptroller, and naval-officer, with a certificate under their seals of office, and signed by them, containing an account of the marks, numbers, contents and sorts of each cask of Sugar so shipped. Two copies are to be taken of the said licence and certificate, and attested under the hand of the master of the ves-	12 Geo. II. 24 Geo. II.	30 57	5 7 fel

67—The master of the vessel must proceed directly to Great-Britain without putting into any other place, except by stress of weather (unless he is bound to the south of Cape Finisferre , vide Art. 73.) and upon his return, is to deliver his licence with the certificate to the commissioners of the Customs, or the collector and comptroller of the port where he arrives, and also a manifest, attested upon oath, of the marks and numbers, with the tale and sorts of casks, of all his lading, and make an entry of the quantity and sorts of all the Sugars which were laden and then remaining on board, and declare on oath to what foreign part he is bound. (The entry to be passed by the collector and comptroller without receiving any custom or duty for the Sugars, mentioning in their accounts that it was passed by virtue of this Act.) Then the master to proceed, taking with him his licence, and a certificate under the seals of office from the collector and comptroller, that he had touched at such a port, and in all respects complied with the directions of this Act
68—If any such vessel proceeds to foreign parts without touching at some port in Great-Britain (except as before) and complying with the directions of this Act, and having the same certified as above, or if any goods before enumerated are found on board, or carried to foreign parts, the liberty granted by this licence is void, and the vessel, master, and all others concerned, are liable to the same penalties and forfeitures, as if this Act had not been made
69—If upon information upon oath there is reason to suspect, that any enumerated goods, besides Sugars, are on board, any officer of the Customs, or person employed by them, may enter on board and unlade the vessel as far as they shall judge necessary to enable them to examine any part of her, and the goods on board, and detain her as long as is necessary; and open cabbins, lockers, and any concealments, and seize all goods found on board not mentioned in the master's manifest, which are forfeited	12 Geo. II. 24 Geo. II.	30 57	6 7
70—If no other goods are found on board, the officer is to be at the charge of damage done by landing, unloading or unpacking; but not for demurrage, or on any other account. But if other goods are found on board (except necessary provisions for the voyage) the master is to be at all charge
71—If the owners are desirous to enter and pay the duty, and land any goods out of such vessel, they may do it; the master first making a report of his whole lading, as required by law before this Act	12 Geo. II. 24 Geo. II.	30 57	7 7
72—The master upon his return to Great-Britain , after landing his Sugars in foreign parts, is to deliver to the commissioners or the collector and comptroller of the port where he arrives, the licence, with a certificate, from the consul or two known British merchants of good credit of the place where they are landed, of the landing thereof, with the number of casks of Sugar there landed, the marks, numbers and contents of each cask, with the name of the ship and master; and that no Tobacco, or other goods before enumerated, except Sugars, have been landed out of her—	12 Geo. And to give 500 l. security if the ship be 100 tons burthen or under, and so in proportion, if of a greater burthen, with condition, that the ship has been duly registered, and that the certificate of the register, if found, shall be delivered up to the commissioners of the Customs to be cancelled; and no illegal use has been, or shall be made thereof; and that it has not, nor shall be fraudulently disposed of; and that the ship does wholly belong to his majesty's British subjects, and that no foreigner has any share, property, or interest therein. And then the governor and collector of the Customs are to give the master a certificate under their hands and seals, of his having given such bond, and made such oath; and thereupon the ship is to have liberty to trade for that voyage only. The officer who takes the bond and oath, is to transmit an account thereof to the commissioners of the Customs

PLANTATIONS, British, in Asia, Africa, or America—The certificate

84 of the register being lost, the ship may be registered de novo, upon the master and one of the owners making proof upon oath (before the commissioners of the Customs, if any of the owners reside in Great-Britain, Ireland, Guernsey, or Jersey, or before the governor and collector of the Customs residing in the plantations in America, if she was registered there, and none of the owners reside as above) of the loss; and likewise of the name, burthen, built, property, and other particulars required by 7 and 8 Will. III. cap. 22. before the same persons, and in the same manner as required upon original registers; and giving 500 l. security, if the vessel be of the burthen of 100 tons, and in proportion for ships of greater burthen, to the collector of the port to which she belongs, that the certificate has not been, nor shall be fraudulently disposed of, or used contrary to law; and that when found, it shall be delivered to the commissioners of the Customs to be cancelled: and a certificate of the register is to be delivered to the owner by the proper officer, as directed by the said Act of 7 and 8 Will. III. mentioning the name by which she was formerly registered, and that this certificate is granted in pursuance of this Act, instead of the former certificate, which appears, by such proof as this Act requires, to be lost—

15 and 16 Geo. II.	31	4

85—A duplicate of the certificate is to be transmitted, by the officer who granted it, to the commissioners of the Customs

86—All bonds, commonly called plantation-bonds, taken in Great-Britain (in pursuance of 7 and 8 Will. III. cap. 22. or any other law) whereby the goods therein enumerated are to be brought to Great-Britain, are to be with condition, that within 18 months from the date, (the danger of the seas excepted) a certificate shall be produced from the collector and comptroller of the port where the goods are delivered, that they have been there landed and discharged; otherwise the bond to be forfeited—

15 and 16 Geo. II.	31	5

- QUARENTINE—All vessels arriving, persons coming, and goods imported into Great-Britain or Ireland, or the isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, from places from whence his majesty, by advice of his council, may judge it probable the infection of the plague may be brought, shall be obliged to make their quarentine in such place and manner, and for such time as directed by the order of council, notified by proclamation, or published in the London Gazette. And all persons and goods going, or being put on board such vessels, and all vessels, boats or persons, receiving any goods or persons out of the same, are to be subject to the same orders
- 1 26 Geo. II. 6 1
 - 2—If the plague actually appears on board any vessel being to the northward of Cape Finisterre, the commander is immediately to proceed to the harbour of St. Helen's Pool, between the islands of

St. He-

A B S T R A C T.

St. Helen's, Tean, and North Withell (being off the islands of Scilly) or to such other place as his majesty in council shall from time to time appoint, and make it known to an officer of the Customs there, who is to acquaint some Custom-house officer of a near port in England with it, who is with all speed to send intelligence thereof to one of the principal secretaries of state; the ship must wait till his majesty's pleasure is known, and none of the crew go on shore. In case the commander cannot make the islands of Scilly, or is forced up either of the channels, he must not enter into any port, but remain in some open road till he receives orders from his majesty or privy council, and take care to prevent any one from going out of the ship, and avoid all intercourse with other ships or persons. The master, or any other person on board, for disobedience herein, are to be adjudged guilty of felony, without benefit of clergy.—To be heard and determined in the county where the offence is committed, or where the offender is apprehended

3 QUARENTINE—When any place is infected with the plague, or order made by his majesty concerning quarentine, if any vessel attempts to enter into any port as above (Art. 1.) the principal officer of the Customs, or person appointed to see quarentine performed, must go off, or cause some other person to do so, and at a convenient distance demand the name of the ship, and commander, at what places the cargo was taken on board, what places she touched at in her voyage, and whether any, and which of them, were infected with the plague; how long she had been in her passage, how many persons were on board when she set sail, whether any, and what persons on board during the voyage had been, or are infected with the plague, how many died in the voyage, and of what distemper; what vessels he or any of his ship's company, with his privy, went on board, or had any of their company on board his vessel in the voyage, to what place such vessels belonged, and the true contents of his lading to the best of his knowledge? If it appears that any person on board is infected, or the ship is obliged to perform quarentine, the officers of his majesty's ships of war, forts, or garrisons, or any other officers are, upon notice given them, to oblige her to go to the place appointed for that purpose, by any force or violence necessary

4—If the vessel came from a place infected, or has any body on board infected, the commander, or person having charge, concealing it, is guilty of felony, without benefit of clergy; and not making a true discovery in any other of the aforesaid particulars, forfeits 200 l.

5—The commander of a vessel ordered to perform quarentine, upon his arrival at the place, is to deliver to the chief officer appointed to see it performed such bill of health and manifest, as he has received from any British consul during his voyage, together with his log-book and journal, on forfeiture of 500 l.

6—A commander of a vessel having notice to perform quarentine, if he goes on shore, or on board any other vessel, or knowingly suffers any seaman or passenger to do so (without licence) before quarentine is duly performed, or does not cause the vessel and her lading to be conveyed to the places appointed for that purpose respectively, within convenient time after due notice, is to forfeit 500 l. for every offence; and any person so quitting the vessel may be compelled to return on board, and for every offence is to suffer six months imprisonment, and forfeit 200 l.

7—The proper officers authorized to put in execution the orders of his majesty in council, are to compel persons obliged to perform quarentine to repair, and cause the goods comprized in such orders to be conveyed, to the houses, lazarets, or other places provided for their reception

8—Persons wilfully refusing, or neglecting to repair thither, within convenient time after due notice, or escaping, or attempting to escape from thence, before quarentine is duly performed, may be compelled to repair or return thither by such

9 QUARENTINE—Any person not infected entering into a house, lazaret, or other place, while persons infected with the plague or under quarantine are there, and attempting to return from thence (unless by proper licence) may be compelled by the watchmen, or guard upon duty, to return thither and perform quarantine; and in case of actual escape before it is duly performed, shall be adjudged guilty of felony, without benefit of clergy
10—Any officer of the Customs or other person, whose business it is to execute the orders concerning quarantine, for every wilful breach or neglect of duty, is to forfeit his office, and be incapable of a new grant thereof, and also forfeit 100 l. and for embezzling, or wilfully damaging any goods under his direction, is liable to pay treble damages and full costs
26 Geo. II.	6	12
11—All goods and merchandizes, particularly specified in the orders concerning quarantine, imported from any foreign country in any vessel whatsoever, shall be subject to the orders concerning quarantine
26 Geo. II.	6	13
12—After quarantine has been duly performed by any vessel or persons, upon proof by the oaths of the master and two of the persons belonging to the vessel, or of two or more credible witnesses, before the customer, comptroller, or collector, or any of their deputies, of the port where it was performed, or of the next port, or of a justice of the peace near such port, or in the isles of Guernsey , Jersey , Alderney , Sark , or Man , before any two jurats or magistrates thereof, that such vessel, and all and every such person and persons, have duly performed quarantine, and are free from infection; and after producing a certificate to that purpose from the chief officer who superintended the quarantine, the persons before whom the proof is made are to give a certificate thereof, and the vessel and persons are to be liable to no further detention on that account
26 Geo. II.	6	15
13—When any goods liable to quarantine have been opened and aired in such place and manner, and for such time as directed by the orders above-mentioned, and the orders have been duly complied with, and a certificate thereof given by the chief superintendant, and proof made thereof by the oaths of two credible witnesses before any of the officers mentioned above (Art. 12.) such officer is required to make a certificate and return thereof to the commissioners of the Customs in Great-Britain or Ireland , or to the governor or commander in chief upon the place in the islands above mentioned respectively, and thereupon they are to be discharged from any further detention on that account, by order of any two of the said commissioners, or of such governor respectively
26 Geo. II.	6	16
14—Any person demanding or taking any fee or reward for any oath, order or certificate, directed by this Act, forfeits 100 l. —
26 Geo. II.	6	17
15—Any person appointed to see quarantine duly performed, or appointed as a watchman in that case, if he deserts from his duty, or knowingly suffers any person, ship, goods or merchandize to depart, or be conveyed from the place appointed for performance of quarantine, unless by proper licence, or any person directed to give a certificate of a ship's having duly performed her quarantine or airing, if he knowingly gives a false one, is to suffer death, as in cases of felony, without benefit of clergy—
26 Geo. II.	6	18
16—Any person wilfully concealing from the officers of quarantine, or clandestinely conveying any letters, goods or merchandize, from a ship under, or liable to perform quarantine, or from any other place where goods are performing quarantine, is to suffer death, as in cases of felony, without benefit of clergy—
17—When any part of Great-Britain , Ireland , or the isles of Guernsey , Jersey , Alderney , Sark , or Man , or France , Spain , Portugal , or the Low Countries , are infected with the plague, his majesty may by proclamation prohibit any small boat or vessel, under

10—No person may alter or mend a sail of foreign sailcloth or canvas, not so stamped, on forfeiture of 20 l. —	19 Geo. II. 26 Geo. II.	27 32	9 3
SAILCLOTH—Every sailmaker or other person in Great-Britain , or
11 his majesty's plantations in America , must impress on every new sail he makes a stamp of eight inches diameter, dipped in lamp-black mixed with linseed oil well boiled; containing his name and place of abode in plain distinct letters and words at length, on forfeiture thereof, and of 10 l. for every new sail delivered to any captain or master of a vessel without such stamp —	19 Geo. II. 26 Geo. II.	27 32	10 3
12—Sailcloth of the manufacture of Ireland imported into Great-Britain (during the continuance of a bounty on exportation granted by an Act of the parliament of Ireland 19 Geo. II.) is subject to a new duty, which see pag. 58. —	23 Geo. II.	32	1, 3
13—No Canvas or Sailcloth may be imported from Ireland , but in whole and entire bolts or pieces; and if the loops or double threads of the bolts (which are directed to be part of the warp in the middle of that end of the web which is last in weaving) are cut off; or if the bolts have a stamp importing the payment of either of the bounties, they shall be deemed to have received the bounty —	23 Geo. II.	32	2
14—If any dispute arises about the duty which ought to be paid, such duty is to be ascertained in the same manner, and under the same forfeitures and penalties, as upon goods subject to payment of duty ad valorem —	23 Geo. II.	32	5
15—Upon the importation of Canvas or Sailcloth from Ireland , the proper officer of the Customs may open, view, and examine the same, and if it appears that the said bounty has been paid, and no regular entry made at importation, the canvas or sailcloth so omitted to be entered shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any officer of the Customs —	23 Geo. II.	32	4
SAILS—Every master of a vessel, belonging to any of his majesty's
1 subjects, navigated with, or having on board any foreign-made sails, is, at the time of reporting his ship, to make an entry and report upon oath of every such sail, and, before the ship is cleared, to pay for them the same duty as by 12 Ann. cap. 16. is laid upon foreign-made sails imported by way of merchandize, on forfeiture of the sails to his majesty, and 50 l. for every offence by the master; and such sails are to be stamped at the port of entry, in the same manner as directed for foreign sailcloth —	19 Geo. II. 26 Geo. II.	27 32	1, 2 3
— Vide Sailcloth 6.
2—But if the master, before the ship is cleared, declares his intention of not paying the duty, and delivers up the sails to the officer of the Customs, the sails only are to be forfeited —	19 Geo. II. 26 Geo. II.	27 32	3 3
3—No captain of a ship coming from the East-Indies liable to this duty or forfeiture for any foreign made sails, bona fide , brought from the East-Indies —	19 Geo. II. 26 Geo. II.	27 32	4 3

14—But if the goods or effects stranded, lost, or cast on shore, are of small value, and stolen without circumstances of cruelty, outrage, or violence, the offender may be prosecuted by indictment for petit larceny, and punished accordingly.	26 Geo. II.	19	2
15—Such goods being stolen, upon information upon oath before a justice of the peace, of their being unlawfully conveyed away, or concealed in any place, or of some reasonable ground of suspicion thereof, such justice may grant warrants for search; and if they are found there, or in custody of any person not legally intitled to keep them, the owner or occupier of the place, or the person upon whom they are found, not immediately delivering them upon demand to the owner or person lawfully authorized to demand them, or not giving a good account how he came by them, is to be committed to gaol for six months, or until he pays the owner treble the value of the goods ———	26 Geo. II.	19	3
16—Such goods stolen, or suspected to be so, and offered to sale, may be stopped and seized by the person to whom they are offered, or by any officer of the Customs or Excise, or any peace officer, who must carry them, or give notice of the seizure to a justice of the peace; and if the person who offered them to sale does not, within ten days, prove to the satisfaction of the justice, the property to be in him, or the person who employed him, the goods, by order of the justice, are to be delivered over to the use of the owner, upon payment of a reasonable reward for the seizure, to be ascertained by the justice; who is also to commit the person who offered them to sale, to gaol for six months, or until he has paid treble the value of the goods to the owner ———	26 Geo. II.	19	4
17—Any person not employed by the master, mariners, or owners, or persons lawfully authorized, who, in the absence of those who are so, shall save any ship or effects, and cause them to be carried into port, or to any custom-house near, or other place of safe custody, immediately giving notice thereof to some justice of the peace, magistrate, or custom-house or excise officer, or shall discover to them where such effects are wrongfully bought, sold, or concealed, shall be entitled to a reasonable reward from the master or owners; to be adjusted, in case of disagreement, in the same manner as salvage ———	26 Geo. SILKS—

A B S T R A C T.

- SILKS—Raw, of the growth and culture of the British plantations 11 in America, may be imported directly from thence into the port of London free of all duties ; provided entry is made at the Custom-house in the same manner as before this Act, and it is landed in the presence, and examined by the proper officer of the Customs, and imported in vessels which may lawfully trade thither, manned according to law ———
- 12 ——— But to intitle the importer to this exemption, the person who ships the silk in America must, before clearing the ship, make oath before the collector and comptroller of the Customs and naval-officer, or any two of them, that such silk is, bona fide, of the growth and culture of some or one of the British colonies or plantations in America, expressing the parish wherein, and the person by whom it was cultivated and produced, who must likewise make oath thereto before the governor or justice of the peace, &c. upon producing such oath, the collector and comptroller of the Customs and naval-officer, or any two of them, are to grant a certificate under their hands and seals, expressing the marks, numbers, tale, and weight in each bale, with the names and places of abode of the exporter, of the person or persons who have sworn to the growth and culture, and the name of the person to whom consigned in London ; which certificate the master of the ship is to deliver to the collector, comptroller, or chief officer of the port of London, at or before entry ; and at the same time make oath, that the bales and parcels, and goods contained in the certificate, are the same that were taken on board in the said British colonies in America ———
- 13 ——— Any person entering foreign Raw silk as Raw silk of the growth or culture of the British plantations in America, or mixing foreign with that of the British plantations, in order to evade the payment of the duty, forfeits 50 l. and all the silk, together with the bales and packages ———
- 14 ——— In any dispute about the growth, the onus probandi to lie on the owner or claimer ———
- 15 ——— Wrought, or mixed with any other materials, and Velvets (not manufactured in Great-Britain, and not prohibited to be worn therein) imported, are after entry at the Custom-house, and before delivery to the importer, to be marked or sealed, at each end of every piece, with such mark or seal, and by such officer, as the commissioners of the Customs shall appoint ———
- 16 ——— Upon exportation, the exporter, before they are shipped, must give notice to the proper officer when, and where he will pack them up, who is (without fee or reward) to take care that such seals, stamps or marks, are taken off from every piece intended to be exported ; without which no drawback is to be allowed ———
- 17 ——— Such goods found in any shop, warehouse, or other place upon land, not so marked or sealed, upon both ends of a whole piece, or one end of a remnant, are forfeited, and may be seized by any officer of the Customs, and secured in the King's warehouses ; and after condemnation are to be publickly sold to the best bidder, one moiety of the produce to be for the use of his majesty, and the other for the officer who seized and secured them ; and the person in whose possession they are found, also forfeits 200 l. ———
- 18 ——— Such goods not to be consumed in this kingdom, but are to be sold for exportation only, and not to be delivered out of the warehouse, till security is given accordingly ———
- 19 ——— For counterfeiting such stamp, mark or seal, or the impression thereof, upon the goods abovementioned, or for knowingly selling, or exposing to sale, the said goods with a counterfeit stamp, the offender, his aiders, abettors and afsistants, are to forfeit for every offence 500 l. and stand in the pillory for two hours ———
- 20 ——— The pecuniary forfeitures by this Act may be sued for in a ny court of record at Westminster, or the court of Exchequer

TOBACCO

A B S T R A C T.

- TOBACCO of the British plantations—The importer may, if he is
- 4 not willing to pay ready money, become bound with one or more sufficient sureties, (to be approved by the collector and comptroller of the port of importation) in one or more bonds, for payment of the Additional duty, New subsidy, Subsidy 1747, Subsidy 1759, One-third subsidy and Impost, within 18 months, to commence at the end of 30 days after the master's report of the ship, or from the merchants entry within those 30 days; which shall first happen
- 5—If after such security be given for payment of the duties in 18 months, the importer be desirous to discharge his bond in ready money, any time before the expiration thereof, he shall be abated upon such bond so much as the discount, at the rate of 7 l. per cent. per annum, shall amount unto, in proportion to the time unexpired—
- 6—Upon payment of the Old subsidy, and security of the other duties, by the importer's own bond, may be put into warehouses, provided at his charge, and approved by the commissioners of the Customs; if destroyed in such warehouses by fire, the duties to be allowed
- 7—Damaged or mean, is not to have any allowance; either at the scale or otherwise; but upon the merchant's refusing to pay the duty, he may separate such damaged Tobacco, by cutting off, from the hogheads, so much as he shall refuse to pay or secure custom for, and any three or more of the principal officers of his majesty's Customs shall cause such Tobacco to be burnt or destroyed, without making the importer any allowance for freight or charges, except that described in Article 9, and in compart. 3d, chap. 3d.
- 8—But the stalks may not be separated from the leaves, on pretence that the same is damaged or mean Tobacco—
- 9—Having received damage on board by stress of weather at sea, or by the ship's being on shore in Great-Britain, or by any accident after her arrival in port, the chief officer of the Customs may allow the importer one halfpenny per pound, upon his refusing to pay or secure the duties, and separating it from the found in order to be burnt, or destroyed by the officers; so as such allowance does not exceed 30 s. upon any one single hoghead—
—Vide compart. 3d, chap. 3d.
- 10—Allowance for draught at the scale, to be only 8 lb upon every hoghead of 350 lb or more; which allowance is not to be deducted upon exportation
- 11—Only Tobacco of the British plantations, that has paid the duties and been manufactured in Great-Britain, may be consumed on board British ships of war in any part of Europe, upon forfeiture of their respective places of the commanders, or purfers, and 3 s. per pound weight —Vide Plantations 9, 10, 24, 60.
- 12—Shipped at any place in the British plantations in America for Great-Britain after the 25th of March 1752, the collector or comptroller, or other chief officer of the Customs there, or any two of them, are at the clearing out the vessel to deliver to the commander, or person taking charge of her, a manifest under their hands and seals of office, containing a true account of all the Tobacco taken on board, the number of packages, the quantity, marks, numbers and tare of each package, and at the same time transmit a duplicate thereof to the respective commissioners of the Customs in Great-Britain, on forfeiture of 200 l. to be recovered in any court of record at Westminster, or court of Admiralty in the plantations where the offence is committed—
- 13—The person having charge of the vessel, upon his arrival at his port of discharge in Great-Britain, and at the time of making his report, must deliver the said manifest to the collector of the Customs there, on forfeiture of 100 l. and the collector is to deliver it to the land-waiters appointed upon the ship

II.	41	3
15	TOBACCO—May not be imported into Great-Britain otherwise than in cask, chest, or case only, each containing 450 pounds weight of neat Tobacco at the least, on forfeiture of all the Tobacco, together with the package	24 Geo. II.	41	20
16	Imported from the British plantations on the continent of America in bulk, or otherwise than in casks, chests, or cases, containing each two hundred weight or 224 lb at the least, is forfeited, and 6 d. per lb weight, except small quantities for the crews smoking; $\frac{2}{3}$ to his majesty, and $\frac{1}{3}$ to the seizer or fuer	10&11 W. III.	21	29
17	Exported—No debenture to be made out after the 29th of September 1751, nor any drawback to be allowed upon Tobacco imported after that time, unless it is shipped and exported from the same port where it was originally imported, and (if unmanufactured) in the original package, with the same marks in and with which it was imported, no other Tobacco being put therein, nor any taken out, except 10 pounds which shall be allowed to be taken out of each package after the same is weighed at importation, as is now the practice. The penalty for entering unmanufactured Tobacco for exportation from any port but the port of importation, or in any other package, or without the same marks as imported, is forfeiture of the Tobacco, and 200 l. by the person who enters it, or causes it to be entered, besides loss of drawback; and whoever knowingly exports any package of Tobacco, out of which more than 10 pounds has been taken, forfeits 20 l. for every package exported	24 Geo. II.	41	4
18	But if upon landing, the Tobacco in any hoghead or cask, by cutting off the damaged part, is under the weight of 450 pounds, the importer may, in the presence of the land-waiter, cause the sound Tobacco to be put together into one or more hogheads out of which the damaged was taken; and the land-waiters are to enter in their books the exact weight of the Tobacco, with the marks and numbers of each such hoghead, and note that they were refilled in their presence; then such Tobacco (provided the quantity in each hoghead is 425 pounds weight or more) may be exported from the port of importation, as if the package had not been altered	24 Geo. II.	41	5
19	The person who enters unmanufactured Tobacco outwards must, before shipping it for exportation, indorse upon the cocket and bill the plantation or manifest mark and number, the landing mark and number, with the weight of each package at the time of landing; also the exporter's mark and number, with the weight of each at the time of entry for exportation, and write off the weight of each package from the identical entry thereof at importation. Every person refusing, or neglecting so to do, forfeits 5 l. for every package, besides loss of drawback; and the searcher is not to admit any cocket, unless marked as aforesaid	24 Geo. II.	41	6
20	Unmanufactured, may not be laden in any vessel in Great-Britain with intent to be exported, but in casks, chests or cases only, containing 425 pounds weight or more of Tobacco in each, on forfeiture of the Tobacco and cask, &c. containing the same; except packages containing samples shipped and exported at the same time and place with the casks, &c. out of which they were taken	24 Geo. any thing as Tobacco for exportation which, upon examination by the proper officer, appears not to be so, shall forfeit all the goods and the package, and 50 l. for every package		24 Geo. II.	41	24
23	TOBACCO—Manufactured or unmanufactured, may not be entered or shipped for exportation in any vessel not of the burthen of 70 tons or upwards, except to Ireland , and if exported thither in any vessel under the burthen of 20 tons, it is not to be allowed any drawback	24 Geo. II. 8 Ann.	41 13	25 20
24	Any officer of the Customs apprehending a vessel outward bound with Tobacco on board, not of the burthen of 70 tons or upwards, he may stop and detain her and the whole cargo; till she is admeasured as directed by 6 Geo. I. cap. 21. and if she proves to be of that burthen, he shall not be subject to any action for damages; but the master of such vessel entering and clearing her out as of that burthen, when she is under it, forfeits 100 l. for every such offence	24 Geo. II. 8 Ann.	41 13	25 20
25	Exported to Ireland —It, upon producing a certificate, less appears to be landed there than shipped from hence, an allowance not exceeding two per cent. may be made for waste during the voyage	6 Geo. I.	21	48
26	Entered for other foreign parts, if landed in Ireland , is forfeited, and double the drawback; and the debenture for the drawback is to be void	6 Geo. I.	21	49
27	Entered out for any other place than Ireland , the exporter is to swear that the same is not landed in any part of Great-Britain or Ireland — Vide Debentures.	6 Geo. I.	21	50
28	Imported from the British plantations in America —The importer manufacturing it, or delivering it out to be manufactured upon his own account, must first deliver to the collector or chief officer of the Customs, at the port of importation, an account in writing signed by himself and the manufacturer, or their known agents, with their names and places of abode, containing the plantations or manifest, mark and number of each package, with the name of the ship, and time when imported; the landing mark and number, the weight at importation, and the weight at the time of delivering it out, and the importer must write off the weight from the entry at importation. The penalty for neglecting to give or sign such account, or knowingly giving or signing a fraudulent one, is 30 l. for every package, by each person concerned	24 Geo. II.	41	7
29	The importer selling or delivering such Tobacco out of his possession must, within 14 days after delivery, give to the collector the same account in writing, signed by himself and the purchaser, or their known agents, and write off the weight from the entry in the same manner, and subject to the same penalties as in case of delivering it out to be manufactured — Vide the preceeding Article.	24 Geo. II.	41	8
30	Removed by land—TOBACCO or TOBACCO-STALKS exceeding 24 lb weight, or SNUFF exceeding 10 lb weight, may not be conveyed from the place of importation to any other place in Great-Britain , without a certificate from the collector and comptroller or chief officer of the Customs, at the place of importation; and if unmanufactured, with the importer's oath thereto (if the importer applies for it) that the duties were paid or secured at importation, by whom, when, and in what ship imported; or with the purchaser's oath thereto (if he applies for it) attesting the marks and numbers of the hogsheds out of which it was taken, from whom purchased, and when; if TOBACCO-STALKS or SNUFF, or MANUFACTURED TOBACCO, are so removed, then the certificate must have the importer's oath thereto (if he applies for it) that such Stalks were stripped, or such Snuff or Manufactured tobacco was made from one or more hogsheds, for which the duties were by him paid or secured at importation; or the purchaser's oath thereto (if he applies for it) that such Stalks were stripped, or the Snuff or Manufactured tobacco was made from one or more hogsheds, which had been	24 Geo. 31	The proprietor, factor or agent of the Tobacco, &c. (before it is removed) is to insert on the back of the certificate the names of each package, with the marks and numbers, and the weight of each species of goods in each package, the place from whence delivered, and to which they are to be conveyed, and by whom, or the name of the inn from whence carried, and the name of the person to whom consigned; and to which he must subscribe his name, and make oath to the truth thereof ————
32	The certificate must express the number of days it is to continue in force, and accompany the goods to the place to which they are to be carried; and the person there receiving it must cause it to be delivered to the chief officer of the Customs there, or, if there is no officer of the Customs, to the officer of Excise for that division, who is to examine the same with the goods, which, if they agree therewith, are to be taken away by the person to whom they belong; and such officer is to enter the certificate in a book kept for that purpose ————	24 Geo. II. 26 Geo. II.	41 10 13 4
33	Such goods, in the quantity abovementioned, removing by land without such certificate, are forfeited, and the packages, together with the cattle and carriages; and the carrier, or person employed in removing the same, is to be committed to the county-gaol for one month, by a justice of the peace for the county where the offence is committed, or the offender found. prietor to the person taking charge of the vessel, who, immediately upon his arrival in any port or place in Great-Britain, must deliver it to the collector or chief officer there, who must examine the goods with the certificate, and if they agree therewith, the goods are to be discharged, and may be taken away by the person to whom they belong —

39—Such goods found on board any vessel before such certificate is obtained, or without its being on board therewith, or if it is forged, or does not agree in all respects with the goods, then all such goods are forfeited, together with the packages, and may be seized and prosecuted by any officer of the Customs, and the person taking charge of the vessel shall forfeit 6 d. per pound weight; and any person who shall counterfeit, forge, erase or alter such certificate, shall forfeit 100 l.

TOBACCO, or TOBACCO-STALKS, exceeding 24 pounds weight, or 40 SNUFF exceeding 10 pounds weight (which has been removed by water from the place of importation to any other place in Great-Britain) may not be removed afterwards from thence by land, without a certificate from the collector and comptroller or chief officer of the Customs, at the place to which they were carried by water, that it appears to them by the entry of the certificate, which came with the goods from the place of importation, that the duties thereof were paid or secured there, and in what vessel they were brought by water, and when, and that the person applying for the same had made oath to the truth thereof; which certificate such officers are required (after writing it in their books) to deliver to any person applying for it —

41—The proprietor of the goods, or his factor or agent (before they are removed) must insert on the back of the certificate the names of each package, with the marks and numbers, the weight of each species of goods in each package, the place from whence brought and to which they are to be carried, and the name of the person to whom they shall be sent, which he must subscribe with his name, and make oath to the truth thereof —

42—Such goods found so removing without such certificate, or if the certificate appears to be forged or counterfeited, are forfeited, and the package, together with the horses, cattle and carriages employed, and may be seized and prosecuted by any officer of the Customs; the carrier or person employed in the removal also forfeits 10 l. and is to be committed to the county-gaol for one month by any justice of the peace for the county where the offence is committed, or the offender found —

43—Any person who shall counterfeit, forge, erase or alter such certificate or duplicate thereof, or procure it to be done, shall forfeit 100 l. for every offence —

44—The second purchaser of an intire hogthead of unmanufactured Tobacco is intitled to the benefit of a certificate on removal by land or water, in like manner as the first purchaser from the importer; but in this certificate the name of the importer or feller may be omitted, provided the feller to the second purchaser has delivered to the collector or chief officer of the Customs, at the port of importation, such account as the importer is required to give by 24 Geo. II. cap. 41. —

45—Any certificate for removal of Tobacco, Tobacco-stalks or Snuff, by land or water, is to be deemed a proper one, though the name of the importer is not inserted therein, provided his name is expressed in the bill from which the certificate is prepared —

46—Any person who shall put out, alter or deface any mark or number set upon any package of Tobacco in America, or in Great-Britain, at importation or exportation, shall forfeit 20 l. for each package —

47—Tobacco-stalks and Snuff seized and condemned, are to be burnt in the presence of the collector and comptroller of the Customs at the place where the goods are at the time of condemna-

- tion, or for want of such, in the presence of the collector or supervisor of Excise for that district
- 48—The officers who seized and prosecuted are to be paid (if it is Tobacco or Tobacco-snuff) at the same rate as if it was sold for 6 d. per pound, which, by 12 Geo. I. cap. 28. § 10. being one-third of the gross sale clear of all charges, amounts to 2 d. per pound; if Tobacco-stalks or damaged Tobacco, they are to be paid 1 d. per pound, in lieu of all other allowance, by the receiver-general of the Customs at London or Edinburgh respectively, or by the collector of the out-ports where seized and burnt, out of any duties applicable to incidents; provided the officers before whom it was burnt certify to the respective commissioners of the Customs the exact quantity burnt, who are thereupon to grant their order for payment
- 49—TOBACCO—The following particulars are to be transmitted to the register of Tobacco by the persons undermentioned, viz. an account of the certificate received with the goods (vide Art. 32.) by the officer of the Customs or Excise respectively; and duplicates of original certificates for removing by land, by the officers who granted them at the port of importation; and certificates for removal by water (vide Art. 38.) by the chief officer of the Customs at the port where the goods were landed, within one month after he receives it, provided the goods agree therewith; and duplicates of certificates for removal by land, after the first removal by water (vide Art. 40.) by the person who granted it; and, once in every calendar month, one of the land-waiter's books of the landing and discharging of Tobacco imported from the British plantations in America, and copies of every entry thereof for exportation, with the indorsements, and copies of every account of Tobacco intended to be manufactured, and copies of every account of Tobacco sold by the importer, to be transmitted by the collector and comptroller, or chief officer of the Customs, of every port in Great-Britain where the business was transacted; which several accounts are to be by him entered and kept in such manner and form, that the marks and numbers of every hog-head, cask, or other package, and their weights at importation, may be compared with the marks, &c. respectively at exportation, or delivery for home-consumption, or to be manufactured, in order to preserve the identity thereof; and the said register is to transmit to the commissioners of the Customs, at London and Edinburgh respectively, an account in writing of any thing which appears to be done contrary to the meaning of this Act; and once in six months he is to lay before the lords of the Treasury a copy of such his representations made to the said commissioners. Any collector or chief officer neglecting to transmit any of the accounts before mentioned, to forfeit 50 l. for every such neglect
- 50—Imported from the British plantations in America—The importer is every year, between the 1st and 24th of June, to deliver to the collector, or chief officer of the Customs, at the port of importation, an account in writing under his hand of all Tobacco in his custody, power or possession, which has been entered 18 months or more at that time, containing the number of packages, with the respective marks, numbers, and weights of each, and the place where lodged; upon receipt of which, such officer is to cause the goods to be examined thereby, and then to transmit the account to the register of Tobacco
- 51—Any importer neglecting so to do, or if the account proves fraudulent in any respect, forfeits 50 l. for every offence
- 52—Any vessel, under the burthen of 70 tons, having on board 100 lb weight of Tobacco, or any Tobacco-stalks, or 50 lb weight of Snuff, found at anchor, or hovering within the limits of any port, or within two leagues of the shore, or discovered to have been within the limits of any port, and not proceeding on her voyage (unless in case of unavoidable necessity and distress of weather, of which the master, purser, or person taking charge,

19—After the 5th July 1765, these regulations extended to vessels of 100 tons, or under	5 Geo. III.	43	29
20—Imported after the 5th July 1765, from any part of Europe , and after the 1st December 1765, from any part of Asia , Africa and America , into Great-Britain , or into any port, harbour, &c. in any ship under the burthen of 100 tons (except two gallons for each seaman), forfeited, with the vessel, &c. and may be disposed of, as mentioned in art. 4, 5.
21—Geneva, after the 5th July 1765, and Rum after the 1st December 1765, imported into Great-Britain in any vessel or cask not containing 60 gallons at least (except two gallons for each seaman) are forfeited, and may be seized, prosecuted and divided as before directed; but if it appear to the satisfaction of the commissioners of the Customs, that any Rum, being the produce or manufacture of his majesty's dominions in America , is imported directly from thence in small casks, without fraud, either for the master's use in the voyage, or for the merchant's who imports it, or designed as presents, and not for merchandize, they may admit such Rum to entry and payment of duties, instead of being forfeited—	5 Geo. III.	43	30
22—Rum, Strong waters, or Spirits of any kind, exported after the 5th July 1765, from Ireland , to any place, except within that kingdom, in any vessel under 100 tons (except two gallons for each seaman), such vessel, with all her tackle, furniture and apparel, is forfeited, and may be seized by any officer of the Revenue in Ireland , and prosecuted, &c. agreeably to the laws now in force in Ireland , against the running of goods into that kingdom	5 Geo. III.	43	32
BUGLES may be imported into Great-Britain after the 1st June 1765, 1 paying no other duty than half the Old subsidy, which is not to be drawn back upon exportation.—Such Bugles to be secured on landing in the king's warehouse; and if delivered thereout for exportation, are to be subjected to the like security, regulations, &c. as East-India goods prohibited to be worn or used in Great-Britain are now liable to	5 Geo. III.	30	4
2—If delivered out for home-consumption, the person so taking them must first pay up the remainder of the duties due on the importation of such goods, and the Bugles to be subject to the same restrictions and regulations as goods imported are liable to—
3—After being secured in the warehouse, if not delivered out for exportation, or the full duties paid within five years after the importation, but remaining therein, the commissioners of the Customs may cause such Bugles to be publickly sold by auction or inch of candle to the best bidder, and the money arising by the sale to be applied, first, in answering the duties, and then in discharging the expences of the sale, and what remains to be paid to the proprietor of the Bugles	5 Geo. SUPPLEMEN

TO THE

BRITISH MERCHANTS ASSISTANT

CONTAINING

Those Rated Species of Goods, &c. which are not inferted in the Work.

As most of these Goods are seldom or never imported, owing to the various alterations introduced into trade and commerce since the establishing the Book of Rates in 1660, the inserting them in the body of the work would have disfigured the plan, and rendered it in many respects more intricate; and if the duties payable on them had been equally extended with the rest of the book, a considerable expence would have been thereby incurred, though the utility arising either to the merchant or the officer of the revenue, would have been no ways answerable thereto: However, it having been apprehended, that either through inattention or design, some inconveniencies might arise from the exclusion of these rated articles, the author, willing to avoid the most distant reflection on this head, has judged it expedient to annex these Goods by way of Supplement to the work.

The Reader will please to observe, that where there is a Figure annexed to any Species of Goods, it denotes, that besides the Duties here exhibited, certain Additional Duties are also chargeable, and Tables of these Duties, marked with corresponding Figures, will be found from page 387 to page 393.—Where there is an Asterisk * affixed to any Goods, it signifies that they are prohibited to be imported, the circumstances of which Prohibition will appear on consulting the prohibitory List of Goods at the end of the Book.

THE RATES of MERCHANT

Following Goods may be exported Duty free by virtue of the joined to each Species, and those which are liable to Duty from page 494 to 499.

It is to be observed, in regard to those goods which on exportation are exempted from duty by 8 Geo. I. cap. 15. that they are not intitled to such exemption, unless due entries thereof be first made in the Custom-house, expressing qualities and quantities, and the goods shipped by the proper officers, in the same manner and form as was practised before the making the said Act; which being omitted, the goods are liable to payment of duty as before. 8 Geo. I. cap. 15. § 9.

The Reader will please to observe, that as most of the goods are exempted from duty by the Acts 11 and 12 Will. III. cap. 20. and 8 Geo. I. cap. 15. to prevent the repetition of these two Acts, the first is represented by a, and the second by b.
